Community Building in High Need Contexts David P. Moxley,2025-10-02 This book provides a description of what a good human service organization is and what it does The author relies on a broad framework to define good and offers a fictional account as a methodology using his considerable consulting and research experience in human service organizations as a content enriching approach to the case examples he presents in this volume The book details the fictional story of Fifth Street a non governmental organization nested in a high need community which itself is hypothetical but reflects what is occurring within communities whose residents are struggling with poverty The content of this fictional account leans on a synthesis of multiple case examples This approach will appeal to faculty and students as well as practitioners who are seeking a grand example of how human service organizations can work effectively in high need contexts Students will also gain from the ethical perspective the author presents in this monograph This is a project of hope one that can inspire us all practicing in human services to strive for the best in novel and innovative ways
