Responsive Evaluation Vol 92 New Directions For Evaluation:

Evaluation Roots Marvin C. Alkin, 2012-04-12 Evaluation Roots A Wider Perspective of Theorists Views and Influences Second Edition provides an updated examination of current evaluation theories and traces their evolution Marvin C Alkin shows how theories build upon theories and how the theories are related to each other The way in which these evaluation roots grew to form a tree helps to provide a better understanding of evaluation theory In addition to the editor s overview the book contains essays by leading evaluation theorists In these pieces the evaluators comment on their own development and give their views of their placement upon the tree All royalties from sales of this book are donated to support the AEA Research on Evaluation Student Award

Responsive Evaluation Jennifer C. Greene, Tineke A. Abma, 2002-01-21 With his 1973 address titled Program Evaluation Particularly Responsive Evaluation Robert Stake offered a new vision and rationale for educational and social program evaluation In this vision evaluation was reframed from the application of sophisticated analytic techniques that address distant policymakers questions of program benefits and effectiveness on the average to an engagement with on site practitioners about the quality and meaning of their practice These innovative ideas helped accelerate a transformation of the evaluation enterprise into its current pluralistic character within which remain multiple and varied legacies of key responsive evaluation principles This volume offers some of those legacies representing central epistemological artistic and political dimensions of Stake s original commitment to responsiveness This is the 92nd issue of the Jossey Bass series New Directions for Evaluation

Standards-Based and Responsive Evaluation Robert E. Stake, 2003-10-30 We can be grateful that Dr Stake decided to cap his distinguished career by sharing his ideas in writing This is a book that evaluators will want to have in their personal library It tells us a lot about our field highlights contrasting ways of evaluating without pitting one against the other and manages to remind us why many of us chose this line of work in the first place

EVALUATION AND PROGRAM PLANNING Authored by a master writer and evaluator Standards Based and Responsive Evaluation explores the many conceptual choices an evaluator needs to make when doing an evaluation devoting attention to stakeholders weighing ethical risks and writing a useful report The book begins with the main strategic choices an evaluator needs to make between approaches quantitatively by explicating criteria needs standards and performances or qualitatively by studying the activity aspirations problems and accomplishments of the participants and critical observers After reading the text students will have a better appreciation of evaluation as a process that needs to be custom fit to the situation Throughout the book Stake presents evaluation as a series of choices for the reader To remain independent or to join with program staff or stakeholders To value personal experience as evidence or to shun it as biased To aid development formatively or to assess the existing program summatively To use issues goals gains efficiency or problem solving as the key conceptual structure To invest small or large in trying out and validating data gathering procedures To support the standards and ethical codes of professional associations Standards Based and Responsive Evaluation will prove an essential text for program evaluation courses in education nursing social work psychology sociology communication and anthropology Experienced researchers and professional evaluators will also find this an invaluable reference for a more experiential interpretive approach to evaluation work and policy setting Key Features Provides readers with the tools they need to make choices while practicing evaluation Employs quotations poetry and cartoons to help the reader experience the concepts of evaluation Includes boxed examples from a variety of cases giving readers the opportunity to compare an actual evaluation situation with one in which they may be engaged Allows readers to access extensive examples of evaluation reports coding excerpts and more through a complementary Web site appendix

Evaluation for a Caring Society Merel Visse, Tineke A. Abma, 2018-02-01 This book highlights views on responsive participatory and democratic approaches to evaluation from an ethos of care It critically scrutinizes and discusses the invisibility of care in our contemporary Western societies and evaluation practices that aim to measure practices by external standards Alternatively the book proposes several foci for evaluators who work from a care perspective or wish to encourage a caring society This is a society that sees evaluation and care as a continuously unfolding relational practice of moral political learning contributing to life sustaining webs At one level is the evaluator s immediately responsive and interpersonal encounter with the personal troubles of social actors most visible as Mills originally pointed out in an individual s biography and in those social settings directly open to the individual s lived experience At another level the sociological and political level the evaluator operates at what Mills called the arena of public issues where immediate personal troubles are seen not only as problems encountered by individuals but as the result of structural and political arrangements in society evaluation for a caring society is thought to operate at both levels Thomas A Schwandt Professor Emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign The intricate relationship between evaluation and care is hardly addressed by evaluators or caregivers This book fills a gap as it focuses on the relationship between evaluation and care and provides a multitude of examples of evaluation as a caring practice the book can serve as an antidote to the present day haste in social practices and contribute in form and content to developing an evaluation practice which may foster a caring society Guy Widdershoven Professor of Philosophy and Ethics of Medicine and head of the Department of Medical Humanities at VU University Medical Center VU University Amsterdam

Arguments for Learning Bill Cope, Walter Feinberg, 2025-03-11 Almost every educational idea worth a thought has been considered at the University of Illinois and anything worth trying has been tested In this history of ideas Bill Cope and Walter Feinberg chronicle the intellectual lives of education thinkers at the university while tracking the development of educational ideas and practices in general Cope and Feinberg draw on conversations narratives and archival research that reveal how different generations explored their role in defining and carrying out the College s multifaceted mission Their account raises critical questions about the character of learning the aims of teaching and the nature of teaching as a profession At the same time the authors address issues that range from the role of schools in fostering individual and collective identity to the introduction of computer mediated and online learning Cope and Feinberg examine changes in self understanding about fundamental ideas and chart how the College evolved from its original narrow mission of training children s schoolteachers to embracing global perspectives A wide ranging portrait of an institution Arguments for Learning uses the School of Education to tell the stories of thinkers dedicated to the idea that education can change the world for the better

Collaborating with Community-based Organizations Through Consultation and Technical Assistance Patricia Stone Motes, Peg McCartt Hess, 2007 Few aspects of American military history have been as vigorously debated as Harry Truman s decision to use atomic bombs against Japan In this carefully crafted volume Michael Kort describes the wartime circumstances and thinking that form the context for the decision to use these weapons surveys the major debates related to that decision and provides a comprehensive collection of key primary source documents that illuminate the behavior of the United States and Japan during the closing days of World War II Kort opens with a summary of the debate over Hiroshima as it has evolved since 1945 He then provides a historical overview of the events in question beginning with the decision and program to build the atomic bomb Detailing the sequence of events leading to Japan s surrender he revisits the decisive battles of the Pacific War and the motivations of American and Japanese leaders Finally Kort examines ten key issues in the discussion of Hiroshima and guides readers to relevant primary source documents scholarly books and articles The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, 2011-04-27 Now in its fourth edition this handbook is an essential resource for those interested in all aspects of qualitative research and has been extensively revised and updated to cover new topics including applied ethnography queer theory and auto ethnography The Oxford Handbook of Assessment Policy and Practice in Music Education, Volume 1 Timothy S. Brophy, 2019-01-02 In the music classroom instructors who hope to receive aid are required to provide data on their classroom programs Due to the lack of reliable valid large scale assessments of student achievement in music however music educators in schools that accept funds face a considerable challenge in finding a way to measure student learning in their classrooms From Australia to Taiwan to the Netherlands music teachers experience similar struggles in the quest for a definitive assessment resource that can be used by both music educators and researchers In this two volume Handbook contributors from across the globe come together to provide an authority on the assessment measurement and evaluation of student learning in music The Handbook s first volume emphasizes international and theoretical perspectives on music education assessment in the major world regions This volume also looks at technical aspects of measurement in music and outlines situations where theoretical foundations can be applied to the development of tests in music The Handbook s second volume offers a series of practical and US focused approaches to music education assessment Chapters address assessment in different types of US classrooms how to assess specific skills or requirements and how assessment can be used in tertiary and music teacher education classrooms Together both volumes of The Oxford Handbook of Assessment in Music Education pave the way forward for music educators and researchers in the field

Disrupting Program Evaluation and Mixed Methods Research for a More Just Society Jori N. Hall, Ayesha Boyce, Rodney Hopson, 2023-01-01 While women have influenced the fields of program evaluation and mixed methods research their contributions are rarely acknowledged In this edited volume we recognize the contributions Jennifer C Greene made to evaluation and mixed methods focusing on how she disrupted traditional ways methods are conceptualized and implemented We aim to provide a range of perspectives on how Greene disrupted social science theory methodology and training through her commitment to the values of democracy diversity and dialogue Accordingly the volume makes explicit how Greene democratized social science inquiry and training by emphasizing inclusive culturally responsive and educative theories methods and pedagogical practices Second it clarifies how her commitment to diversity supported scholars from diverse disciplinary backgrounds and cultures within and beyond the United States and validated often ignored perspectives on phenomena or experiences And third it showcases how her commitment to dialogue opened spaces for non traditional methodological approaches that engage communicate and disseminate program evaluation and mixed methods work Taken together the first hand accounts presented in this volume offer a historical perspective and practical guidance on program evaluation and mixed methods conceptualization implementation and training Endorsements The theme of disruption in this book is a powerful look at the breadth and significance of Jennifer C Greene s distinguished contributions both theoretical and practical in evaluation for over 30 years In essence these chapters reveal the sustaining power of her scholarship and influence today and likely in years to come Her recognition that no single method can solve the complex problems faced in evaluation is revealed in the ontological epistemological and methodological work she developed on mixed methods which led to a genre of study that recast the debate about the hegemony of quantitative over qualitative methods and vice versa She has foregrounded values the quintessential character of evaluation by recognizing the multiplicity of perspectives that guide our theories roles questions designs and perceptions of quality Jennifer Greene s generativity is exemplified in her egalitarian dialogic stance inclusion of voices and context and commitment to equity The chapters reflect the impact of her work on scholars who continue to advance evaluation for a more just society Valerie J Caracelli U S Government Accountability Office It is not possible to convey in a few words my strongest endorsement for this volume that begins scratching the surface of Jennifer C Greene s many contributions to evaluation theory methods and practice I have worked with and learned from her on many occasions over the years as I grappled with refining my understanding and practice of culturally responsive evaluation I commend the editors and authors for this first substantive collection providing a more in depth understanding and appreciation of Jennifer Greene s body of work for some while providing others the opportunity to revisit the lessons we have learned from her work spirit and commitment to make a difference Stafford Hood Center for Culturally Responsive Evaluation Assessment CREA and Professor Emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign
