Witches, Westerners, and HIV Alexander Rödlach, 2016-09-17 A witch's curse an imperialist conspiracy a racist plot HIV AIDS is a catastrophic health crisis with complex cultural dimensions From small villages to the international system explanations of where it comes from who gets it and who dies are tied to political agendas religious beliefs and the psychology of devastating grief Frequently these explanations conflict with science and clash with prevention and treatment programs In Witches Westerners and HIV Alexander Rödlach draws on a decade of research and work in Zimbabwe to compare beliefs about witchcraft and conspiracy theories surrounding HIV AIDS in Africa He shows how both types of beliefs are part of a process of blaming others for AIDS a process that occurs around the globe but takes on local culturally specific forms He also demonstrates the impact of these beliefs on public health and advocacy programs arguing that cultural misunderstandings contribute to the failure of many well intentioned efforts This insightful book provides a cultural perspective essential for everyone interested in AIDS and cross cultural health issues

Assault on Paradise Conrad Phillip Kottak, Richard Pace, 2024-09-10 The Fifth Edition of Assault on Paradise continues to offer an in depth exploration of Arembepe Brazil through the lens of cultural change and environmental activism Combining the pioneering ethnographic research of Conrad Kottak with fresh insights from co author Richard Pace this seminal ethnographic study provides a comprehensive view of Arembepe's evolution over the past six decades Kottak's original work captures Arembepe's transformation from a serene fishing village to a global cultural hotspot during the 1960s hippie movement His detailed observations offer students a foundational understanding of how cultural social and economic forces interact within a community In this new edition an updated chapter with new co author Richard Pace reflects the current dynamics of the village Contemporary developments in religious practices the expansion of tourism and local environmental activism are addressed Kottak and Pace illustrate how Arembepe continues to navigate its identity amidst ongoing change Assault on Paradise stands out as a valuable case study on cultural adaptation community resilience and the impacts of globalization Kottak and Pace's combined perspectives help students grasp the complexities of cultural transformation and the role of local agency in shaping environmental and social outcomes Perfect for classroom use this book facilitates critical discussions on cultural dynamics and offers a nuanced view of how communities respond to external pressures while preserving their heritage

A Short History of Rudeness Mark Caldwell, 1999 In his thought provoking new book literary social critic Mark Caldwell gives us a history of the demise of manners and charts the triumphant progress of rudeness in America Touching on aspects of both our public and private lives including work family and sex he examines how the rules of behavior inevitably change and explains why no matter how hard we try we can never return to a golden era of civilized manners and mores

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Airplanes, the Environment, and the Human Condition Hans A. Baer, 2019-07-23 The number of airplane flights worldwide continues to grow and is one of the many drivers of climate change This book examines the aviation industry from an anthropological perspective focusing on the sector's environmental impact and the challenges facing attempts to shift to more sustainable solutions Hans Baer outlines how airplanes have become a key component of modern cultural and social life and how the world system has become increasingly dependent on them to function He critically examines current efforts to mitigate the climatic impact of the air travel and argues for a significant move away from air transport suggesting that such a shift may only be achieved through a more fundamental change in the world system Media and Middle Class Moms Lara J. Descartes, Conrad Kottak, 2010-04-02 Written by nationally recognized anthropologists Conrad Kottak and Lara Descartes this ethnography of largely white middle class families in a town in the midwest explores the role that the media play in influencing how those families cope with everyday work family issues The book insightfully reports that families struggle with and make work family decisions based largely on the images and ideas they receive from media sources though they strongly deny being so influenced An ideal book for teaching undergraduate family media and methods courses The Harcourt Brace Guide to Writing in the Disciplines Robert Wayne Jones, Patrick Bizzaro, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1997 Earthing the Gospel Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2002-12-26 Christians are much the richer for this accomplishment of a long cherished dream by an experienced missionary social anthropologist Gerald Arbuckle has provided a book for the contemporary pastoral care team that mediates basic insights on ministry via the social sciences He also challenges church workers to rethink and reassess their work in light of the profound cultural changes taking place around them Earthing the Gospel introduces pastoral workers in the First World to methods of social analysis pioneered by missionaries worldwide It includes case histories personal stories and the results of fieldwork of hundreds of people in both the First and Third Worlds Applying the insights of social anthropology to the parishes on the home front Arbuckle offers the tools required to address issues of mission and inculturation in the First World Above all Earthing the Gospel is practical It presumes no special knowledge of anthropology as it zeroes in on topical issues racism fundamentalism the modern family youth and senior citizen subcultures affecting parishes and communities today Each chapter ends with questions for reflection and action For pastoral teams and workers on every level the insights gained from mission around the world can applying the methods described here be just as fruitful in our own back yards Anthropological Notebooks, 1999 Ethnographic Research Jonathan Y. Okamura, 1985
