The London, Midland and Scottish Railway Volume Two Preston to Carlisle Stanley C. Jenkins,Martin Loader,2015-10-15 This fascinating selection of photographs traces some of the many ways in which the LMS line between Preston and Carlisle has changed and developed over the last century I Hate the Lake District Charlie Gere,2019-10-08 An alternative view of the North West of England that delves into its stranger past I Hate the Lake District offers a different vision of the rural environment from those found in much contemporary nature writing Based on the author s trips around North West England the book engages with nuclear power and nuclear war slavery imperialism ghosts love God cockroaches and the sheer violence and contingency of nature itself of which the human presence is merely a part Each chapter starts with an account of a visit to a place in this remote part of England the deep north but digresses and wanders through multifarious themes and subjects Among the sites Gere visits are the defunct nuclear power station at Sellafield home of all British nuclear waste Lake Coniston where Donald Campbell died trying to break the water speed record Hadrian s Wall furthestmost reach of the Roman Empire the mysterious and deathly Morecambe Bay sites of slavery in the North West places where UFOs have been sighted avant garde artists created work and Islamic terrorists trained shantytowns where the navvies who built the railways lived with their families and even the remains of Blobbyland in Morecambe In I Hate the Lake District Gere challenges the bourgeois pastoralism of popular nature writing and reveals the landscape of North West England as profoundly unnatural and strange

My Real Children Jo Walton, 2014-05-20 It s 2015 and Patricia Cowan is very old Confused today read the notes clipped to the end of her bed She forgets things she should know what year it is major events in the lives of her children But she remembers things that don t seem possible She remembers marrying Mark and having four children And she remembers not marrying Mark and raising three children with Bee instead She remembers the bomb that killed President Kennedy in 1963 and she remembers Kennedy in 1964 declining to run again after the nuclear exchange that took out Miami and Kiev Her childhood her years at Oxford during the Second World War those were solid things But after that did she marry Mark or not Did her friends all call her Trish or Pat Had she been a housewife who escaped a terrible marriage after her children were grown or a successful travel writer with homes in Britain and Italy And the moon outside her window does it host a benign research station or a command post bristling with nuclear missiles Two lives two worlds two versions of modern history each with their loves and losses their sorrows and triumphs Jo Walton s My Real Children is the tale of both of Patricia Cowan s lives and of how every life means the entire world At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied
