Protecting The Bosnian Peace Lessons From A Decade Of Nation Building:

The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2017-09-08 Over the last twenty years the world has witnessed four major genocides There was the genocide in Iraq 1988 in Rwanda 1994 in Srebrenica 1995 and in Darfur 2003 and continuing Most observers agree there is an urgent need to assess the international community's efforts to prevent genocide and to intervene once a genocide is under way in an effective and timely manner This volume the latest in a widely respected series on the subject of genocide provides an overview of a host of issues germane to this task The book begins with a cogent discussion of the issues of prevention and intervention during the Cold War years The second chapter discusses the abject failures and moderate though in some cases highly controversial successes at prevention and intervention carried out in the 1990s and early 2000s Further chapters examine latest efforts to develop an effective genocide early warning system and examine the complexity of and barriers to prevention The pros and cons of sanctions and the problems of enforcement and evaluation their effectiveness are then discussed Conflicts between state sovereignty and the protection of threatened populations are examined both in historical context and by incorporating the latest thinking Later chapters treat the issue of intervention why and how it has met with only limited success Concentrating on Rwanda and Srebrenica chapter 8 discusses various peace operations that were abject failures and those that were moderately successful The concept of an anti genocide regime is examined in terms of progress in developing such a regime as well as what the international community must do in order to implement it Chapters discuss key issues related to post genocidal periods those that need to be addressed in order to establish stability in a wounded land and populace as well as to prevent future genocides The final chapter asks whether bringing perpetrators to justice has any impact in breaking impunity ensuring deterrence and bringing about reconciliation The contributors to the volume are all noted scholars some of whom specialize in the study of genocide and others who specialize in such areas as early warning peacekeeping and sanctions

Bosnian Security After Dayton

Michael A. Innes, 2006-09-27 Featuring fresh contributions from leading scholars this new volume considers a varied range of post war post Dayton and post 9 11 problems and issues reminding readers that Dayton is not the only challenge to the safety stability and long term viability of the post war Bosnian state Drawing together all the latest research this book covers new ground in its discussion of post 9 11 security concerns and in its leading edge analyses of crime corruption and terror in a transitional state It takes Bosnia Herzegovina seriously as a subject of regional and international affairs and is a critically important contribution to scholarship showing how redefined global security concerns have heavily altered international and domestic security priorities in Bosnia Herzegovina with corresponding implications for post war justice and identity politics foreign intervention and state level institution building This is essential reading for scholars of the Balkans peacebuilding and reconstruction European politics and of security studies in general

The Routledge Handbook of Terrorism Research Alex Peter Schmid, 2011 This volume is a monumental collection of definitions conceptual frameworks paradigmatic formulations and bibliographic sources which is now being revised and updated as a resource for the expanding community of researchers on the subject of terrorism Peace without Politics? Ten Years of State-Building in Bosnia David

Chandler,2013-09-13 Ten years on from the signing of the Dayton Peace Agreement in November 1995 the legacy of the Bosnian war still shapes every aspect of the political social and economic environment of the tiny state This state of affairs is highlighted by the fact that Bosnia is still under international control with the Office of the International High Representative regularly using its powers to dismiss elected presidents prime ministers and MPs and to impose legislation over the resistance of elected legislatures at national regional and local level What has changed in the ten years since Dayton Is international regulation helping to establish a sustainable peace in Bosnia What lessons can be learned for nation building in Bosnia This volume was previously published as a special issue of the leading journal International Peacekeeping

International State Building and Reconstruction Efforts Joachim Krause,Charles King Mallory IV,2010-03-17 State Building Post conflict related efforts by the international community towards state re building and reconstruction of society and economy have become a more or less regular feature of international affairs since the early 1990s It seems that the demand for such international efforts is rather rising than diminishing All have in common that the establishment of sound state structures and liveable economies in a given state are considered by a sizeable and powerful group of states as something that is furthering international peace and stability The purpose of this book is to address the strategic and policy dimensions of these international state building and reconstruction efforts The chapters take up issues relating to the economic security related and institutional aspects The authors strike a balance and attempt to formulate recommendations

Bosnia and the Destruction of Cultural Heritage Helen Walasek,contributions by Richard Carlton,Amra Hadžimuhamedović,Valery Perry,Tina Wik,2016-03-03 The massive intentional destruction of cultural heritage during the 1992 1995 Bosnian War targeting a historically diverse identity provoked global condemnation and became a seminal marker in the discourse on cultural heritage It prompted an urgent reassessment of how cultural property could be protected in times of conflict and led to a more definitive recognition in international humanitarian law that destruction of a people s cultural heritage is an aspect of genocide Yet surprisingly little has been published on the subject This wide ranging book provides the first comprehensive overview and critical analysis of the destruction of Bosnia Herzegovina s cultural heritage and its far reaching impact Scrutinizing the responses of the international community during the war including bodies like UNESCO and the Council of Europe the volume also analyses how after the conflict ended external agendas impinged on heritage reconstruction to the detriment of the broader peace process and refugee return It assesses implementation of Annex 8 of the Dayton Peace Agreement a unique attempt to address the devastation to Bosnia s cultural heritage and examines the treatment of war crimes involving cultural property at the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY With numerous case studies and plentiful illustrations this important volume considers questions which have moved to the foreground with the inclusion of cultural heritage preservation in discussions of the right to culture in human rights discourse and as a vital element of post conflict and development aid Peace Without Politics? David Chandler, 2006 This edited collection brings together policy specialists and academics from the UK Europe the US and Canada to assess and analyse lessons from ten years of nation building in Bosnia Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2000 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Understanding International Institutions and the Legislative Process Paul Szasz, 2021-11-08 In the realm of the law of international organizations and treaty law few commentators have made a more significant contribution than Paul C Szasz In his years of distinguished service at the U N and in his subsequent career as a prominent consultant to international institutions he has mastered a highly specialized body of knowledge that allows him to study the inner and outer workings of the international legislative administrative and judicial processes with unique and compelling authority His incisive essays always deeply informed with first hand experience have gone directly to the heart of the most vital international legal issues of our time This volume gathers twenty one essays that will be of inestimable value to the entire community of public international lawyers With penetrating insight Szasz exposes the institutional underpinnings affecting such international law matters as law making in international organizations the obligation to arbitrate monitoring treaty compliance UN system complexification sanctions the advisory competence of the World Court the legal liability of diplomats peacekeeping intervention and the role of NGOs Specific facts and events such as the U S action in the 1988 PLO mission controversy developments in the safeguards regime of the International Atomic Energy Agency the Kosovo Conflict the Dayton Accords and the Namibian peace process provide a firm topical basis for the author s analysis of policy practice and theory in this little understood but crucially important area of international governance Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint U.S. Policy Toward Southeast Europe United States.
