

"Droit de la famille" de Jean Hauser et Gérard Cornu est un ouvrage de référence sur le droit de la famille en France. Il s'adresse aux étudiants en droit, aux professionnels du droit ainsi qu'aux particuliers intéressés par les questions de droit familial.

L'ouvrage présente de manière claire et complète les différentes branches du droit de la famille, telles que le mariage, le divorce, la filiation, la protection des enfants et des personnes vulnérables, etc. Les auteurs exposent les règles applicables, les procédures à suivre et les enjeux juridiques et sociaux des différentes questions traitées.

Le livre est structuré de manière pédagogique et progressive, avec des chapitres qui vont de l'étude des fondements et des principes du droit de la famille à l'analyse de situations concrètes. Les auteurs abordent également les évolutions récentes du droit de la famille, notamment les réformes législatives qui ont eu lieu ces dernières années.

Le style de l'ouvrage est clair et précis.
