Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art II G Passerini, 2018-07-18 Papers presented at the 2nd International Conference on Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art are contained in this volume The conference attracted important research highlighting the significance of Islamic heritage architecture and art to the world and its influence across different regions The papers deal with the design of many types of buildings in Islamic countries including not only the better known public buildings like mosques mausolea citadels and forts but also houses and gardens engineering works such as bridges and dams irrigation systems and many others which have also had a profound impact on society Traditional architecture and urban environment in most Islamic countries is now being eroded by overemphasis on a global type of architecture and city planning As a consequence many regions are losing their identity The included studies review these developments in the light of what classical Islamic urban design and architecture has to offer modern society Research contained in this book provides an analysis of the materials employed and the types of structural elements used particularly those unique to Islamic architecture Associated topics covered include music textiles and ceramics which are essential parts of the architectural fabric Also looked at are construction materials including not only stone and brick but also more perishable materials like adobe wood and reeds The preservation of heritage features also requires the development of appropriate conservation techniques in response to the different materials used and the ways structural forms work including under extreme conditions such as earthquakes Academics researchers practitioners and government employees actively involved in the topic of Islamic heritage architecture and art will find this publication of interest Heritage and Sustainability in the Islamic Built Environment Bashir A. Kazimee, 2012 The essays in this book represent an up to date research and investigation into the various aspects of heritage and sustainability in the Islamic Built environments with an analysis of the problems that these cities face as they confront the forces of globalization and new development The authors in the book aim to the need for knowledge and understanding of Islamic society which is crucial for comprehending their rich architectural heritage and urban form with their intended meanings and uses The book embraces a wide array of principles strategies and precedents that are instrumental to the design of cities and communities in Islamic regions in order to sustain their cultural and environmental vitality The subject matter in this book will provide an important body of knowledge not only to the design professionals and students of architecture and planning but also includes useful information across disciplines such as social sciences planning urban geography and more Dipterocarp Forest Ecosystems Andreas Schulte, Dieter Hans-Friedrich Sch[ne], 1996 The Dipterocarp forests of South East Asia constitute a dominant component of the world s tropical forests As such they are intertwined with a Pandora s box of problems that have plagued the world for decades Over and underdevelopment poverty hunger population growth exploitation of natural resources environmental degradation loss of biodiversity the debt crisis and of late climate change The world community has responded to the crucial role of these forests and the dangers facing them with funds and a myriad of programmers projects institutions conferences and networks Apparently neither a lack of knowledge nor finance constrains the dissipation of sustainable management practices the fate of the world s Dipterocarp forests will certainly depend on the involvement of scientists from many nations and disciplines but will perhaps ultimately rest with local policymakers forest administrators and line foresters Unfortunately these two groups rarely share realms readings or reasoning practical foresters invariably very involved with the challenges of day to day forest management in remote isolated environments may long remain oblivious to scientific developments Traditionally though they do find solutions to problems gain deep insights into forest responses and practical constraints and sometimes even report in semi obscure publications which rarely reach the scientific circuit The editors of the book both experienced forest and soil scientists and practical forest managers have attempted to bridge the gap between the realms of forest science and practice in Dipterocarp ecology management and utilization

The Top Books of the Year Restoring Reconstructing The Malay Timber House The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Restoring Reconstructing The Malay Timber House : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Restoring Reconstructing The Malay Timber House : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
