

Sometimes as a result of our residual desire to go somewhere, to achieve, there is a tendency to artificially create this mass of sensations in order to remain busy getting rid of it. However, the more we want to get rid of them, the more we create them. It is a "loop" of residual activity. Don't try to get rid of something that you have created, just stop creating it and understand that it is your very desire to get rid of it that perpetuates it.

Swinburne's Hell and Hick's Universalism Lindsey Hall, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 This book seeks to establish whether a Christian position must entail a belief in hell or whether Christians can hold a coherent theory of universal salvation Richard Swinburne's defence of hell depends on the argument that hell is necessary if humans are to be genuinely free It becomes clear that the contemporary discussion of hell and universalism cannot be separated from the issues of human freedom and God's knowledge and so Hall centres the discussion round the question Are we Free to Reject God John Hick argues that although we are free to reject God there will eventually be an universalist outcome Having examined the contrasting arguments of Hick and Swinburne Hall builds on Hick's position to develop an argument for Christian universal salvation which holds in balance our freedom in relation to God and the assurance that all will finally be saved

Joseph Price Tunis,Boardman Reed,Walter Lytle Pyle,1894 Geeta Enlightened Yogi Mahajan,1987-06-30 The revelation of timeless spiritual message of Lord Krishna is dramatically set in a battlefield though it happened to be the only place where such a message had its poignance Through its brilliant casting and superb plots the subtle difference between the ego and the spirit between myth and reality becomes apparent Thus the Geeta is a prenote to facilitate the seeker to recognize truth from untruth It directs the Spirit s ascent through winding mind alleys of conditioning concepts and projections into the threshold of Absolute Truth Rejecting the path of self torture or escapism it suggests the Divine union in the market place even in the mundane task of household chores In the new light thrown by Sri Mataji Nirmala Devi on the subject Yogi Mahajan gathers the dried up leaves of the text so far buried under the weight of priesthood and brings them back to life for the seeker of Truth Aspirational Fascism William E. Connolly, 2017-10-12 Coming to terms with a new period of uncertainty when it is still replete with possibilities This quick and engaging study clearly lays out the United States current democratic crisis Examining the early stages of the Nazi movement in Germany William E Connolly detects synergies with Donald Trump s rhetorical style Tapping into a sense of contemporary fragility Aspirational Fascism pays particular attention to how conflicts between neoliberalism and the pluralizing left have placed the white working class in a bind Ultimately Connolly believes a multifaceted democracy constitutes the best antidote to aspirational fascism and rethinks what a politics of the left might look like today Forerunners is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital works Written between fresh ideas and finished books Forerunners draws on scholarly work initiated in notable blogs social media conference plenaries journal articles and the synergy of academic exchange This is gray literature publishing where intense thinking change and speculation take place in scholarship Against the Spiritual Turn Sean Creaven, 2014-04-08 The argument presented in this book is that the recent spiritual trajectory of Roy Bhaskar s work upon which he first embarked with the publication of his From East to West undermines the fundamental achievements of his earlier work The problem with Bhaskar s new philosophical system Transcendental Dialectical Critical Realism or simply Meta Reality from the critical realist Marxist perspective endorsed here is that it marks both a departure from and a negation of the earlier concerns of Bhaskar to develop a realist philosophy of science and under labour for an emancipatory materialist socio historical science The end result is a meta philosophy which is irrealist speculative under theorized internally self contradictory and which cannot provide philosophical guidance to liberatory social practices In opposition to theist ontological logics more generally including the rather more rational theism presented by Margaret Archer Andrew Collier and Doug Porpora the argument of this book is that the earth bound materialist dialectics of the classical Marxist tradition and the naturalistic humanism these dialectics under labour on the terrain of socio historical being offer a much more promising way forward for critical realist theory and for liberatory politics and ethics Modernism, Metaphysics, and Sexuality Debrah Raschke, 2006-08 Without question modernist texts have been haunted by what can be known or more aptly what cannot be known This position is foundational to one of the pivotal readings of modernism Simultaneously economic legal and political shifts that occurred during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries produced real material changes pertaining to the status of women Thus as many others have adeptly argued modernism is also a crisis in gender Modernism Metaphysics and Sexuality keenly suggests that these narratives the thinking of what constitutes truth and the rethinking of gender are intertwined Interpreting Conrad s Heart of Darkness and Victory Forster s A Passage to India and Maurice Lawrence s Women in Love and Woolf's A Room of One's Own and To the Lighthouse through Luce Irigaray's rereading of western metaphysics Raschke suggests that where there is a crisis in knowing there is also a crisis in gender

Writing the Modern Family Roberta Garrett, 2021-01-29 Although a large body of work has emerged which addresses neoliberal representations of the family in other cultural forms such as parenting advice programmes little has been written specifically on the family and contemporary literature This book examines the growing body of autobiographical and fictional writing on family and parenting issues in Anglo American culture from the late 1990s to the present day The book looks closely at six distinct genres which have arisen during this time frame the misery memoir the mum's lit popular novel the maternal confessional dad's lit the dysfunctional domestic novel and the family noir Writing the Modern Family will examine the way these burgeoning areas of British and American writing respond to a neoliberal public discourse in which a parenting deficit rather than economic and structural disadvantage is responsible for increasing inequality in child welfare and achievement In evaluating these forms and their relationship to neoliberal culture the book will also consider the complex interrelationship between these genres

Realist Fiction and the Strolling Spectator (Routledge Revivals) John Rignall, 2016-01-29 The classic realist text has long been derided by post structuralist critics as an unsophisticated and reactionary form In this study first published in 1992 John Rignall makes a powerful case for the rehabilitation of realism as a self aware and reflexive genre Using the novels of Scott Balzac Dickens George Eliot Flaubert James Ford and Conrad Rignall argues for an understanding of realism through the recurrent figure of the fl neur The fl neur is the strolling spectator whose problematic vision both of and in the novel makes him the representative figure of the realist text A significant contribution to the field this title will be of particular view to students of realism literary theory and comparative literature
