Resting Lightly On Mother Earth The Aboriginal Experience In Urban Educational Settings:

Resting Lightly on Mother Earth Angela Ward, Rita Bouvier, 2001-01-01 In this book the voices of Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal participants are heard as they chronicle their survival in mainstream school systems. The authors describe and analyze the experiences of Aboriginal students, teachers, and pre-service teachers struggling to find a place in urban society. Some voices are resistant, others angry, many questioning as they enter into tentative coalitions with other urban teachers who pursue social justice for Indigenous peoples. The editors open the book with a wide-ranging look at the contexts of urban Aboriginal education and explore the themes of the book: identity, disconnection from the land, spirituality, the effects of a colonial legacy from their own Aboriginal and mainstream perspectives. A strength of the book is the diversity of backgrounds and experiences the authors bring. The writers are Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal from Canada, the United States, and Australia. They have taught and worked in elementary and secondary schools, universities, and teacher education programs. All have direct experience working in urban educational settings and all bring passionate advocacy to their writing. Resting Lightly on Mother Earth is intended for both Indigenous and mainstream educators; it is particularly suitable for teachers and administrators in urban systems, teacher educators, and graduate and undergraduate education students. Aboriginal Peoples in Canadian Cities Heather A. Howard, Craig Proulx, 2011-04-12 Since the 1970s, Aboriginal people have been more likely to live in Canadian cities than on reserves or in rural areas. Aboriginal rural-to-urban migration and the development of urban Aboriginal communities represent one of the most significant shifts in the histories and cultures of Aboriginal peoples in Canada. The essays in Aboriginal Peoples in Canadian Cities: Transformations and Continuities are from contributors directly engaged in urban Aboriginal communities; they draw on extensive ethnographic research on and by Aboriginal people and their own lived experiences. The interdisciplinary studies of urban Aboriginal community and identity collected in this volume offer narratives of unique experiences and aspects of urban Aboriginal life. They provide innovative perspectives on cultural transformation and continuity and demonstrate how comparative examinations of the diversity within and across urban Aboriginal experiences contribute to broader understandings of the relationship between Aboriginal peoples and the Canadian state and to theoretical debates about power dynamics in the production of community and in processes of identity formation.

Teaching Each Other, Enhanced Edition Linda M. Goulet, Keith N. Goulet, 2024-11-15 In recent decades, educators have been seeking ways to improve outcomes for Indigenous students. Yet most Indigenous education still takes place within a theoretical framework based in Eurocentric thought. In Teaching Each Other, Linda Goulet and Keith Goulet provide an alternative framework for teachers working with Indigenous students: one that moves beyond acknowledging Indigenous culture to one that actually strengthens Indigenous identity. Drawing on Nehinuw Cree concepts such as kiskinaumatowin or teaching each other, Goulet and Goulet provide a new approach to teaching Indigenous students. Kiskinaumatowin transforms the normally hierarchical teacher-student relationship by making students and teachers equitable partners in education Enriched with the success stories of educators who are applying Nehinuw concepts in Saskatchewan Canada this book demonstrates how this framework works in practice The result is an alternative teaching model that can be used by teachers anywhere who want to engage with students whose culture may be different from the mainstream This enhanced edition also includes audio pronunciations of each Cree word as well as a glossary of Cree words and their meanings

Totems and Taboos, 2008-01-01 Totems and Taboos Risk and Relevance in Research on Teachers and Teaching is a compilation of selected papers from the 2007 Biennial conference of the International Study Association on Teachers and Teaching ISATT held at Brock University This volume contains keynote addresses and papers based on thematic presentations delivered at the conference namely critically investigative items which have been sacred to systems institutions and educational practitioners in order to inform the theory and practice of teaching and research While consideration of the native or aboriginal historical tradition of Canada was instrumental in developing a theme dealing with the nature of totems it was recognized that such a heritage informs research and practice regardless of national borders The papers included in this book reflect global perspectives on the conference theme and include thinkers from Australia Brazil Canada Denmark Finland Germany Great Britain Israel Slovenia Turkey and the United States In addition the writings of seasoned academics and well published authors the totems of the field so to speak are situated alongside papers from academic newcomers who have broken the taboo of not speaking in the presence of more experienced company The central metaphor of this book is the high wire or tightrope journey across Niagara Falls upon which we oscillate between the falsely dichotomous notions of research and teaching The tension in leaning towards one side or the other is presented as a negotiated process of balancing research and teaching which maintains our progress forward in the field Overlooking this edgy relationship will cause one to lean too much in one direction and fall into the chasm underneath Thus the sections of this book are designed to examine educational progress across this high wire while maintaining awareness of the risks taken on this journey Each paper is relevant to particular phases in this high wire walk and portrays the journeys of the authors within in order to inform the path of others

Warrior Women Mary Isabelle Young, Florence Paynter, Khea Paul, Brenda Mary Parisian, Jerri-Lynn Orr, Dorothy Moore, Laura Marshall, Jennifer Lamoureux, Lucy Joe, Janice Huber, 2012-11-29 Warrior Women makes visible the ongoing intergenerational narrative reverberations Young 2003 2005 shaped through Canada's residential school era which denied the communal and cultural economic educational human familial linguistic and spiritual rights of Aboriginal people

Critical Reflections on Teacher Education Howard Woodhouse, 2022-09-28 Critical Reflections on Teacher Education argues that educational philosophy can improve the quality of teacher education programs in Canada the United States and the United Kingdom The book documents the ways in which the market model of education propagated by governments and outside agencies hastens the decline of philosophy of education and turns teachers into technicians in hierarchical school systems A grounding in educational philosophy however enables future teachers to make informed and qualified judgements defining their professional lives In a clear and accessible style Howard Woodhouse uses a combination of reasoned argument and narrative to show that educational philosophy together with Indigenous knowledge systems forms the basis of a climate change education capable of educating future teachers and their students about the central issue of our time Indigenous Education Huia Tomlins-Jahnke, Sandra D. Styres, Spencer Lilley, Dawn Zinga, 2019-07-11 For Indigenous students and teachers alike formal teaching and learning occurs in contested places In Indigenous Education leading scholars in contemporary Indigenous education from North America New Zealand and Hawaii disentangle aspects of colonialism from education to advance alternative philosophies of instruction From multiple disciplines contributors explore Indigenous education from theoretical and applied perspectives and invite readers to embrace new informed ways of schooling Part of a growing body of research this is an exciting powerful volume for Indigenous and non Indigenous teachers researchers policy makers and scholars and a must read for anyone who wants to understand the contested spaces of contemporary education Foreword by Linda Tuhiwai Smith Contributors Jill Bevan Brown Frank Deer Wiremu Doherty Dwayne Donald Ngarewa Hawera Margie Hohepa Robert Jahnke Patricia Maringi G Johnston Spencer Lilley Daniel Lipe Margaret J Maaka Angela Nardozi Katrina Ann R Kap anaokal okeola N koa Oliveira Wally Penetito Michelle Pidgeon Leonie Pihama Jean Paul Restoule Mari Ropata Te Hei Sandra Styres Huia Tomlins Jahnke Sam L No eau Warner K Laiana Wong Dawn Zinga Girl Culture Claudia Mitchell, Jacqueline Reid-Walsh, 2007-12-30 Never before has so much popular culture been produced about what it means to be a girl in today s society From the first appearance of Nancy Drew in 1930 to Seventeen magazine in 1944 to the emergence of Bratz dolls in 2001 girl culture has been increasingly linked to popular culture and an escalating of commodities directed towards girls of all ages Editors Claudia A Mitchell and Jacqueline Reid Walsh investigate the increasingly complex relationships struggles obsessions and idols of American tween and teen girls who are growing up faster today than ever before From pre school to high school and beyond Girl Culture tackles numerous hot button issues including the recent barrage of advertising geared toward very young girls emphasizing sexuality and extreme thinness Nothing is off limits body image peer pressure cliques gangs and plastic surgery are among the over 250 in depth entries highlighted Comprehensive in its coverage of the twenty and twenty first century trendsetters fashion literature film in group rituals and hot button issues that shape and are shaped by girl culture this two volume resource offers a wealth of information to help students educators and interested readers better understand the ongoing interplay between girls and mainstream culture Ring Around the Maple Cynthia R. Comacchio, Neil Sutherland, 2024-10-29 Ring Around the Maple is about the condition of children in Canada from roughly 1850 to 2000 a time during which the modern increasingly disrupted traditional ways Authors Cynthia R Comacchio and Neil Sutherland trace the lives of children over this long century with a view to synthesizing the rich interdisciplinary often multi disciplinary literature that has emerged since the 1970s Integrated into this synthesis is the authors new research into many often seemingly disparate archival and published primary sources Emphasizing how the child and childhood are sociohistoric constructs and employing age analytically and relationally they discuss the constants and the variants in their historic dimensions While childhood tangibly modernized during these years it remained a far from universal experience due to identifiers of race gender culture region and intergenerational adaptations that characterize the process of growing up This work highlights children s perspectives through close critical against the grain readings of diaries correspondence memoirs interviews oral histories and autobiographies many buried in obscure archives It is the only extant historical discussion of Canadian children that interweaves the experiences of First Nations M tis and Inuit children with those of children from a number of settler groups Ring Around the Maple makes use of photographs catalogues advertisements government publications musical recordings radio shows television shows material goods documentary and feature films and other such visual and aural testimony Much of this evidence has not to date been used as historical testimony to uncover the lives of ordinary children This book is generously illustrated with photographs and ephemera carefully selected to reflect children s lives conditions interests and obligations It will be of special interest to historians and social scientists interested in children and the culture of childhood but will also appeal to readers who enjoy the little stories that together make up our collective history especially when those are told by the children who lived them
