Andrews' American Queen ,1893 Monumental Lies Ronald M. James, 2023-09-19 A playful embrace of tall tales and exaggeration Monumental Lies explores the evolution of folklore in the Wild West Monumental Lies Early Nevada Folklore of the Wild West opens the door to understanding how legends and traditions emerged during the first decades following the Rush to Washoe which transformed the region beginning in 1859 During this Wild West period there was widespread celebration of deceit manifesting in tall tales burlesque lies practical jokes and journalistic hoaxes Humor was central to these endeavors and practitioners easily found themselves scorned if they failed to be adequately funny This ethos became central to the way folklore emerged during the formative years of the Nevada territory and state The tens of thousands of people who came to the West attracted by gold and silver mining brought distinct cultural legacies The interaction of diverse perspectives even while new stories and traditions coalesced or simply appeared was a complex process Author Ronald M James addresses how the fluidity of the region affected new expressions of folklore as they took root Mark Twain often a go to source for collections of early tall tales of this region cannot be overlooked but his interaction with local traditions was specific and narrow More importantly William Wright publishing as Dan De Quille arose as a key collector of legends a counterpart of early European folklorists With a bedrock understanding of what unfolded in the nineteenth century it is possible to consider The American Hereford Record and Hereford Herd Book American Hereford Cattle Breeders'

Association, 1901 The American Hereford Record, and Hereford Herd Book ,1911 American Hereford Record and Hereford Herd Book American Hereford Association, 1909 Brief history of Hereford cattle v 1 p 359 375 Miners Rick Steber, The discovery of gold in California launched the nation s first gold rush It began January 23 1848 James Marshall who was building a sawmill for John Sutter on the American River in the Sierra Nevada foothills turned water from the millpond into the tailrace A glimmer in the clear water caught his eye and he picked up a yellow rock about the size of a dime and weighing one quarter ounce He saw more and picked those up too John Sutter wrote in his diary that Marshall soaked to the skin and dripping water came bursting into his office informing me he had something of utmost importance to tell me in private Word leaked out and the following year 80 000 miners rushed to California hoping to claim a share of the big strike They scratched and clawed gold from the hills and stream beds of California and when the easy pickings were gone they moved onto the eastern slopes of the Sierra Nevada and into the Rocky Mountains Other disgruntled miners moved to the Northwest and finally the lust for gold drove prospectors to the Alaskan frontier The typical miner was a bearded young man dressed in a slouch hat red long johns trousers tucked into high topped boots he packed a shovel pick and gold pan When his dream of easy riches eventually died he often stayed in the West and became a farmer stockman tradesman or professional If married he sent for his family if single he married a daughter of pioneers and started a new family The lasting effect of the gold rush was not so much in the individual accumulation of wealth but in the simple fact that thousands of miners stayed rather than returning home and they helped win the West
