Cohen, 2005-10 One simple powerful word hineini contains the key to deepening your relationship with God and with others Hineini Here I am This single spoken word appears only fourteen times in the Bible each time in a memorable and meaningful story Abraham offering Isaac as a sacrifice to God Jacob deceiving his father for Esau's birthright Moses answering the call that comes from the Burning Bush Scholar and popular teacher Norman Cohen explores each of these powerful stories and shows what each can reveal about you as parent spouse sibling lover and friend By probing these dynamic biblical relationships Cohen challenges you to think about the ways you relate to the people in your life and God And to add other fascinating perspectives to the conversation eleven insightful authors and teachers share personal reflections that exemplify each of the hineini passages Exploring Mormon Thought Blake T. Ostler, 2006-03-01 In volume 2 of the series Exploring Mormon Thought The Problems of Theism and the Love of God Blake Ostler explores issues related to soteriology or the theory of salvation He argues that the commitment that God loves us and respects our dignity as persons entails that God must leave us free to choose whether to have a saving relationship with him He explores the logic of love and argues that the LDS doctrine of a war in heaven embodies the commitment that God leaves us free to choose whether to enter into relationship with God He explores the nature of inter personal prayer and the contributions of LDS beliefs to a robust prayer dialogue He offers a view consistent with LDS commitments that makes sense out of asking God to assist others to alter the natural environment and to grow in relationship with God He then turns to the concept of grace and argues that the traditional views lead to insurmountable problems He argues that though God does not owe any obligation to us to give us grace God does so out of love However because divinity arises from loving relationships he argues that God could not fail to give sufficient grace to all persons and remain a loving God God Revealed Fred Sievert,2013-12-01 We all encounter God in unanticipated ways sometimes we simply don't recognize Him God's influence and guidance are constantly manifesting themselves God Revealed invites readers not only to watch vigilantly for messages from God in their daily lives but also to reconsider experiences from their past realizing that those overlooked encounters often carry messages that can with recognition strengthen their faith and enrich their future From an author who earned an advanced degree from Yale Divinity School after retiring as the president of a Fortune 100 corporation this unique book is a memoir with practical and often powerful inspirational advice Kirkus Reviews
