Manual of Romance Languages in Africa Ursula Reutner, 2023-12-18 With more than two thousand languages spread over its territory multilingualism is a common reality in Africa The main official languages of most African countries are Indo European in many instances Romance As they were primarily brought to Africa in the era of colonization the areas discussed in this volume are thirty five states that were once ruled by Belgium France Italy Portugal or Spain and the African regions still belonging to three of them Twenty six states are presented in relation to French four to Italian six to Portuguese and two to Spanish They are considered in separate chapters according to their sociolinguistic situation linguistic history external language policy linguistic characteristics and internal language policy The result is a comprehensive overview of the Romance languages in modern day Africa It follows a coherent structure offers linguistic and sociolinguistic information and illustrates language contact situations power relations as well as the cross fertilization and mutual enrichment emerging from the interplay of languages and cultures in Africa

Multilingual Access and Services for Digital Collections Jiangping Chen, 2016-01-18 This unique guide offers you a thorough understanding of multilingual information access MLIA and services and related concepts such as database design information retrieval machine translation and natural language processing Written for digital library developers library and information science graduate students and information professionals serving international information users this book defines multilingual information access MLIA and discusses the importance of enabling international users to access digital collections Based on a systematic review of the research and development carried out on cross language information retrieval machine translation and case studies of current multilingual digital libraries the author clearly explains what you need to know about technologies for building MLIA function for digital collections The book leads you through an examination of Internet language services and tools that are useful for developing multilingual digital libraries and for assisting international users in accessing digital resources Content is further clarified by two research projects that are presented to demonstrate the application of technologies used to build MLIA functions and multilingual user interfaces The book concludes with possible strategies for using Internet language services and tools to implement MLIA function for digital collections

The Politics of Researching Multilingually Prue Holmes, Judith Reynolds, Sara Ganassin, 2022-02-21 This book offers a unique understanding of how researchers linguistic resources and the languages they use in the research process are often politically and structurally shaped and constrained with implications for the reliability of the research The chapters are written by both experienced and novice researchers who examine how they negotiated the use of their own and others linguistic and communicative resources when undertaking their research in politically charged and linguistically and culturally diverse contexts The contributing authors are either from the Global South or engaged in work which is contextualised within the Global South or they face linguistic structural hegemonies in the Global North which challenge their research processes They utilise diverse theoretical methodological and disciplinary approaches to produce a collection of engaging and accessible accounts of researching multilingually in their contexts These accounts will help readers to make theoretically and methodologically informed choices about the political dimensions of languages in their own research when researching multilingually

Multilingual Europe, Multilingual Europeans, 2015-06-29 Multilingualism is a crucial if often unrecognized marker of new European identities In this collection of essays we observe how a plurilinguist and pluricultural political entity practices and theorizes multilingualism We ask which types of multilingualism are defined encouraged or discouraged at the level of official policies but also at the level of communities We look at speakers of hegemonic or minority languages at travellers and long term migrants or their children and analyse how their conversations are represented in official documents visual art cinema literature and popular culture The volume is divided into two parts that focus respectively on Multilingual Europe and Multilingual Europeans The first series of chapters explore the extent to which multilingualism is treated as both a challenge and an asset by the European Union examine which factors contribute to the proliferation of languages globalisation the enlargement of the European Union and EU language policies The second part of the volume concentrates on the ways in which cultural productions represent the linguistic practices of Europeans in a way that emphasizes the impossibility to separate language from culture nationality but also class ethnicity or gender The chapters suggest that each form of plurilingualism needs to be carefully analysed rather than celebrated or condemned

Language Processing and Knowledge in the Web Iryna Gurevych,Chris Biemann,Torsten Zesch,2013-09-13 This book constitutes the refereed conference proceedings of the 25th International Conference on Language Processing and Knowledge in the Web GSCL 2013 held in Darmstadt Germany in September 2013 The 20 revised full papers were carefully selected from numerous submissions and cover topics on language processing and knowledge in the Web on several important dimensions such as computational linguistics language technology and processing of unstructured textual content in the Web

Bilingual Language Development: The Role of Dominance Cornelia Hamann,Esther Rinke,Dobrinka Genevska-Hanke,2019-09-20 It has long been established that bilingual speakers are rarely balanced in their languages so that one language is dominant The contributions to the Research Topic Bilingual Language Development The Role of Dominance focus on the potential effects of language dominance on the competence and processing of bilinguals covering a large variety of language combinations and domains Important aspects of such work are the interplay of L1 maintenance attrition and possible L2 dominance the direction of cross linguistic influence CLI or code mixing as well as the effects of bilingualism on cognitive development each addressed in several contributions However such research presupposes a definition of dominance which is far from being settled This gives rise to considerable differences in the operationalization of the concept across studies The studies in this Research Topic present a multifaceted picture of the role of language dominance for L1 maintenance attrition L2 development and CLI Though a unified story cannot emerge for such a complex subject interesting new venues are explored including the impact of dominance shift during L1 re exposure comparisons of different types of bilingual groups or operationalization of dominance through experiential measures The variety of approaches and results is in part owed to the many language combinations studied and the fact that bilingual children adults and atypical speakers are investigated This diversity constitutes the interest of this Research Topic

Multilingual Corpora in Teaching and Research Simon Botley,Tony McEnery,Andrew Wilson,2000 The use of corpus data in languages other than English has become increasingly important in recent years and as a result has given rise to a growing body of research and applications in multilingual corpus linguistics This book collects together a selection of papers which have made use of multilingual corpus data in language teaching as well as linguistic research The corpora described in this book include data in a variety of languages including Swedish Chinese German and Italian and the contributors include well known scholars in the fields of corpus linguistics and corpus based language teaching
