

Response to Literature Essay

DIRECTIONS:

In this writing assignment, you will read _____ by _____ and write a five-paragraph response to literature essay on your understanding of the theme (or meaning) of the novel/story/poem. Your essay will be at least 500 to 700 words with an introduction, body, and conclusion exhibiting your understanding of the story and textual evidence to support your interpretation. Your writing will be scored on how well you:

SCORING:

- Show your understanding of the author's message and your insight into the characters and ideas presented in the story/poem;
- Organize your essay around several clear ideas and/or images from the story;
- Justify your interpretations by giving examples and citing evidence from the text; and
- Use correct grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization.

WRITING THE RESPONSE TO LITERATURE:

Prompt

_____ by _____ tells a story about _____
Read the story. Then write an essay in which you present your understanding of the characters and the overall theme (meaning) of the story. Support your ideas with examples and details from the text. Do not merely summarize the story. Remember your response will be evaluated in two ways – on your understanding of the story and on the quality of your writing.

STEPS TO WRITING PROCESS:

- 1) Brainstorm - Choose thesis topic, write thesis statement, including 3 examples of topic.
- 2) Rough Draft - Write first copy of 5-paragraph essay (Introduction, Body, Conclusion).
PLEASE COLOR-CODE YOUR SENTENCES (see next page)
- 3) Editing - Use pen or pencil for errors (grammar, spelling, mechanics, content)
- 4) Revising - Review Rough Draft by correcting errors and making necessary changes.
- 5) Publishing Final Draft - Turn in revision for a final grade.

Literature, Interpretation and Ethics Colin

Davis, 2024-04-02 Literature Interpretation and Ethics argues for the centrality of hermeneutics in the context of ongoing debates about the value and values of literature and about the role and ethics of literary study Hermeneutics is the endeavor to understand the nature of interpretation as it poses vital questions about how we make sense of works of art our own lives other people and the world around us The book outlines the contribution of hermeneutics to literary study through detailed accounts of role of interpretation in the work of key thinkers such as Martin Heidegger Hans Georg Gadamer Paul Ricoeur Umberto Eco Jacques Derrida and Emmanuel Levinas It also illustrates problems of interpretation posed by specific literary texts and films emphasising how our interpretive acts also entail ethical engagements The book develops a hermeneutics of guarded trust which calls for attention to the agency of art without surrendering critical vigilance Through a series of forays into theoretical texts literary works and films the book contributes to contemporary debates about critical practice and the cultural value Interpretation it suggests is always fallible but it is also essential to our place in the world and to the importance of the humanities

Becoming a Reflective English Teacher Andrew Green, 2011-06-16 The world of training to teach is changing with moves to make teaching an M level profession This change places new academic and critical demands on those undertaking PGCE courses as well as the practical demands of working in the classroom The Standards for training to teach have changed to encompass a model and a level of reflective practice that is new and students on teacher training programmes are now required to demonstrate engagement with their subject and its pedagogy in a sustained and critical way at Masters level Taking on a set of major issues surrounding the role of teacher of English this book enables the reader to approach not only the practice of English but also introduces them in a structured and practical way to the paradigmatic issues underpinning English as taught across the full Secondary age range and engages them with a range of policy and theoretical perspectives that will enable them truly and deeply to reflect on their processes as teachers and the impact of their teaching. It builds firm bridges between theory and practice through exploring evidence based practice and pursues what this means for new English teachers. This book marks a step change in the literature available to support the professional development of student English teachers as teaching is rapidly becoming a more research and evidence based profession. The materials in this book are innovative in supporting the development of the knowledge base in teaching at M level. Contributors: Angella Cooze, Robert Fisher, Jenny Grahame, Bethan Marshall, Jo McIntyre, Debra Myhill, Vicky Obied, Maggie Pitfield, Richard Quarshie, Gary Snapper, Linda Varley, Annabel Watson, Paula Zwozdiak, Myers. Forum, 1982. Understanding Children's Literature Peter Hunt, 2006-05-17. Edited by Peter Hunt, a leading figure in the field, this book introduces the study of children's literature, addressing theoretical questions as well as the most relevant critical approaches to the discipline. The fourteen chapters draw on insights from academic disciplines ranging from cultural and literary studies to education and psychology and include an essay on what writers for children think about their craft. The result is a fascinating array of perspectives on key topics in children's literature as well as an introduction to such diverse concerns as literacy ideology, stylistics, feminism, history, culture and bibliotherapy. An extensive general bibliography is complemented by lists of further reading for each chapter and a glossary defines critical and technical terms, making the book accessible for those coming to the field or to a particular approach for the first time. In this second edition, there are four entirely new chapters; contributors have revisited and revised or rewritten seven of the chapters to reflect new thinking, while the remaining three are classic essays widely acknowledged to be definitive. Understanding Children's Literature will not only be an invaluable guide for students of literature or education but it will also inform and enrich the practice of teachers and librarians. English Teaching Forum, 2009.
