Prose In The Age Of Poets Romanticism And Biographical Narrative From Johnson To Dequincey:

Prose in the Age of Poets Annette Wheeler Cafarelli, 2015-09-30 In Prose in the Age of Poets Annette Wheeler Cafarelli demonstrates that nonfictional narrative of the time was a central expression of British Romanticism The rise of interest in the individual traditionally associated with Romantic autobiography was actually part of a wider cultural interest in biography especially literary biography Following Johnson's lead in the Lives of the Poets virtually every major writer of the period experimented with sequences of short anecdotal lives that became a characteristic Romantic vehicle for discussing theories of creativity canon and the place of the poet in society The Romantics took in new directions the examination of the relation of artists' lives and works biographers and their subjects and texts and their readers Romantic biography Cafarelli contends offers a perspective from which to reconsider conventional boundaries of genre periodization and the movement from Neoclassicism to Romanticism In examining the Romantics as prose writers and biographers Cafarelli explores the affiliations between Romantic theories of reading and writing and twentieth century critical methodologies She situates the biographical writings of the major poets including Wordsworth Coleridge and Byron in the context of detailed analyses of biographies by Johnson Hazlitt De Quincey Scott Southey and other lesser known contemporaries Prose in the Age of Poets will interest scholars and students of Romanticism Johnson biography and autobiography and narrative theory Reading

Samuel Johnson Phil Jones, 2023-11-15 This book examines how Samuel Johnson was assimilated by later writers ranging from James Boswell to Samuel Beckett It is as much about these writers as Johnson himself showing how they found their own space in part through their response to Johnson which helped shape their writing and view of contemporary literature

Thomas Chatterton and Neglected Genius, 1760-1830 Daniel Cook, 2015-12-11 Long before Wordsworth etherealized him as the marvellous Boy The sleepless Soul that perished in its pride Thomas Chatterton was touted as the second Shakespeare by eighteenth century Shakespeareans ranked among the leading British poets by prominent literary critics and likened to the fashionable modern prose stylists Macpherson Sterne and Smollett His pseudo medieval Rowley poems in particular engendered a renewed fascination with ancient English literature With Chatterton as its case study this book offers new insights into the formation and development of literary scholarship in the period from the periodical press to the public lecture from the review to the anthology from textual to biographical criticism Cook demonstrates that while major scholars found Chatterton to be a pertinent subject for multiple literary debates in the eighteenth century by the end of the Romantic period he had become and still remains an unsettling model of hubristic genius Writing the Lives of Painters

Karen Junod, 2011-01-27 This book explores the development of artists' biographies in the cultural context of 18th and early 19th century Britain It argues that the proliferation of a myriad biographical forms mirrored the privileging of artistic originality and difference within an art world that had yet to generate a coherent British School of painting At the Limits of Romanticism Mary A. Favret, Nicola J. Watson, 1994 Examines the feminine the domestic the local collective sentimental and novelistic in the Romantic literary canon This book questions romanticism suppression of the feminine the material and the collective and its opposition to readings centering on these concerns Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms Spontaneity and Form in Modern Prose Vidyan Ravinthiran, 2022-12-01 This study analyzes post Romantic prose whose authors in terms of race gender class nationality and more occupy a range of subject positions Unlike poetry modern literary prose has no rhetorical repertoire or structure beyond those of grammar that one could tabulate As a result it becomes a zone of experimentation and spontaneous creativity as well as a means to investigate the concept of spontaneity understood as post secular Heeding separate histories and peculiar particularities this volume reveals writers discovering their ideas as they go in prose whose sound rhythm syntax and imagery escapes the preordained There are chapters on William Hazlitt Ralph Waldo Emerson and Walt Whitman and Hindu philosophy Gerard Manley Hopkins Herman Melville D H Lawrence and Saul Bellow Virginia Woolf and Marion Milner Gwendolyn Brooks Adil Jussawalla and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie These writers are intelligently vexed by two transitions first the movement from impulse into form and second the overlap between literary forms and social forms They explore the yearning for renovated societies which expressive of our deepest selves would also enable those selves in times of panicked fragmentation moral relativism and communication imperiled to interact as citizens William Hazlitt Kevin Gilmartin, 2015-06-11 Over the course of a literary career that extended from the lingering Malthusian controversies of the late eighteenth century to the brink of the Reform Act of 1832 William Hazlitt produced a remarkable body of committed radical journalism Against the view that partisan passion undermined his aesthetic judgment and compromised his celebrated disinterestedness William Hazlitt Political Essayist restores politics to the center of his achievement as a critic and essayist In doing so Kevin Gilmartin explores his constructive relationship with the early nineteenth century popular reform movement while acknowledging his desire to reflect critically on radical politics and express his own doubts about social progress Early chapters attend closely to his critical method and matters of style and form focusing on the political development of his contradictory prose manner Paradox and inconsistency are central to his attack on Legitimacy a term he drew from the lexicon of post Napoleonic political journalism In treating legitimate government as a revived form of divine right monarchy Hazlitt often produced harrowing visions of the perfect refinement of oppressive power and the complete elimination of any principle of liberty or resistance At the same time he found ways to preserve his commitment to oppositional political expression and the redemptive necessity of what he termed a word uttered against Later chapters bring together the spiritual heritage of rational Dissent and emerging democratic developments in London to understand Hazlitt's distinctive mobilization of radical memory as a way of contending with present injustice and envisioning a political future

Paper Pellets Richard Cronin, 2010-06-10 innovative a brilliant and original study that is essential reading for scholars of the Romantic period Orianne Smith Year's Work in English Studies Writing Lives Together Felicity James, Julian North, 2017-09-27 A diary entry begun by a wife and finished by a husband a map of London its streets bearing the names of forgotten lives biographies of siblings and of spouses a poem which gives life to long dead voices from the archives All these feature in this volume as examples of writing lives together British life writing which has been collaboratively authored and or joins together the lives of multiple subjects The contributions to this book range over published and unpublished material from the late eighteenth to the late nineteenth centuries including biography auto biographical memoirs letters diaries sermons maps and directories The book closes with essays by contemporary practising biographers Daisy Hay and Laurel Brake who explain their decisions to move away from the single subject in writing the lives of figures from the Romantic and Victorian periods We conclude with the reflections and work of a contemporary poet Kathleen Bell writing on James Watt 1736 1819 and his family in a ghostly collaboration with the archives Taken as a whole the collection offers distinctive new readings of collaboration in theory and practice reflecting on the many ways in which lives might be written together across gender boundaries across time across genre This book was originally published as a special issue of Life Writing
