Protecting All Gods Children:

Protecting All God's Children Church of England. House of Bishops, 2004 All God's Children Rene Denfeld, 2007-01-30 James Daniel Nelson first hit the streets as a teenager in 1992 He joined a clutch of runaways and misfits who camped out together in a squat under a Portland bridge Within a few months the group they called themselves a family was arrested for a string of violent murders While Nelson sat in prison the society he had helped form grew into a national phenomenon Street families spread to every city from New York to San Francisco and to many small towns in between bringing violence with them In 2003 almost eleven years after his original murder Nelson now called Thantos got out of prison returned to Portland created a new street family and killed once more Twelve family members were arrested along with him Rene Denfeld spent over a decade following the evolution of street family culture She discovered that contrary to popular belief the majority of these teenagers hail from loving middle class homes Yet they have left those homes to form insular communities with cultish hierarchies codes of behavior languages quasireligions and harsh rules She reveals the extremes to which desperate teenagers will go in their search for a sense of community and builds a persuasive and troubling case that street families have grown among us into a dark reversal of the American ideal Practical Church Management James Behrens, 2008 Here We Stand Craig L. Nesson, Victor I. Vieth, 2025-07-17 Although the life and writings of Martin Luther and other reformers have a great deal to say about children and our need to protect them from maltreatment this legacy of the Lutheran churches and of Christianity as a whole has largely been forgotten Here We Stand reclaims the Lutheran heritage as it sets forth a Lutheran theological and ethical foundation for the church's response to child abuse The book models rooting our response to child abuse in fertile biblical and theological soil Written by Lutheran theologians and child abuse prevention experts the groundbreaking book provides practical direction for the pastoral ministry of clergy and for congregations that wish to develop robust policies and practices in order to protect children Part 1 Lutheran Theological Foundations for Addressing Child Abuse explores core Lutheran commitments by retrieving historical confessional and theological sources Part 2 Lutheran Interpretation of Challenging Biblical Texts addresses misinterpretations of Scripture and the Lutheran traditions Part 3 Lutheran Theology Addressing the Sin of Child Abuse provides practical instruction for ministry challenges related to child abuse In Defense of All God's Children Christopher Senyonjo, 2016-05 The life and work of Bishop Christopher Senyonjo of Uganda Your Church and the Law David Parrott, 2013-01-25 A practical jargon free guide to key aspects of canon and public law for clergy readers churchwardens PCC members and diocesan officers covering common situations that affect every church Now updated to include Common Tenure the Marriage Act and government changes in vetting those who work with children and vulnerable adults Protecting All God's Children Church of England. House of Bishops, 2010-01-01 This updated edition of the House of Bishops policy on child protection sets out a statement of the general principles of the Church on the subject of child protection and the responsibilities of the Church from the central structures of the Church of England to the dioceses and parishes Prepared in response to latest legislation and government guidance for the safeguarding and protection of children it sets out procedures for dioceses and parishes to follow so as to ensure common practice the safe recruitment of those working with children responding to concerns about possible abuse and ministering to known offenders This document has been authorized by the House of Bishops as the minimum requirement for all those involved in work with children in the Church of England
