Nursing and Nursing Education Institute of Medicine, Division of Health Care Services, 1983-02-01 Results are presented of a study of nursing and nursing education that focused on the need for continued federal support of nursing education ways to attract nurses to medically underserved areas and approaches to encourage nurses to stay in the profession Findings are presented on whether the aggregate supply of generalist nurses will be sufficient to meet future demand and how changes that could occur in the health care system might affect demand. Attention is also directed to how the current and future supply of nurses may be influenced by the costs of nursing education and the sources of education financing and education for generalist positions in nursing. In addition, the supply and demand situation for nurses educationally prepared for advanced professional positions in nursing is examined. The influence of employer policies and practices in utilization of nursing resources on demand and supply is also addressed. Finally, areas in which further data and studies are needed to better monitor nursing supply and demand are identified. In addition to 21 recommendations, appendices include information on Nursing Training Act appropriations, state reports on nursing issues, certificates for specialist registered nurses, projections of registered nurse supply and requirements, and doctoral programs in nursing. SW Advanced Practice Nursing - E-Book Ann B. Hamric, Charlene M. Hanson, Mary Fran Tracy, Eileen T. O'Grady, 2013-07-01. Addressing all major advanced practice nursing competencies, roles and issues, Advanced Practice Nursing: An Integrative Approach, 5th Edition, provides a clear, comprehensive and current introduction to APN today. It applies APN core competencies to the major APN roles, including the burgeoning Nurse Practitioner role, and covers topics ranging from the evolution of APN to evidence-based practice, leadership, ethical decision making, and health policy. This edition includes a new chapter on the international development of APN, new and enhanced illustrations, and a colorful, new reader-friendly format for improved readability. From internationally known APN experts Ann Hamric, Charlene Hanson, Mary Fran Tracy, and Eileen O'Grady, along with a host of internationally recognized APN contributors, Advanced Practice Nursing introduces you to APN and helps you identify an APN role, develop key competencies for that role, and succeed as an APN. Coverage of APN core competencies defines and describes all competencies, including direct clinical practice, guidance and coaching, consultation, evidence-based practice, EBP, leadership, collaboration, and ethical decision making. Operationalizes and applies APN core competencies to the major APN specialties, including the Clinical Nurse Specialist, the Primary Care Nurse Practitioner, the Acute Care Nurse Practitioner, the Certified Nurse-Midwife, and the Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist. Content on managing APN environments addresses such factors as business planning, reimbursement, marketing, negotiating, and contracting, regulatory, legal, and credentialing requirements, health policy issues, and nursing outcomes and performance improvement research. Unique Exemplar boxes provide real-life scenarios showing APN competencies in action. In-depth discussions of educational strategies show how nurses develop competencies as they progress into advanced practice. Discussions of APN role development clearly explain the career trajectory that you can anticipate as you transition to advanced practice. Medical Books and Serials in Print, 1984. The Remuneration of Nursing Personnel International Labour Office, 1994. Health services have expanded in recent times because of scientific and technological developments, placing further pressure on budgets. Although health care provision remains a priority worldwide, there have been severe nursing staff shortages and growing disenchantment among the workforce due to pay, job classification, and career problems. Advanced Practice Nursing Ann B.
