Restructuring Early Childhood Education Michael F. Kelley, Elaine Surbeck, 1991 The first of six national educational goals proclaimed by President Bush to be accomplished by the year 2000 is that all children will start school ready to learn This booklet examines this goal in terms of what it will take to ensure that all children develop the capacities or readiness to be successful in school In the introduction it is asserted that for children and families to succeed in the lifelong process of learning early childhood experiences both in and out of the home must be as personalized as possible The first chapter looks at the early childhood years and the concept of school readiness The second chapter explains why restructuring rather than reform of early childhood education is needed A framework for providing comprehensive intervention services is discussed in the third chapter The fourth chapter profiles programs in Missouri Minnesota and California that seek to broaden the role of schools in early childhood education The fifth chapter examines curriculum issues intrinsic to a restructuring of early childhood education The sixth chapter deals with appropriate methods for child assessment In a concluding section it is argued that services for children and families be coordinated and that early childhood education be restructured to become personalized and family centered HTH

Restructuring an Urban High School Donn Weinholtz, 1991 This booklet challenges assumptions about the hopelessness of educational reform in urban high schools by presenting the stories of 1 TheodoreSizer's Coalition of Essential Schools and 2 Metro High School in Cedar Rapids Iowa a school that participates in the Coalition Following an introduction the Coalition of Essential Schools program is described including a listing of nine common principles for the Coalition of Essential Schools and data on attendance academic performance discipline and the pursuit of higher education the success of Coalition schools is indicated Another section describes the experiences the students the school climate and the faculty of Metro High School which joined the Coalition in 1985 A section on the school administrators describes what was originally supervision by three lead teachers and the current on site principal who functions much as a lead teacher A section on academics describes a curriculum that has focused on basic skills and practical electives with an increasing emphasis on accelerated academic coursework in recent years Also described are Metro High School's vocademics program which helps students explore career choices and a report of data indicating positive outcomes at this school A concluding section offers reflections on the Metro High School experience and final thoughts Fourteen references are included JB

The Portfolio Approach to Assessment Emily Grady,1992 The shortcomings of standardized testing as the predominant form of student assessment in the United States are reviewed and the use and potential benefits of portfolio assessment are explored Children s educational experiences and their future job prospects and standards of living are being decided by test scores Moreover these test scores may be unfair or biased against some students Instead of more tests we need a new attitude toward assessment one that encourages a variety of assessments Portfolio assessment through collections of student works can be an encompassing format for this new philosophy Before considering what a portfolio should contain it is important to establish the purpose of the assessment The experiences of Vermont illustrate the development of a portfolio assessment with consistent standards Examples of guidelines for mathematics and language arts portfolios make it clear that it is possible to establish consistent practices It is also necessary to reflect on the portfolio occasionally using self evaluations and direct questions or profiles Educators also find portfolios useful tools for preservice teachers Portfolio assessment can be the framework for a new curricular structure that integrates assessment into the learning loop SLD A Primer on Attention Deficit Disorder Beth Fouse,Suzanne Brians,1993 Brief description of AAD for parents and educators Middle School Teaching Richard Dean Kellough,Noreen G. Kellough,David L. Hough,1993 Win-win Discipline Jack Blendinger,1993 Focuses on key steps for quickly establishing good classroom discipline Restructuring Beginning Reading with the Reading Recovery Approach Gay Su Pinnell,1991 Suggesting that Reading Recovery belongs on the restructuring agenda of American education this booklet introduces educators and others to how Reading Recovery works how teachers are trained to use the program and how it can be implemented in a school or district Sections of the booklet are Introduction Overview of Reading Recovery How Reading Recovery Works Personnel Roles in Reading Recovery Getting Started and Reading Recovery as a Systematic Intervention RS
