MacKenzie, 2001-01-01 The cinema was the most popular form of entertainment during the Second World War Film was a critically important medium for influencing opinion Films such as In Which We Serve and One of Our Aircraft is Missing shaped the British people's perceptions of the conflict British War Films 1939 45 is an account of the feature films produced during the war rather than government documentaries and official propaganda making the book an important index of British morale and values at a time of desperate national crisis

Bomber Boys on Screen S. P. MacKenzie, 2019-08-08 Since the Second World War depictions of Royal Air Force operations in film and television drama have become so numerous that they make up a genre worthy of scholarly attention In this illuminating study S P MacKenzie explores the different ways in which the men of RAF Bomber Command have been represented in dramatic form on the big and small screen from the war years to the present day Bomber Boys on Screen is the first in depth study of how and why the screen drama image of those who flew those who directed them and those who provided support for RAF bomber operations has changed over time sometimes in contested circumstances Until now dramas that focus on Bomber Command have tended to be mentioned only in passing or studied in isolation despite the prevalence of surveys of both the British war film genre and of aviation cinema In Bomber Boys on Screen MacKenzie examines the development presentation and reception of significant dramas on a decade by decade basis Titles from the beginning of the war The Lion Has Wings 1939 to the start of new century Bomber's Moon 2014 are situated in the context of technical possibilities and limitations evolving social and cultural norms in the United Kingdom and elsewhere and the development of moral and utilitarian controversies surrounding the wartime bomber offensive directed against Nazi Germany While the focus is on feature films and television plays reference is also made to documentaries memorials veterans organizations book titles war comics and other representations of the war fought by Bomber Command British War Films, 1939-1945 S. shaped the British people's perceptions of the conflict British War Films 1939-1945 is an account of the feature films produced during the war rather than government documentaries and official propaganda making the book an important index of British morale and values at a time of desperate national crisis Repicturing the Second World War Michael Paris, 2007-11-21 Films and television dramas about the Second World War have always been popular Written by acknowledged experts in the field this collection offers challenging sometimes controversial insights into how the popular memory of the Second World War has been re-pictured since 1989 which marked the sixtieth anniversary of the start of the war Air Force Magazine, 1997-07 Britain's War Machine David Edgerton, 2011-09-09 The familiar image of the British in the Second World War is that of the plucky underdog taking on German might David Edgerton's bold compelling new history shows the conflict in a new light with Britain as a very wealthy country formidable in arms ruthless in pursuit of its interests and in command of a global production system Rather than belittled by a Nazi behemoth Britain arguably had the world's most advanced mechanized forces It had not only a great empire but allies large and small Edgerton shows that Britain fought on many fronts and its many home fronts kept it exceptionally well supplied with weapons food and oil allowing it to mobilize to an extraordinary extent It created and deployed a vast empire of machines from the humble tramp steamer to the battleship from the rifle to the tank made in colossal factories the world over Scientists and engineers invented new weapons encouraged by a government and prime minister enthusiastic about the latest technologies The British indeed Churchillian vision of war and modernity was challenged by repeated defeat at the hands of less well equipped enemies Yet the end result was a vindication of this vision Like the United States a powerful Britain won a cheap victory while others paid a great price Putting resources machines and experts at the heart of a global rather than merely imperial story Britain's War Machine demolishes timeworn myths about wartime Britain and gives us a groundbreaking and often unsettling picture of a great power in action Staging Loss Michael Pinchbeck, Andrew Westerside, 2018-11-11 This book locates and critically theorises an emerging field of twenty-first century theatre practice concerned either thematically methodologically or formally with acts of commemoration and the commemorative With notions of memorial celebration temporality and remembrance at its heart and as a timely topic for debate this book asks how theatre and performance intersects with commemorative acts or rituals in contemporary theatre and performance practice It considers the re-performance of history commemoration as a form of or performance of ritual performance as memorial performance as eulogy and eulogy as performance It asks where personal acts of remembrance merge with public or political acts of remembrance where the boundary between the commemorative and the performative might lie and how it might be blurred broken or questioned It explores how we might remake the past in the present to consider not just how performance commemorates but how commemoration performs Heroes of Bomber Command Graham Smith, 2008 A tribute to the pilots and crew who flew from airbases in Suffolk during the last war and whose actions displayed some of the finest examples of courage and devotion to duty      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1998      3 Group Bomber Command Chris Ward, Steve Smith, 2009-04-21 During the immediate period before World War Two the RAF modified its command structure to rationalize for rapid expansion Bomber Command was divided into six operational groups each flying the same type of aircraft 3 Group had almost completely re equipped with the Wellington by 4 September 1939 to carry out the second bombing operation of the war which was against German warships off Brunsbttel In 1940 the first of the new four engined bombers the Short Stirling came into service with the Group being followed in 1942 by the Avro Lancaster On 3rd 4th November 1943 No 3 Group played a leading part in the first bombing attack in which heavy bombers made use of the radar bombing aid known as G H The target was Dsseldorf bombs were dropped blind and good results were obtained In July and August 1944 aircraft of this Group equipped with G H maintained an all weather attack against flying bomb sites Through the D Day build up the liberation of France and conquest of Germany formations of No 3 Group attacked railway junctions marshalling yards troop concentrations etc During the week ending 25th March 1945 Bomber Command made numerous attacks to prepare for the crossing of the Rhine      Już nie żyjesz.
