European Regional Development Fund Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Communities and Local Government Committee, 2012-07-13 The abolition of the Regional Development Agencies removed the main source of match funding for ERDF sponsored projects and the economic downturn has curbed alternative options for match funding even further There is a pressing need to spend each region s ERDF allocation before 2015 but unless ministers take urgent steps to deliver on the Government s promise to make it easier for projects to secure match funding through the Regional Growth Fund there is a significant risk that value for money will suffer and ERDF will not make the impact it could to help rebalance the UK s economy The Committee endorses a number of sensible rule changes that will govern the next ERDF round 2014-20 currently proposed and related proposals to give Member States the power to tailor the size of their Operational Programme areas which could permit Local Economic Partnerships in England to take responsibility for managing EU funds MPs also challenge the current allocation system where even the wealthiest Member States receive some ERDF funding when a portion of what they pay in originally gets recycled back to them The cross party group of MPs calls for this circular money flow to end and for England to retain this portion of funding to deliver its own regional policy The Government would have to guarantee the same level of funding across the EU s 7 year funding cycle This change would not affect the Government s contribution to ERDF for the poorer Member States Lastly MPs challenge the Government to evaluate the value for money of ERDF funded projects

Modernising European Union labour law Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2007-06-27 In its Green Paper about the need for labour market reform the European Commission argued that the increasing diversity of 21st century working relationships means that existing labour law is no longer adequate This report brings together the evidence from a wide range of experts and representative bodies about these issues as they affect the UK labour market It finds that the evidence does not support the Commission The consensus is that the relatively light regulation of the UK labour market is advantageous and that problems of social disadvantage and structural unemployment are better addressed by measures aimed at tackling poor skills and social inequality rather than changing labour law The report therefore recommends that efforts at EU level should focus on the promotion and sharing of good practice rather than the introduction of new legislation

The new Local Enterprise Partnerships Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Business, Innovation and Skills Committee, 2010-12-09 This report indicates broad support for the creation of Local Enterprise Partnerships as a way of addressing local growth In particular the potential of LEPs to offer a greater focus on local economic needs and build on the affinity between business local government and other partners at a local level is recognised Whilst it is right that LEPs should compete at certain levels it is equally important for them to collaborate particularly with the Regional Development Agencies where it makes economic sense Local Enterprise

Partnerships are being introduced quickly and at a time of greatly constrained public funding There is concern that in the short term LEPs will need know how and powers and in some cases financial resources to make a positive difference Government will need to be willing to devolve power to LEPs and in certain cases be willing to support LEPs at inception If LEPs are to be a success the Department's transition team will need to focus in three areas retain RDA know how realising the full potential of RDA assets and leveraging potential EU funding Yeowart and Parsons on the Law of Financial Collateral Geoffrey Yeowart, Robin Parsons, Edward Murray, Hamish Patrick, 2016-02-26 As the volume of transactions in European financial markets continues to grow the use of financial collateral be it in the form of cash shares bonds or credit claims has become a critical tool in supporting and managing risk in financial transactions This book is the first of its kind to offer a systematic examination of the whole law relating to financial collateral It does so in two parts First it explains the law created by the Financial Collateral Arrangements No 2 Regulations 2003 the Directive it implemented and related legislation Second it examines how financial collateral is used in practice in a range of different markets It will be an essential reference point for all legal practitioners operating in financial markets Key features Analytical rigour combined with insight into how financial collateral works in practice covering both English and Scots law Valuable discussion of control and possession tests right of use remedy of appropriation close out netting and impact of bail in Explains use of financial collateral in the derivatives market clearing houses direct and indirect securities holding systems and use of repos securities lending and prime brokerage Highlights key issues on regulatory treatment and conflicts of laws Discusses direction of future law reform Written by leading experts in the field Postgraduate UK study and funding guide, 2008 Features information on studying at Postgraduate level in the UK what is involved what opportunities there are lists details 75 million of funding available to Postgraduate students Intelligence Surveillance, Security Sector Reforms, Accountability Principles and National Security Challenges within European Union Musa Khan Jalalzai, 2020-02-07 In a rapidly changing environment Intelligence Surveillance developed through different types of technologies software strategies and drones operations in Europe and the United Kingdom There are various forms of surveillance mechanisms including Human Agents Computer Programs and Global Positioning Satellite Devices These surveillance devices are now even encroaching into the personal domain of the individuals without the knowledge of the individual being watched In a surveillance state people live in consternation fear and struggling to protect their privacy family life business secrets and data In a short period of time it has amassed a rather sordid history of citizen surveillance and it continues to be unlawful These are some of the issues discussed in the book which have varied articles from the experts on the subject 2007 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Science and Technology Committee, 2007-07-17 Vol 1 Report is also available ISBN 9780215035080 The UK's Journeys into and out of the EU Julie Smith, 2017-02-13 This Routledge Focus aims to investigate and analyse the United Kingdom's relationship with the European Communities EC and the European Union EU Since joining the EC in 1973 the UK
