Plurilingual Analysis of Four Russian-American Autobiographies Michele Russo,2020-09-07 Among the many examples of Russian American migr literature a number of less known authors moved to the USA following their predecessors transnational and plurilingual experiences The bilingual and sometimes trilingual expressions in their works written in English invite a contrastive analysis of their transition from their source language Russian to their target language English This book explores the linguistic structure of the autobiographies of four Russian American writers Cournos Nabokov Berberova and Shteyngart bringing into focus the linguistic geology of their texts as they record their passage from a Russian world to an English one These linguistic passages are examined from both a synchronic and a diachronic perspective by dwelling on the geographies of the migr s itineraries as well as on the process of linguistic transformation that such itineraries generated By analyzing these writers geographic and linguistic routes this volume engages the reader in a metalinguistic discourse and highlights the influence of these first plurilingual experiments on modern theories concerning linguistic globalization Library Association Record Library Association,1906 Proceedings of the 22d 33d annual conference of the Library Association in v 1 12 proceedings of the 34th 44th 47th 57th annual conference issued as a supplement to v 13 23 new ser v 3 ser 4 v 1

Wilfred Bion and Literary Criticism Naomi Wynter-Vincent,2021-12-08 Wilfred Bion and Literary Criticism introduces the work of the British psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion 1897 1979 and the immense potential of his ideas for thinking about literature creative process and creative writing There is now renewed interest in Bion s work following the publication of his Complete Works but the complexities of his theory and his distinctive style can be forbidding Less well known than Freud or Lacan the work of Wilfred Bion nevertheless offers new insights for psychoanalytic literary criticism and creative writing For newer readers of his work this book offers an engaging introduction to several of Bion s key ideas including his theory of thinking the thought without a thinker the container contained relationship alpha function alpha elements beta elements and bizarre objects K and K the Grid O and the caesura It also offers a way in to Bion s astonishing and challenging experimental work A Memoir of the Future and explores the impact of his devastating personal experiences as an officer during the First World War Each chapter of Wilfred Bion and Literary Criticism draws on one or more specific aspects of Bion's theory in relation to creative texts by Sigmund Freud Stevie Smith B S Johnson Mary Butts Jean Rhys Nicholas Royle J G Ballard and Wilfred Bion himself The first full length study to explore the potential of Bion's ideas for literary criticism Wilfred Bion and Literary Criticism introduces his complex and extensive work for a new audience in an accessible and engaging way and will be of great interest to scholars of creative writing literary criticism and psychoanalysis

An Invitation to Modern Number Theory Steven J. Miller, Ramin Takloo-Bighash, 2020-07-21 In a manner accessible to beginning undergraduates An Invitation to Modern Number Theory introduces many of the central problems conjectures results and techniques of the field such as the Riemann Hypothesis Roth's Theorem the Circle Method and Random Matrix Theory Showing how experiments are used to test conjectures and prove theorems the book allows students to do original work on such problems often using little more than calculus though there are numerous remarks for those with deeper backgrounds It shows students what number theory theorems are used for and what led to them and suggests problems for further research Steven Miller and Ramin Takloo Bighash introduce the problems and the computational skills required to numerically investigate them providing background material from probability to statistics to Fourier analysis whenever necessary They guide students through a variety of problems ranging from basic number theory cryptography and Goldbach's Problem to the algebraic structures of numbers and continued fractions showing connections between these subjects and encouraging students to study them further In addition this is the first undergraduate book to explore Random Matrix Theory which has recently become a powerful tool for predicting answers in number theory Providing exercises references to the background literature and Web links to previous student research projects An Invitation to Modern Number Theory can be used to teach a research seminar or a lecture class

International Year Book Number ,1927 Threads of Life Richard Freadman, 2001-02 Many autobiographers share profound questions about human life with their readers questions like To what extent was my life imposed on me To what extent did I bring it about through particular choices and actions through the activity of my own will Indeed the issue of the will is central to autobiographical writing and some of the greatest autobiographies give extended consideration to the will its nature its powers its limitations the forms of freedom constraint and expression it finds in various cultures its role in particular human lives In this new study unprecedented in subject and scope Richard Freadman offers the first sustained account of how changing theological philosophical and psychological accounts of the human will have been reflected in the writing of autobiography and of how autobiography in its turn has helped shape various understandings of the will Early chapters trace narrative representations of the will from antiquity the Greeks and Augustine to postmodernism Derrida and Barthes with particular emphasis on late modernity s culture of the will Later chapters then present detailed and powerfully original readings of autobiographical texts by Louis Althusser Roland Barthes B F Skinner Ernest Hemingway Simone de Beauvoir Arthur Koestler Stephen Spender and Diana Trilling Freadman s interdisciplinary approach to autobiography and the will includes a theoretical defense of the view that autobiographers are in varying degrees agents in their own texts Threads of Life argues that late modernity has inherited deeply conflicted attitudes to the will Freadman suggests that these attitudes now deeply embedded in contemporary cultural discourse need reexamining In this he contends reflective autobiography has an important part to play
