Seeing is Believing Robert Benne, 1998-10-29 Seeing is Believing demonstrates that serious dramatic films usually express deeply running visions of life designated as Christian Greek American or skeptical The author provides a narrative analysis that investigates these deep structures the mythic elements embedded in the films while paying close attention to the comprehensive meaning of the whole film not just the themes or implications that may be identified in the film's discrete parts His analysis introduces a new and exciting method of film interpretation that developed succinctly through a narrative style that shows how the concepts are applied to films relying more on understanding than memorization The author also includes appendices that list effective questions for use in discussing movies and a list of movies that work well with the book's method of analysis

Theology and the Films of Terrence Malick Christopher B. Barnett, Clark J. Elliston, 2016-08-12 Terrence Malick is one of the most important and controversial filmmakers of the last few decades Yet his renown does not stem from box office receipts but rather from his inimitable cinematic vision that mixes luminous shots of nature dreamlike voiceovers and plots centered on enduring existential questions Although scholars have thoroughly examined Malick's background in philosophy they have been slower to respond to his theological concerns This volume is the first to focus on the ways in which Malick integrates theological inquiries and motifs into his films The book begins with an exploration of Malick's career as a filmmaker and shows how his Heideggerian interests relate to theology Further essays from established and up and coming scholars analyze seven of Malick's most prominent films Badlands 1973 Days of Heaven 1978 The Thin Red Line 1998 The New World 2005 The Tree of Life 2011 To the Wonder 2012 and Knight of Cups 2015 to show how his cinematic techniques point toward and overlap with principles of Christian theology A thorough study of an iconic filmmaker this book is an essential resource for students and scholars in the emerging field of religion and film

Seeing and Believing Margaret Ruth Miles, 1997-09-04 Enriched by a cultural studies approach a deep understanding of religion and history and a love for the movies Seeing and Believing explores what popular films of the 1980s and 1990s say about religion and the values by which we live

100 Spiritual Movies to See before You Die John A. Zukowski, 2023-11-15 Spiritual themes are common in movies The unconventional savior The hero's journey The redemption tale The balance of creation Journalist John A Zukowski reflects on twelve major spiritual themes in the world of cinema discussing films from Dead Man Walking to Bruce Almighty from Groundhog Day to Chariots of Fire and many more See them all read them all before you die

Salvation in Celluloid Robert Pope, 2007-10 Much work in the field of theology and film lacks a really theological focus This book suggests a methodology based on the recognition of the imagination as the fundamental category in producing and interpreting film The argument is presented that the imagination holds theological significance when it is conceived of in certain ways As a result the book adopts the paradigmatic imagination an imagination which works within the paradigms of scripture or theological imagination one grounded in theological forms which is both noetic it is the image making faculty of the mind and almost ontological it is that which draws human beings into the future which they are able to construct or bring into being Once the theological paradigmatic imagination has been identified and justified its insights will be applied to Jesus films and Christ figure films asking whether or not they provide us with valid Christological understanding Films with redemptive or salvific themes are discussed as is the popularity of mythical stories and animation The final chapter will make the case that the engagement of the theological imagination with film is a method in practical theology Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series ,1955
