Proudly We Can Be Africans Black Americans And Africa 1935 1961:

Proudly We Can be Africans James Hunter Meriwether, 2002 Meriwether explores the dynamic nature of Africa's role in African American lives from the middle 1930s to the early 1960s during the confluence of the liberation struggles in Africa and the civil rights movement in the United States African Americans and Africa Nemata Amelia Blyden, 2019-05-28 An introduction to the complex relationship between African Americans and the African continent What is an African American and how does this identity relate to the African continent Rising immigration levels globalization and the United States first African American president have all sparked new dialogue around the question This book provides an introduction to the relationship between African Americans and Africa from the era of slavery to the present mapping several overlapping diasporas The diversity of African American identities through relationships with region ethnicity slavery and immigration are all examined to investigate questions fundamental to the study of African American history and culture African Americans and the Nigerian Civil War, 1967-1970 James A. Farquharson, 2024-07-22 This book is the first to recover and analyse at length the extent complexity and character of African American responses to the Nigerian Civil War 1967 1970 Far from having only marginal significance the Nigerian Civil War collided at full velocity with the conflicting discourses and ideas by which black Americans sought to understand their place in the United States and the world in the late 1960s Black civil rights leaders offered their service as agents of direct diplomacy during the conflict seeking to preserve Nigerian unity grassroots activists organised food drives concerts and awareness campaigns in support of humanitarian aid for victims of famine in the warzone while other black activists warned of an imminent genocide and called for an united response from black Americans Drawing on private papers activist literature government records and especially the black press it charts the way the civil war shaped as well as challenged the worldview of African Americans regarding black internationalist solidarities territorial sovereignty and political viability humanitarian compassion and the political trajectory of postcolonial Africa With a chronological approach this study is the ideal resource for all those interested in the Nigerian Civil War and the history of black internationalism Relations Between Africans and African Americans: Misconceptions, Myths and Realities Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2006 The author looks at relations between Africans and African Americans and how they see each other There are a lot of misconceptions which have an impact on how Africans and African Americans interact with the media playing a major role in perpetuating myths about both The Second Emancipation Howard W. French, 2025-08-26 Named one of the Most Anticipated Books of 2025 by Foreign Policy Howard French's The Second Emancipation stands the second half of the last century on its geopolitical head David Levering Lewis winner of the Pulitzer Prize From the acclaimed author of Born in Blackness comes an extraordinary account of Africa's liberation from colonial oppression a work that fundamentally reshapes our understanding of modern history A work of epic dimension that recasts the liberation of twentieth century Africa through the lens of revolutionary leader Kwame Nkrumah The Second Emancipation the second work in a trilogy from best selling author Howard W French about Africa's pivotal role in shaping world history underscores Adam Hochschild's contention that French is a modern day Copernicus. The title referring to a brief period beginning in 1957 when dozens of African colonies gained their freedom positions this liberation at the center of a movement of global Blackness with one charismatic leader Kwame Nkrumah 1909-1972 at its head. That so few people today know about Nkrumah is an omission that French demonstrates is typical of our deliberate neglect of Africa's enormous role in the birth of the modern world. Determined to re-create Nkrumah's life as an epic twentieth century story, The Second Emancipation begins with his impoverished, unheralded birth in the far western region of Ghana's Gold Coast. But blessed with a deep curiosity, a young Nkrumah pursued an overseas education in the United States. Nowhere is French's consummate style more vivid than in Nkrumah's early years in Depression era America, especially in his mesmerizing portrait of a culturally effervescent Harlem that Nkrumah encountered in 1935 before heading to college. During his student years in Pennsylvania and later as an activist in London, Nkrumah became steeped in a renowned international Black intellectual milieu including Du Bois, Garvey, Fanon, Padmore, and C. L. R. James, who called him one of the greatest political leaders of our century and formed an ideology that readied him for an extraordinarily swift and peaceful rise to power upon his return to Ghana in 1947. Four years later, in a political landslide he engineered while imprisoned, Nkrumah stunned Britain by winning the first general election under universal franchise in Africa, becoming Ghana's first independent prime minister in 1957. As leader of a sovereign nation, Nkrumah wielded his influence to promote the liberation of the entire continent, pushing unity as the only pathway to recover from the damages of enslavement and subjugation. By the time national military and police forces aided by the CIA overthrew him in 1966, Nkrumah's radical belief in pan-African liberation had both galvanized dozens of nascent African states and fired a global agenda of Black power. In its dramatic recasting of the American civil rights story and in its tragic depiction of a continent that once exuded all the promise of a newly won freedom, The Second Emancipation becomes a generational work that positions Africa at the forefront of modern day history.

Race Women Internationalists

Imaobong D. Umoren, 2018-05-25. Race Women Internationalists explores how a group of Caribbean and African American women in the early and mid twentieth century traveled the world to fight colonialism, fascism, sexism, and racism. Based on newspaper articles, speeches, and creative fiction, and adopting a comparative perspective, the book brings together the entangled lives of three notable but overlooked women: American, Eslanda Robeson, Martinican, Paulette Nardal, and Jamaican, Una Marson. It explores how, between the 1920s and the 1960s, the trio participated in global freedom struggles by traveling, building networks in feminist, student, black-led anticolonial and antifascist organizations, and forging alliances with key leaders. This made them race women internationalists, figures who engaged with a variety of interconnected internationalisms to challenge various forms of inequality facing people of African descent across the diaspora and the continent.
