Protest And Conflict In African Literature:

Protest and Conflict in African Literature Cosmo Pieterse, Donald Munro, 1978 Protest & Conflict in African Literature Africa Centre, 1969 Protest and Conflict in African Literature Cosmo Pieterse, 1982 PROTEST AND CONFLICT IN AFRICAN LITERATURE- BASED ON A SERIES OF TALKS AND DISCUSSIONS HELD AT THE AFRICA CENTRE. , Protest & conflict in African literature, ed , Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study African Literature as Political Philosophy Mary Stella Chika Okolo, 2013-07-04 The politics of development in Africa have always been central concerns of the continent's literature Yet ideas about the best way to achieve this development and even what development itself should look like have been hotly contested African Literature as Political Philosophy looks in particular at Achebe's Anthills of the Savannah and Petals of Blood by Ngugi wa Thiong'o but situates these within the broader context of developments in African literature over the past half century discussing writers from Ayi Kwei Armah to Wole Soyinka M S C Okolo provides a thorough analysis of the authors differing approaches and how these emerge from the literature She shows the roots of Achebe's reformism and Ngugi's insistence on revolution and how these positions take shape in their work Okolo argues that these authors have been profoundly affected by the political situation of Africa but have also helped to create a new African political philosophy The Writing of East and Central Africa G. D. Killam, 1984 Modern African Poetry and the African Predicament Romanus N. Egudu, 1978-10-12 Research in African Literatures , 1999 Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature African Literature in the Twentieth Century O. R. Dathorne, 1975 Explores intellectual currents in African prose and verse from sung or chanted lines to modern writings

Poetry and the Aesthetics of Commitment in South African Literature David Olusegun Agbaje, Ph.D, 2024-03-01 What is literature What is poetry How do poets committed to the idea of using poetry as a weapon of socio cultural and political struggle manage to impress their works in the minds and memories of men long after the struggle has been fought and won or lost What will a new generation of poets write about after the explosive social contradictions that inspired older poets have been resolved Why do the themes and styles of poets in transitional societies change along with human fortunes and circumstances This book provides answers to these questions and more using the poetic heritage of South Africa It is a compelling pedagogic work a must read for every student researcher and teacher of African poetry and a collector s item for the general public Canonization and Teaching of African Literatures ,2024-11-25 Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam,Alicia L. Kerfoot,2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Marxism and African Literature Georg M. Gugelberger,1986

Critical Engagements on African Literature Abba A. Abba,Benedictus C. Nwachukwu,2019-09-24 Beyond the critical examination of Isidore Diala s award winning poetry and drama the essays in this collection offer fresh insights on the complex methodological and theoretical patterns underlying the readings of African literary landscapes This is the first book to devote considerable attention to the study of Diala s creative works The Pyre drama and The Lure of Ash poetry The majority of the contributors here are selected from among the finest of Diala s former teachers colleagues and students who know him very closely The collection addresses fertile areas of African literary expression such as the relationship between literature and national history African ritual aesthetics affirmation denial and ambivalence as products of social constructions and exile migration and home coming Contributions also explore poetry and poetic truths semiotics anticolonial revolutions and postcolonial implosions oil politics discontent and militancy and feminism and gender politics The book stands out among its peers and offers great insights to scholars researchers and teachers working in the fields of African literature cultures and aesthetics European and African Stereotypes in Twentieth-Century Fiction Sarah L.Milbury- Steen,1980-06-18

African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe,2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa s literature is different from West Africa s which is quite different from South Africa s which has different influences on it than North Africa's Africa's literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by subject author and title indexes
