Psalms, Islam, and Shalom Eric Sarwar,2023-08-29 For fourteen centuries a gap of mutual suspicion and hostility has existed between Christians and Muslims despite attempts to engage theologically apologetically polemically and militarily such as the Crusades During the past four decades increased Islamization in Pakistan has led to blasphemy laws nationalization of Christian institutions a state policy of religious and political profiling and discrimination against followers of Jesus Historic animosity has resulted in widespread violence and persecution Amid such an environment past efforts at reaching Muslims with the gospel have proved ineffective or even detrimental highlighting a need for a different approach to engaging with Islamic culture Eric Sarwar s research experience and practice have uncovered the valuable and mostly untapped role of the biblical Psalms in fostering peaceful friendship with Muslims The book of Psalms called Zabor in Arabic is a common heritage of divine song that can be used as a point of connection for public witness between Muslims and Christians Especially in the Pakistani context Psalms carries vast potential in terms of both text and musical expression as a bridge to peacemaking and missional engagement Yet the book of Psalms has never been a significant part of witness to the Muslim world Sarwar believes that can change The Psalms of Islam Zayn al-Abidin Ali ibn al-Husayn,2005 Sahifat

hopes for the future Nevertheless his richly ambivalent and fascinating literary portrayal in the Hebrew Bible is one of the most complex of all biblical characters This volume aims at taking a new critical look at the process of biblical creation and subsequent exegetical transformation of the character of David and his attributed literary composition the Psalms with particular emphasis put on the multilateral fertilization and cross cultural interchanges among Jews Christians and Muslims
