Restoration The Twilight Of Humanism:

Restoration Lorenz Eitner, 1970 Restoration - The Twilight of Humanism Lorenz Eitner, 1970 Grandeur and Twilight of Radical Universalism Agnes Heller, 2023-04-14 Grandeur and Twilight of Radical Universalism provides a theoretical construction to the extraordinary events of the past several years in Europe and the Soviet Union and China. These masterful essays attribute much of the problem of totalitarianism to its blind acceptance of a Marxist philosophy of practice. With the failure of communist practice the collapse of the Marxian paradigm was quick to follow. At its roots this volume is a critique of the idea that we can have scientific knowledge of the social and political future. Totalitarian Marxism combined statements of history and claims of omniscience. Free choice was surrendered to history and when the predicted outcomes fail to materialize when communism came closer to being buried than capitalism and western ideals of democracy proved far more compelling than inherited doctrines of authoritarianism the outcome proved monumental and disastrous. The authors position themselves as evolving from critical Marxism to post Marxism and then post modernism. By this they mean a modest view of life one that moves beyond radical universalism and grand narrative into a realization of individualism and equity concerns are central to the end of the twentieth century. The volume proceeds historically from studies of the classic Marxian legacy to the early twentieth century efforts of Lukacs, Weber and Adorno proceeding to the disintegration of the Marxian paradigm in both its pure and revisionist forms. It ends with a study of options posed by this paradigmatic collapse to consideration of the status of postmodernity and the choices between pure relativism and a theological fundamentalism. This is a work of absolute importance for political philosophy, the sociology of knowledge and the history of ideas. In raising recent events to a theoretically meaningful framework it represents a refreshing as well as remarkable step toward understanding.

Revolutions from 1789 to 1989 The Intertwining of Aesthetics and Ethics Jadranka Skorin-Kapov, 2016-04-21 The Intertwining of Aesthetics and Ethics: Exceeding of Expectations, Ecstasy, Sublimity analyzes the common experiential ground for both aesthetics and ethics by considering experiential environment, both nature and art, the precedents to desire, the notion of experience incorporating a break and the reverberations of surprise leading to the intertwining of aesthetics and ethics. Jadranka Skorin-Kapov discusses different philosophical positions on the relationship between nature and art in conversation with Kant, Hegel, Goethe, Gadamer and Adorno. She argues that Kantian sublimity can carry over from nature to art. As part of the discussions of expectations and authenticity the author interprets Husserl's view on expectations, Heidegger's view on death and authenticity, Blanchot's view on death and Arendt's view on natality. As for understanding the aesthetic experience as the paradigmatic experience, Skorin-Kapov is informed by Dewey's work on art as experience, Gadamer's work on experience of art and Jauss's work on the aesthetics of reception and the horizon of expectations. After our sensibility and representational capability are broken, recuperation then leads to sublimity and the subsequent feelings of admiration and or responsibility allowing for the intertwining of aesthetics and ethics. Additionally, elements of Kantian morality Foucault's ethics and Kierkegaard's work on interactions between aesthetics and ethics together help to characterize the relation between aesthetics and ethics Since we often encounter surprise due to unexpectedness in comedy Skorin Kapov also interprets philosophical views on the comedy and laughter including Aristotle Kierkegaard Meredith and Bergson using the theatrical work of Dario Fo as an example The novel analysis in The Intertwining of Aesthetics and Ethics will be of particular interest to students and scholars working or teaching in aesthetics phenomenology art history cultural studies and ethics

Machine in the Studio Caroline A. Jones, 1996 Drawing on extensive interviews with artists and their assistants as well as close readings of artworks Jones explains that much of the major work of the 1960s was compelling precisely because it was mainstream central to the visual and economic culture of its time

Goethe in English Derek Glass, Martin H. Jones, 2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethe's birth It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world The work records publications during the century not merely translations that originated during this period It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004 Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities

Research Association both as a worthy commemoration of Goethes anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself Nine

Lisa Duggan,2004-10-11 By now we ve all heard about the shocking redistribution of wealth that s occurred during the last thirty years and particularly during the last decade But economic changes like this don't occur in a vacuum they're always linked to politics The Twilight of Equality searches out these links through an analysis of the politics of the 1990s the decade when neoliberalism free market economics became gospel After a brilliant historical examination of how racial and gender inequities were woven into the very theoretical underpinnings of the neoliberal model of the state Duggan shows how these inequities play out today In a series of political case studies Duggan reveals how neoliberal goals have been pursued demonstrating that progressive arguments that separate identity politics and economic policy cultural politics and affairs of state can only fail Ultimately The Twilight of Equality not only reveals how the highly successful rhetorical maneuvers of neoliberalism have functioned but more importantly it shows a way to revitalize and unify progressive politics in the U S today
