Nugget Coombs:

With Love & Fury Judith Wright, 2006 This wide range of letters reminds us of Judith Wright's deep engagement with life, her love of the world and of friends and the fine fury that led her to battle so courageously on the world's behalf The Coombs Brij V. Lal, Allison Ley, 2014-09-01 The Coombs Building at The Australian National University is a Canberra icon. Named after one of Australia's greatest administrators and public intellectuals, Nugget Herbert Cole Coombs, for more than forty years the building has housed two of the University's four foundational Schools: the Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies and the Research School of Social Sciences. This volume of recollections is about the former. It looks at life in the building through the prism of personal experience and happenstance. Part memoir, part biography and part celebration, this book is about the people of Coombs past and present. Through evocative and lucid reflections, present and former denizens of the building share their passions and predilections, quietly savour their accomplishments and recall the failings and foibles of the past with a kindly tolerance Born of the Conquerors Judith Wright, 1991 All chapters with Aboriginal content annotated separately The Devil and James McAuley Cassandra Pybus, 1999 Follows McAuley's life from his student days at Sydney Uni through the war years, his conversion to Catholicism, his anticommunist activities during the Cold War period and his editorship of Quadrant with revelations about CIA funding and involvement with ASIO. A controversial new political biography The Seven Dwarfs and the Age of the Mandarins Samuel Furphy, 2015-07-06 In the history and folklore of Australia's Commonwealth Public Service, the idea of the Seven Dwarfs has been remarkably persistent. Originally a witty epithet applied to a powerful group of senior public servants, the term has come to represent the professionalisation of Australian government administration during the Second World War and post-war reconstruction era and into the following two decades of expansion. This was a period when for the first time talented university graduates entered the public service, rose to senior levels and exerted great influence over the affairs of the Commonwealth. With the secure tenure of being permanent heads of departments, they defined the age of the public service mandarin. This book explores the lives and influence of the Seven Dwarfs and their colleagues, bringing together the leading researchers on post-war Australian administration. Featuring four thematic chapters and ten biographical portraits, it offers a fascinating insight into the workings of the Commonwealth Public Service during a critical period in its history The Dystopia in the Desert Tadhg Purtill, 2018-02-02 Free Trade and Social Welfare in Europe Lucia Coppolaro, Lorenzo Mechi, 2020-01-24 This book deals with the historical relationship between international trade liberalisation, one of the backbones of globalisation, and the development of social welfare. In Europe, the issue has regularly been at the centre of the political debate for at least two centuries and still nowadays it continues to inspire decisions of the highest order, as in the recent case of Brexit. Analysing a number of particularly meaningful episodes and moments, the eight chapters of this edited volume provide an overview of how the liberalisation-welfare nexus has been addressed in Europe since the end of the 19th century. Describing the oscillations from phases in which state non state and transnational actors saw the two elements as widely conflicting to others in which more harmonious visions prevailed the book uncovers the political complexity of the issue and contributes to clarifying its connections with the current economic situation political balances and general social conditions Indigenous Australia For Dummies Larissa Behrendt, 2021-02-17 A comprehensive relevant and accessible look at all aspects of Indigenous Australian history and culture What is The Dreaming How many different Indigenous tribes and languages once existed in Australia What is the purpose of a corroboree What effect do the events of the past have on Indigenous peoples today Indigenous Australia For Dummies 2nd Edition answers these questions and countless others about the oldest race on Earth It explores Indigenous life in Australia before 1770 the impact of white settlement the ongoing struggle by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to secure their human rights and equal treatment under the law and much more Celebrating the contributions of Indigenous people to contemporary Australian culture the book explores Indigenous art music dance literature film sport and spirituality It discusses the concept of modern Indigenous identity and examines the ongoing challenges facing Indigenous communities today from health and housing to employment and education land rights and self determination Explores significant political moments such as Paul Keating s Redfern Speech Kevin Rudd s apology and more Profiles celebrated people and organisations in a variety of fields from Cathy Freeman to Albert Namatjira to the Bangarra Dance Theatre and the National Aboriginal Radio Service Challenges common stereotypes about Indigenous people and discusses current debates such as land rights and inequalities in health and education Now in its second edition Indigenous Australia For Dummies will enlighten readers of all backgrounds about the history struggles and triumphs of the diverse proud and fascinating peoples that make up Australia s Indigenous communities With a foreword by Stan Grant it s a must read account of Australia s first people Australia in the Age of International Development, 1945-1975

Nicholas Ferns, 2020-07-18 This book examines Australian colonial and foreign aid policy towards Papua New Guinea and Southeast Asia in the age of international development 1945 1975 During this period the academic and political understandings of development consolidated and informed Australian attempts to provide economic assistance to the poorer regions to its north Development was central to the Australian colonial administration of PNG as well as its Colombo Plan aid in Asia In addition to examining Australia s perception of international development this book also demonstrates how these debates and policies informed Australia s understanding of its own development This manifested itself most clearly in Australia s behavior at the 1964 United Nations Conference on Trade and Development UNCTAD The book concludes with a discussion of development and Australian foreign aid in the decade leading up to Papua New Guinea s independence achieved in 1975 Dame Maggie Scott Michelle Potter, 2014-10-22 Foreword by Graeme Murphy It is impossible to tell the story of dance in Australia without focusing on Dame Margaret Scott The fiftieth anniversary of The Australian Ballet School is a fitting time to launch her biography she was the first Director of the School and a dancer and teacher of immense vision and intellect Maggie Scott was born into a free spirited family whose pioneering attitudes she shares She has made an incomparable contribution to dance in Australia since arriving in 1947 on tour with the English company Ballet Rambert She was a foundation member of the National Theatre Ballet and led a group of Australians who helped establish the Australian Ballet as the country's flagship ballet company The inspirational Maggie Scott trained dancers now recognised internationally as exceptional performers choreographers directors and teachers She memorably returned to the stage in Graeme Murphy's Nutcracker most recently in 2000 Michelle Potter is a dance writer historian and curator with a doctorate in Art History and Dance History from the Australian National University She is the recipient of two Australian Dance Awards Services to Dance in 2003 and Outstanding Achievement in Dance on Film in 2001 Graeme Murphy AO a student of Dame Margaret Scott has been at the forefront of Australian and international dance as a choreographer and director for nearly four decades A fascinating multi faceted read not least for its great insight into Australia during the 1940s Launceston Examiner A valuable addition to our dance history Dance Australia Impeccably researched a fascinating biography of a major luminary Sydney Arts Guide

Between Consenting Peoples Jeremy H. A. Webber, Colin Murray Macleod, 2010 Consent has long been used to establish the legitimacy of society But when one asks who consented how to what type of community consent becomes very elusive more myth than reality In Between Consenting Peoples leading scholars in legal and political theory examine the different ways in which consent has been used to justify political communities and the authority of law especially in indigenous nonindigenous relations They explore the kind of consent the kind of attachment that might ground political community and establish a fair relationship between indigenous and nonindigenous peoples International Law and Indigenous Peoples Joshua Castellino, Niamh Walsh, 2005-03-01 This volume a collection of essays by a variety of scholars in the field of indigenous rights originates from the Irish Centre for Human Rights at the National University of Ireland in Galway It highlights those instances in the work of international organizations where advances have been made concerning indigenous rights It also devotes attention to the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues to the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and to a number of thematic issues in the field The human rights situations facing indigenous peoples in Australia Bangladesh Canada India Kenya Mexico Nicaragua Nigeria and South Africa are dealt with in separate chapters These surveys show a range of reactions to the multiple problems of discrimination or lack of proper responses as far as domestic legislation national implementation of the laws and national compliance with the applicable international standards are concerned

Central Banks, Democratic States and Financial Power Jocelyn Pixley, 2018-10-11 Assesses central bank policies towards capitalist money creation and war finance against inflationary and deflationary class strengths in specific democracies

The Many Lives of Kenneth Myer Sue Ebury, 2008 When Kenneth Baillieu Myer's father fell dead on the footpath in 1934 Ken's life changed in an instant As the eldest son of the Jewish immigrant retailing genius Sidney Baeviski Myer who went from pedlar to philanthropist millionaire in fifteen years 13 year old Ken was immediately acknowledged as head of the family Despite a conventional education at Geelong Grammar and a year at Princeton University Ken was an unconventional man He had hit headlines when he was born and continued to make news throughout his life as the powerful Executive Chairman of Myer in his refusal to be Governor General of Australia with his separation and divorce from his wife Prue and remarriage to a Japanese woman half his age Yasuko Hiraoka as Chairman of the Victorian Arts Centre and the National Library of Australia and during his disastrous years as Chairman of the ABC a reward for signing the Myer It's time letter acknowledged by Whitlam as influential in bringing the Labor Party to power in 1972 Ken Myer introduced Australia to the first regional shopping centres with Chadstone changing the face of the Australian landscape Parking meters state of the art information systems at the National Library of Australia ground breaking medical research at The Howard Florey Institute and genetic engineering at CSIRO were all facilitated by him Visionary and romantic he was depressive and driven charming one moment icy the next Unpretentious and a passionate conservationist he was generous both publicly and anonymously giving away his fortune and in doing so founding modern philanthropy in Australia Happiest when finally free of the Store he died with his wife Yasuko in a light plane crash in Alaska in 1992 With unprecedented access to family documents Sue Ebury paints a vivid portrait of the many aspects of Ken Myer's life and the man himself From Moree to Mabo Pamela Burton, 2010 This is the remarkable story of Mary Gaudron AC QC the first female Justice of the High Court of Australia With wit astonishing intellect and the tool of the law Gaudron exposed inequality and discrimination in the workforce and campaigned vigorously for women to be accorded equal pay and equal opportunities Rural Development for Sustainable Social-ecological Systems Claudia Baldwin, Séverine van Bommel, 2023-07-31 This book provides an overview of interdisciplinary approaches that have applied social science to research focused on issues around food agriculture and natural resource management The book demonstrates that those who work in rural sociology either as researchers or practitioners apply community development and participatory techniques to socio environmental interaction The book discusses how the evolving concept of interconnected social and ecological systems SES emerged recognizing the inherent complexity adaptive nature and resilience of such systems This book engages with contemporary theory as well as new cutting edge transdisciplinary research evidenced in case studies from three continents Whatever Happened to Frank and Fearless? Kathy MacDermott, 2008-07-01 In this evidence based and closely argued work Kathy MacDermott plots the changes in the culture of the Australian Public Service that have led many contemporary commentators to lament the purported loss of traditional public service values of impartiality intellectual rigour and most importantly the willingness of public servants at all levels to offer frank and fearless advice to their superiors and their ministers MacDermott brings to her analysis an insider's sensibility and a thorough forensic analysis of the impact of some 20 years of relentless administrative reform on the values and behaviour of the APS Although this story has its beginnings in the Hawke Keating eras MacDermott convincingly argues that structural and cultural change compromising the integrity of the public service reached its apogee towards the end of the eleven years of the Howard government This is a must read for students of Australian political and administrative history MacDermott offers cautionary observations that the new national government might do well to heed Literary Activists, 2009-09 Uniquely examining the link between Australian writers and social change this study investigates the motives behind literary figures who strive to become activists and social intellectuals Exploring this intimate connection this resource asks what such a bond reveals about Australian literature and the power of the written word With fresh insight this guide delves into the activism careers and writings of Judith Wright Patrick White Oodgeroo of the tribe of Noonuccal Les Murray Helen Garner David Malouf and Tim Winton

Transnational Spaces of India and Australia Paul Sharrad, Deb Narayan Bandyopadhyay, 2022-02-02 Transnational movements are more intricate than diasporic conflicts of home and away They operate not only as international connections but also transect and disturb national formations What are the spaces both physical and temporal in and around which transnational exchanges occur Much discussion of the transnational focuses on international movements of law politics and economics as they relate to Europe and the Americas This book extends the focus to dynamics across the humanities and social sciences and concentrates on the historical and now growing interactions between India and Australia Studies come from scholars in both countries who combine academic depth for students and researchers and writing that is clear and engaging for the general reader Seeking Racial Justice Jack Horner, 2004 The author's personal account of his developing consciousness as a white player in the black theatre of Indigenous Australian affairs and in particular his work with FCAATSI The book is also a tribute to the diverse Aboriginal and non Aboriginal individuals and groups who dedicated themselves to the cause from 1938 to 1978
