Resolving Environmental Disputes A Decade Of Experience:

Resolving Environmental Disputes Gail Bingham,1986 The Promise and Performance of Environmental Conflict Resolution Rosemary O'Leary,Lisa B. Bingham,2003 Environmental conflict resolution ECR is a process of negotiation that allows stakeholders in a dispute to reach a mutually satisfactory agreement on their own terms The tools of ECR such as facilitation mediation and conflict assessment suggest that it fits well with other ideas for reforming environmental policy First used in 1974 ECR has been an official part of policymaking since the mid 1990s This is the first book to evaluate systematically the results of these efforts The contributions to this book critically investigate the record and potential of ECR drawing on perspectives from political science public administration regional planning philosophy psychology anthropology and law General Technical Report RM. ,1985 Environmental Dispute Resolution in Indonesia David Nicholson,2009-01-01 In the last two decades Indonesia has seen a dramatic proliferation of environmental disputes in a variety of sectors triggered by intensified deforestation and large scale mining operations in the resource rich outer islands together with rapid industrialisation in the densely populated inner island of Java Whilst the emergence of environmental disputes has sometimes attracted political repression attempts have also been made in recent times to explore more functional approaches to their resolution The Environmental Management Act of 1997 created a legal framework for the resolution of environmental disputes through both litigation and mediation This book is the first attempt to analyse the implementation of this framework in detail and to assess the effectiveness of litigation and mediation in resolving environmental disputes in Indonesia It includes a detailed overview of the environmental legal framework and its interpretation by Indonesian courts in landmark court cases The book features a number of detailed case studies of both environmental litigation and mediation and considers the legal and non legal factors that have influenced the success of these approaches to resolving environmental disputes Conflict Resolution S. I. Keethaponcalan,2017-07-21 This book introduces the subject of third party intervention one of the core subject matters of the fields of conflict resolution and peace studies It provides a comprehensive introduction to the dimensions issues and methods of third party intervention and approaches the subject from an interdisciplinary perspective It delves into third party definitions typologies actors rationale motives decision dimensions and roles This book provides in depth analysis of such third party methods as mediation arbitration hybrid procedures problem solving workshops and peacekeeping uniquely bringing all major topics of third party intervention into one text The last two chapters deal with timing of intervention and ripe moments and ethics Students of conflict resolution and peace studies will benefit from this book Environmental Governance Reconsidered Robert F. Durant,Daniel J. Fiorino,Rosemary O'Leary,2004-05-07 A comprehensive in depth and thematically integrated analysis of key issues in environmental governance today from perspectives including environmental economics democratic theory public policy law political science and public administration The Role Of An Environmental NGO In The Landmark Florida

Everglades Restoration: An Ethnography Of Environmental Conflict Resolution With Many Twists And Turns Dr. Barbara Pryor, 2006 Handbook of Research on Negotiation Mara Olekalns, Wendi L. Adair, 2013-01-01 This Handbook combines a review of negotiation research with state of the art commentary on the future of negotiation theory and research Leading international scholars give insight into both the factors known to shape negotiation and the questions that we need to answer as we strive to deepen our understanding of the negotiation process This Handbook provides analyses of the negotiation process from four distinct perspectives negotiators cognition and emotion social processes and social inferences communication processes and complex negotiations covering trade peace environment and crisis negotiations Providing an introduction to key topics in negotiation written by leading researchers in the field the book will prove insightful for undergraduate students It also incorporates an excellent summary of past research as well as highlights new directions negotiation research might take which will be valuable for postgraduate students and academics wishing to expand their knowledge on the subject Negotiated Rulemaking Sourcebook David M. Pritzker, Deborah S. Dalton, 1995 Partnering for the Environment Eric C. Poncelet, 2004-02-10 Environmental policy domains are increasingly adopting strategies of cooperation over those of conflict Decision making processes founded upon collaboration and public participation are receiving more attention and favor and in turn engendering multistakeholder environmental partnerships In his thoughtful analysis Eric C Poncelet seeks to illuminate the mechanics of these partnerships especially at the level of social interaction Drawing on ethnographic research performed with four case study partnerships in the European Union and the United States Poncelet focuses on the diverging ways that stakeholders think talk and conventionally act with regard to the environmental issues at stake Also explored are the roles of environmental partnerships as sites of personal transformation where participants and their perspectives conceptualizations and expectations can and do change Partnering for the Environment concludes by examining the broader implications of multistakeholder partnerships for the future of environmental decision making and suggests ways by which these partnerships may be more effectively used and managed Conflict Management Guidebook United States. Bureau of Reclamation, 1998 Organizations, Policy, and the Natural Environment Andrew J. Hoffman, Marc J. Ventresca, 2002 This book brings together emerging perspectives from organization theory and management environmental sociology international regime studies and the social studies of science and technology to provide a starting point for discipline based studies of environmental policy and corporate environmental behavior Reflecting the book s theoretical and empirical focus the audience is two fold organizational scholars working within the institutional tradition and environmental scholars interested in management and policy Together this mix forms a creative synthesis for both sets of readers analyzing how environmental policy and organizational practices are shaped spread and contested Dialogue, Conflict Resolution, and Change Mohammed Abu-Nimer, 2012-02-01 This is the first study to introduce the subject of Arab Jewish relations and encounters in Israel from both conflict resolution and educational perspectives Through a critical examination of Arab and Jewish encounter programs in Israel the book reviews conflict resolution and intergroup theories and processes which are utilized in dealing with ethnic conflicts and offers a detailed presentation of intervention models applied by various encounter programs to promote dialogue education for peace and democracy between Arabs and Jews in Israel The author investigates how encounter designs and processes can become part of a control system used by the dominant governmental majority s institutes to maintain the status quo and reinforce political taboos Also discussed are the different conflict perceptions held by Arabs and Jews the relationship between those perceptions and both sides expectations of the encounters Abu Nimer explores the impact of the political context Intifada Gulf War and peace process on the intervention design and process of those encounter groups and contains a list of recommendations and guidelines to consider when designing and conducting encounters between ethnic groups He reveals and explains why the Arab and Jewish encounter participants and leaders have different criteria of their encounter s success and failure The study is also applicable to dialogue and coexistence programs and conflict resolution initiatives in other ethnically divided societies such as South Africa Northern Ireland Bosnia and Sri Lanka where the minority and majority have struggled to find peaceful ways to coexist Governing Environmental Conflicts in China Yanwei Li,2018-02-21

Environmental conflicts are the source of many large scale popular protests in China with some protests substantially endangering social order Such protests have often prompted severe counter measures by both national and local government but have often then gone on to result in compromises whereby the demands of protesters have been largely met This book considers the nature of environmental conflicts in China and the way in which national and local governments have handled the situations It includes detailed case studies of particular conflicts relates the governance of environmental conflicts in China to wider discussions on the nature of governance and examines under what conditions government in China makes compromises The book concludes by assessing the lessons for the future The Age of the Arctic Gail Osherenko,Oran R. Young,2005-06-08 This book will be essential reading for all interested in this important region of the world

Media and Conflict: Framing Issues, Making Policy, Shaping Opinions Eytan Gilboa,2021-10-25 This is the first book to focus on media and conflict primarily international conflict from multidisciplinary cross national and cross cultural perspectives Twenty two contributors from around the globe present original and thought provoking research on media and conflict in the United States Central America Europe the Middle East Africa Russia and Asia Media and Conflict includes works both on the traditional print and electronic media and on new media including the Internet It explores the role media play in different phases of conflict determined by goal and structure including conflict management conflict resolution and conflict transformation Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Settling Disputes Linda Singer,2018-03-05 Within the past few years innovative methods have been developed not only to settle disputes out of court but also to supplement or replace the means by which legislatures businesses communities therapists and schools handle conflicts that once could be resolved only by litigation or force Settling Disputes serves as an essential guide to the new settlement alternatives This updated edition in response to the rapid changes of the past five years includes substantial new material that describes recent transformations in the way that courts and public agencies respond to disputes The book discusses alternative dispute resolution from the viewpoints of potential participants and offers advice to those who are involved in disputes to help them analyze their situations and goals Finally it provides suggestions for professionals involved in dispute resolution and for those whose jobs in law business or government are affected by the new options for settling disputes The dispute resolution movement continues to offer the most hopeful powerful alternative to the business and personal costs of litigation or worse of violence It has tremendous implications for the professional lives of Americans for their private lives as parents spouses neighbors and consumers and for their role as citizens The first edition of Settling Disputes was awarded the 1990 Center for Public Resources Book Prize

Creating Successful Communities Luther Propst, Stephen F. Harper, Michael The Conservation Foundation, Michael Mantell, 2012-07-11 Creating Successful Communities is a practical compendium of techniques for effective land use and growth management It offers a framework for land use decisionmaking and growth management techniques for protecting key resources such as agricultural land open space historic and cultural structure aesthetics and rivers and wetlands as well as ways to organize effectively The companion Resource Guide provides detailed information on topics covered in Creating Successful Communities

Creating Collaborative Advantage Chris Huxham, 1996-05-21 Inter organizational collaboration is becoming increasingly significant as a means of achieving organizational objectives in turbulent environments Yet it is not an easy process to implement successfully Drawing on the work of authors with a high level of relevant experience this volume provides a thought provoking and accessible introduction to the theory and practice of creating collaborative advantage The first part of the book develops a framework of key dimensions for understanding collaboration Different perspectives highlight the diversity of rationales and contexts involved and the range of elements which need to be considered and addressed when embarking on collaborative endeavours The second section focuses in more detail on collaboration in practice It examines the problems that can occur when different stakeholders who frequently hold different aims cultures procedures professional languages and power resources work across organizational boundaries The last section addresses specifically the processes of acting as a facilitator to collaborative groups It discusses how and why a third party facilitator role can be helpful and explores the various processes and techniques that can be used

Ecosystem Planning in Florida Samuel David Brody, 2016-04-29 While ecosystem management requires looking beyond specific jurisdiction and focusing on broad spatial scales most planning decisions particularly in the USA are made at local level By looking at land use planning in Florida this volume recognizes the need for planners and resource managers to address ecosystem problems at local and community levels The factors causing ecosystem decline such as rapid urban development and habitat fragmentation occur at the local level and are generated by local land use policies This book argues that understanding how local jurisdictions can capture and implement the principles of managing natural systems will lead to more sustainable levels of environmental planning in the future
