The Wolves at Evelyn Harold Rhenisch,2006

The Wolves at Evelyn is a hybrid of creative non fiction autobiography historical narrative and philosophical treatise As such it focuses on the experience of immigrant families travelling to B C while providing a context for their lives derived from their European roots and the chaotic history of several generations The book s philosophical linchpin is the uniquely Canadian obsession with the idea of land Citing and critiquing the colonial definitions of this idea as presented by such literary aristocrats as Robertson Davies and Margaret Atwood Rhenisch attempts to defy or at the very least expand the conventional notions of place through the lens of his family s experience Rhenisch posits that the whole concept of Canada is an illusion and insists upon the destructiveness inherent in the idea that one can ever have title to land His refusal to be as he describes it colonized by this traditional view provides an iconoclastic take on the history of a people living in the Canadian wilderness The book is at the same time a searing autobiographical look at Rhenisch s family s Nazi roots and he describes the personal fallout from such a shameful legacy He links these elements within the framework of a unique vision of the history of the founding of B C
