Nurses Of A Different Stripe:

Building Schools, Making Doctors Katherine L. Carroll, 2022-05-31 In the late nineteenth century medical educators intent on transforming American physicians into scientifically trained elite professionals recognized the value of medical school design for their reform efforts Between 1893 and 1940 nearly every medical college in the country rebuilt or substantially renovated its facility In Building Schools Making Doctors Katherine Carroll reveals how the schools constructed during this fifty year period did more than passively house a remodeled system of medical training they actively participated in defining and promoting an innovative pedagogy modern science and the new physician Interdisciplinary and wide ranging her study moves architecture from the periphery of medical education to the center uncovering a network of medical educators architects and philanthropists who believed that the educational environment itself shaped how students learned and the type of physicians they became Carroll offers the first comprehensive study of the science and pedagogy formulated by the buildings the influence of the schools donors and architects the impact of the structures on the urban landscape and the local community and the facilities privileging of white men within the medical profession during this formative period for physicians and medical schools

Women and Health in America Judith Walzer Leavitt, 1999 Organised chronologically and then by topic this volume covers studies of women and health in the colonial and revolutionary periods through the Civil War The remainder of the book focuses on the late 19th and 20th centuries

The Nurse in History and Opera Judith Barger, 2024-04-08 From Scarabea Artusa's old nurse in Francesco Mannelli's La Maga Fuminata 1638 Venice through the Canadian nursing sisters in Stephanie Martin's Llandovery Castle 2018 Toronto over one hundred nurse characters appear in opera roles ranging from silent cast extra to principal singer The Nurse in History and Opera From Servant to Sister explores that role over the span of opera's existence Judith Barger examines the nurse character in opera within the sociohistorical context of her real life counterparts off stage the progression of the nurse from servant to sister both inside and outside the opera house is a commentary on how society has viewed its women The book then discusses textual and musical interactions between opera's nurses and other characters with attention to what the nurse's role contributes to opera in six categories identified as common to opera's nurses Comic Former Knowledgeable Motherly Scheming and Specialized When viewed through the lens of social history opera's nurse characters merit attention for the glimpse that they offer of a unique musical and dramatic journey from servant to sister and for the commentary that they offer on women's perceived place and status not only on the opera stage but in society as well View the author's website here Judith Barger Author Nurse Historian Music Scholar

Women in the United States Military Judith Bellafaire, 2011-01-26 Women's participation in the U S Armed Forces has grown over time in response to the national need for their services Throughout each era of American history patriotic women volunteered to serve their country in a wide variety of official and unofficially sanctioned capacities When there was a call to duty the United States Armed Forces always relied upon women to be a part of the effort This book provides information to enable students and scholars to understand the effect women have had on wars that have shaped the United States

National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993 Americans in Occupied Belgium, 1914-1918 Ed Klekowski,Libby Klekowski,2014-04-14 Belgium in the First World War the first country invaded the longest occupied and when the war finally ended the first forgotten In 1914 Belgium was home to a large American colony which included representatives of American companies artists writers and diplomats with the American Legation After the invasion American journalists and adventurers flocked there to follow the action military restrictions on travel were less stringent than in England or France As the most industrialized country in Europe Belgium depended upon trade and food imports to support its economy The war isolated Belgium and wholesale starvation was imminent by the fall of 1914 Herbert Hoover and his Commission for Relief in Belgium raised funds to purchase and import food to sustain Belgium and eventually Occupied France as well Idealistic American volunteers including some Rhodes scholars supervised food distribution in the occupation zone Along the Western Front in Belgium hundreds of Americans served illegally in the British and Canadian armies This book tells the story of the German invasion occupation and retreat from the perspective of Americans who were there

America's Textile Reporter ,1910 Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Western Hospital and Nurses Review ,1928 The Trained Nurse and Hospital Review ,1895 Paradoxes in Nurses' Identity, Culture and Image Margaret McAllister,Donna Brien,2020-01-29 This book examines some of the more disturbing representations of nurses in popular culture to understand nursing s complex identities challenges and future directions It critically analyses disquieting representations of nurses who don t care who kill who inspire fear or who do not comply with laws and policies Also addressed are stories about how power is used as well as supernatural experiences in nursing Using a series of examples taken from popular culture ranging from film television and novels to memoirs and true crime podcasts it interrogates the meaning of the shadow side of nursing and the underlying paradoxes that influence professional identity Iconic nursing figures are still powerful today Decades after they were first created Ratched and Annie Wilkes continue to make readers and viewers shudder at the prospect of ever being ill Modern storytelling modes are bringing to audiences the grim reality that some nurses are members of the working poor like Cath Hardacre in Trust Me and others can be dangerous con artists like the nurse in Dirty John This book is important reading for all those interested in understanding the links between nursing s image and the profession s potential as an agent for change

Biology Run Amok! Mark C. Glassy,2018-04-26 Science fiction movie audiences may sometimes wonder how fictitious the science in a film really is Yet for many call them the Jurassic Park generation film and popular media can present a seemingly plausible melding of science and fiction that forms a distorted understanding of scientific facts and concepts Recognizing that film is both the dominant entertainment medium and an effective tool for teaching this book featuring articles originally published in the magazine Scary Monsters separates biological reality from fantasy in dozens of science fiction films including The Island of Lost Souls 1933 The Incredible Shrinking Man 1957 War of the Worlds 1953 A Clockwork Orange 1971 Scanners 1980 The Serpent and the Rainbow 1987 and Outbreak 1995 Modern Hospital,1928 BEHIND THE LOCKED DOOR Gregg M. Schultz RN,2023-03-30 One man not sure where his next job would come from is employed by God where he will compassionately care for society's least fortunate the mentally or emotionally ill when they transition into the psychiatric hospital system I am that man This is my story of working in the psychiatric system usually in a hospital setting This volume is a telling of twenty nine years of caring for and about people who but for the grace of God could be me or my family It is a telling of surviving and thriving in often difficult circumstances Starting as a mental health worker in 1988 I received my registered nurse license in 1993 and continued as a psychiatric nurse until I ended compensated employment in 2017 This is a telling of covering the naked and treating the self inflicted wounds of the bloody The whys and logics of many of the disorders encountered are addressed in caring and often wry commentary The actual workings of the psychiatric hospital and my observations of that environment are presented Life as it is actually lived often at its most visceral level is on display here I frequently make reference to a person's WIIFM what's in it for me as a dominant factor motivating the behavior of people both the patients and the hospital staff I do not spare myself when addressing WIIFM as a behavior motivator There is caring for wounded hearts and how to manage those whose hearts are beyond either wounding or caring The legalities as well as the realities of how the mental health system works and the protections for those who are a danger to themselves or others or unable to care for themselves are presented here and I deal with the realities of psychiatric hospitalization and dispel the nonsense of a seventy two hour psychiatric hold There is triumph and tragedy presented here in a uniquely engaging style by a true storyteller Cinema '62 Stephen Farber,Michael McClellan,2020-03-13 Lawrence of Arabia The Miracle Worker To Kill a Mockingbird The Manchurian Candidate Gypsy Sweet Bird of Youth The Longest Day The Music Man What Ever Happened to Baby Jane and more Most conventional film histories dismiss the early 1960s as a pallid era a downtime between the heights of the classic studio system and the rise of New Hollywood directors like Scorsese and Altman in the 1970s It seemed to be a moment when the movie industry was floundering as the popularity of television caused a downturn in cinema attendance Cinema 62 challenges these assumptions by making the bold claim that 1962 was a peak year for film with a high standard of quality that has not been equaled since Stephen Farber and Michael McClellan show how 1962 saw great late period work by classic Hollywood directors like John Ford Howard Hawks and John Huston as well as stars like Bette Davis James Stewart Katharine Hepburn and Barbara Stanwyck Yet it was also a seminal year for talented young directors like Sidney Lumet Sam Peckinpah and Stanley Kubrick not to mention rising stars like Warren Beatty Jane Fonda Robert Redford Peter O Toole and Omar Sharif Above all 1962 the year of To Kill a Mockingbird and The Manchurian Candidate gave cinema attendees the kinds of adult artistic and uncompromising visions they would never see on television including classics from Fellini Bergman and Kurosawa

Culminating in an analysis of the year's Best Picture winner and top grossing film Lawrence of Arabia and the factors that made that magnificent epic possible Cinema 62 makes a strong case that the movies peaked in the Kennedy era
