Resurrection Theological And Scientific Assessments:

Resurrection Ted Peters, Robert J. Russell, Michael Welker, 2002 A team of scientists and theologians from both sides of the Atlantic explore the Christian concept of bodily resurrection in light of the views of contemporary science Whether it be the Easter resurrection of Jesus or the promised new life of individual believers the authors argue that resurrection must be conceived as embodied and that our bodies cannot exist apart from their worldly environment Yet nothing in today's scientific disciplines supports the possibility of either bodily resurrection or the new creation of the universe at large Bridging such disciplines as physics biology neuroscience philosophy biblical studies and theology Resurrection offers fascinating reading to anyone interested in this vital Christian belief or in the intersection of faith and scientific thought

The Oxford Handbook of Eschatology Jerry L. Walls, 2007-12-03 Eschatology is the study of the last things death judgment the afterlife and the end of the world Through centuries of Christian thought from the early Church fathers through the Middle Ages and the Reformation these issues were of the utmost importance In other religions too eschatological concerns were central After the Enlightenment though many religious thinkers began to downplay the importance of eschatology which in light of rationalism came to be seen as something of an embarrassment The twentieth century however saw the rise of phenomena that placed eschatology back at the forefront of religious thought From the rapid expansion of fundamentalist forms of Christianity with their focus on the end times to the proliferation of apocalyptic new religious movements to the recent and very public debates about suicide martyrdom and paradise in Islam interest in eschatology is once again on the rise In addition to its popular resurgence in recent years some of the world's most important theologians have returned eschatology to its former position of prominence The Oxford Handbook of Eschatology will provide an important critical survey of this diverse body of thought and practice from a variety of perspectives biblical historical theological philosophical and cultural This volume will be the primary resource for students scholars and others interested in questions of our ultimate existence

Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant, 2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior

Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Science Philip Clayton, Zachary Simpson, 2006 The field of science and religion is exploding in popularity among both academics and the reading public This is a comprehensive and authoritative introduction to the debate written by the leading experts yet accessible to the general reader

Desire, Gift, and Recognition Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2009-02-15 A major work in the philosophy of religion this book interprets the Jesus story in terms of postmodern philosophy particularly using Jacques Derrida's categories of desire gift and recognition Author Jan Olav Henriksen also attempts to reformulate Christology without resorting to such metaphysical concepts as substance transcendence etc While not denying traditional doctrines Henriksen explicates the meaning of Jesus life and death in ways that engage contemporary philosophy and challenge contemporary academic Christians to rethink the basics of their faith and he outlines the possibility of a post metaphysical Christology Henriksen's book is a clearly reasoned guide not only to the argument that Christology still has something to say to contemporary believers but also to ways in which theologians must learn to reconnect to everyday human experience

The Blackwell Companion to Catholicism James J. Buckley, Frederick C. Bauerschmidt, Trent Pomplun, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to Catholicism offers an extensive survey of the history doctrine practices and global circumstances of Roman Catholicism written by a range of distinguished and experienced Catholic writers Engages its readers in an informed and informative conversation about Roman Catholic life and thought Embraces the local and the global the past and the present life and the afterlife and a broad range of institutions and activities Considers both what is distinctive about Catholic life and thought and how Catholicism overlaps with and transforms other ways of thinking and living Topics covered include peacemaking violence and wars money the vow of poverty and socio economic life art by and about Catholics and men women and sex

Eccentricity in Anthropology Stephen R. Milford, 2019-06-07 Eccentricity in Anthropology brings into conversation a constructive critical interpretation of David Kelsey's Eccentric Existence with a central yet often overlooked debate in theological anthropology the substantive relational imago Dei Milford's work explores new insights into human identity and dignity In particular he demonstrates the value of an alternate constructive of humanity in the image of God This construction utilizes an interpretation of Kelsey's anthropological formula so as to describe human identity as part of the created order in terms of its myriad features which are externally rooted Eccentricity in Anthropology demonstrates that an alternate approach to this debate is possible and that one can combine important aspects of both substantive and relational thinking As such Milford's work is an important contribution to studies in the doctrine of the imago Dei Taking Eccentric Existence's invitation to act as a springboard for further debate seriously it presents one possible fruitful use of Kelsey's work to address theological anthropological questions In a very real sense this book is both a discussion in systematic theology and at the same time a work in contemporary historical theology

Theodicy and

Justice in Modern Islamic Thought Mr Ibrahim M Abu-Rabi,2013-06-28 This book explores the theology and philosophy of the distinguished modern Muslim scholar and theologian Bediuzzaman Said Nursi d 1960 Nursi wrote in both Ottoman Turkish and Arabic and his life and thought reflected the transition of modern Turkey from an empire to a secular republic The contributors to this volume shed new light on two major dimensions of Nursi s thought theodicy and justice Classical Muslim theologians debated these two important issues however we must consider the modern debate of these issues in the context of the radical political and social transformations of modern Turkey Nursi explored these matters as they related to the development of state and society and the crisis of Islam in the modern secular nation state Nursi is the founder of a faith movement in contemporary Turkey with millions of followers worldwide In this book distinguished scholars in Islamic Middle Eastern and Turkish Studies explore Nursi s thought on theodicy and justice in comparison with a number of western philosophers theologians and men of letters such as Dante Merton Kant and Moltman This book presents an invaluable resource for studies in comparative religion philosophy and Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies Hope and Community

Veli-Matti Karkkainen,2017-10-23 The culmination of K rkk inen s multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book K rkk inen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church s missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities How Does God Act in the World?

David Wilkinson,2025-05-29 Does God act in the world and if God does then how These questions are central questions for Christian theology and Christian mission and ministry Is God simply a creator who then goes on holiday and leaves the universe to develop or is God the one who is embodied in Jesus the God of signs and wonders death and resurrection And what does this mean for signs and wonders today in the life of individuals and local churches From The Simpsons to a wedding in Cana from grace to quantum theory and from the problem of evil to eschatology David Wilkinson argues that the biblical picture of a God who acts in the world makes sense in the light of modern science but how God acts cannot be reduced to simple models Theology of the Soul

Martine C. L. Oldhoff,2024-06-10 Theology of the Soul engages with a thoroughly theological and philosophical subject in fresh and profound ways the soul The author examines the possibility of a concept of the soul in modern Western theology In the second part of the 20th century speaking about the soul was strongly criticized in Theology and Philosophy Consequently many academic theologians consider the word soul problematic Remarkably the word soul is very much present in contemporary culture This book takes cultural notions of the soul as employed by for example Marilynne Robinson and Oprah Winfrey as a point of departure The author then investigates the functions of the soul in classical theologies and provides elucidating overviews of the ways in which the soul is discussed and problematized in contemporary Philosophy and Biblical Studies After introducing the apostle Paul as conversation partner she reconsiders various contemporary concepts from a Pauline perspective and offers a constructive systematic theological proposal to speak of the soul in today's modern theological and cultural contexts This interdisciplinary study integrates continental and analytic methods and discussions on the soul in Philosophy and Theology providing a very comprehensive study of the soul

The Work of the Spirit Michael Welker, 2006 This book is the result of a consultation entitled Pneumatology exploring the work of the Spirit from contemporary perspectives held in New York City in November 2004 Acknowledgments

Christian Eschatology and the Physical Universe David Wilkinson, 2010-05-27 Does matter matter The scientific picture of the end of the physical Universe has undergone dramatic changes since the turn of the 21st century with its future characterized by accelerated expansion and futility Yet Christian theology has been largely silent on this despite the interest in eschatology in popular culture and in theology itself What can Christian theology learn from and contribute to the scientific picture of the future of the Universe Can the biblical narratives of creation and new creation have a fruitful dialogue with scientific discoveries David Wilkinson shows what a fruitful dialogue this can be Critiquing the folk eschatology of the Left Behind series the misguided faith of the scientific optimists and the lack of scientific engagement of the theologians of hope Wilkinson argues for a rediscovery of the theological theme of new creation and the centrality of bodily resurrection

The New Testament in Its First Century Setting Bruce W. Winter, 2004

Body, Soul, and Human Life (Studies in Theological Interpretation) Joel B. Green, 2008-07-01 Are humans composed of a material body and an immaterial soul This view is commonly held by Christians yet it has been undermined by recent developments in neuroscience Exploring what Scripture and theology teach about issues such as being in the divine image the importance of community sin free will salvation and the afterlife Joel Green argues that a dualistic view of the human person is inconsistent with both science and Scripture This wide ranging discussion is sure to provoke much thought and debate Bestselling books have explored the relationship between body mind and soul Now Joel Green provides us with a biblical perspective on these issues

The Economy of Salvation Matthew Charlton, Timothy R Eberhart, Jurgen Moltmann, 2016-03-31 Over the last four decades the focus of M Douglas Meeks's work has placed him at the centre of many of the most important developments in theological reflection and education As a political ecclesial and metaphorical theologian Meeks has given witness to the oikonomia of the triune God the Homemaker who creates the conditions of Home for the whole of creation in critical conversation with contemporary economic social and political theory The essays of this volume were written to honour Meeks

Cal Turner Chancellor Professor Emeritus of Theology at Vanderbilt University Divinity School by addressing the theme of God's economy of salvation from biblical historical ecclesial and theological perspectives In an age of ecological devastation and economic injustice Meeks teaches us how to place our hope as disciples of Jesus as members of local congregations as stewards of institutional life and as global citizens in God's power for life over death through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. These essays will serve to enliven and clarify this hope for the sake of the world God so loves.

Who is Jesus Christ for Us Today? Andreas Schuele, Günter Thomas, 2009-01-01. In this cutting edge collection of essays an extraordinary and diverse group of biblical scholars, theologians and ethicists from around the world offer perspectives on topics such as the New Testament portraits of Jesus of Nazareth and their reception history; interpretative efforts to understand the central claim that Christ became human; the consequences of the incarnation for our understanding of the variegated nature of humankind; i.e. what is the body into which Christ incarnated and the impact of Christ's humanity on the transformation of the human world.

Cross Narratives Neal J. Anthony, 2010-06-01. Luther's radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ and specifically its expression through the ubiquitous presence of the humanity of Christ is a fundamental integral expression of that same theology. This expression of Luther's theology of the cross, Anthony asserts, provides both a fuller elaboration and an important and creative corrective with reference to recent signal expressions of the theology of the cross. As contemporary theologians of the cross have articulated, most notably Douglas John Hall and the late Alan E. Lewis, the theology of the cross through a transformation of the divine attributes that honors the integrity of created beings is preeminently a theology of redemption from within, within redemption. In the process of outlining and analyzing these theologies of within redemption, Anthony exposes an impasse created by these theologies regarding the relationship of within redemption to individual human narratives. It is through Luther's radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ, Anthony contends, that complete within redemption can be expressed. Anthony also evaluates the Christology of Karl Barth from the perspective of his findings. Not only is Anthony's work an innovative and fresh application of Luther's Christology for contemporary discussions of the theology of the cross, but it places Luther's Christology at the cutting edge of contemporary discussions regarding the theology of the cross and its within redemption.

The Theology of Death Douglas Davies, 2008-07-31. The first part of the book is grounded in biblical issues and in historical and philosophical theology. It seeks to establish several schemes of death theology related, for example, to early Christianity's Jewish cultural milieu; to belief in Christ's resurrection and to Christology; to issues of millennial belief and to an emergent liturgical practice. The rise of notions of the soul in relation to medieval thought and practice and the place of death in reformation theology are both covered, as is the role of the nineteenth and twentieth century. Finally, the rise of biblical theology is considered, especially in the twentieth century. The second part of the book takes up several contemporary models of the theology of death. The first pursues a traditional acceptance of an otherworldly afterlife; the second explores worldly analysis of eternal life as a quality of contemporary existence devoid of any future state; the third develops the worldly model and considers a wider sense of self as a part of an ecological view of the world as a divine creation and explores the meaning of birth, life and death amidst a divine environment. The Theology of Death aims to offer some sharply defined schemes to focus thought in a Christian environment in which death, hell and heaven have almost lost their place The topic of hope is a key element and the book explores the birth and fostering of hope within Christian traditions

Engaging the Doctrine of Jesus (and Mary) Matthew Levering, 2025-03-10 The six chapters of this book focus upon Jesus conception and birth from a virgin his authoritative teaching his miracles his cross his resurrection and his ascension The purpose of the book is to articulate and defend the truth of these salvific mysteries as presented to us in Scripture In addition to conversing extensively with historical critical biblical scholarship the chapters make recourse to the theological tradition from the church fathers onward with Thomas Aquinas as a touchstone Levering seeks to make a case for believing in Jesus At the same time he shows how each of these mysteries is intimately linked with a truth about Mary the Mother of Jesus thus arguing for the integral relationship of Christology and Mariology Mary enacts the reception of the Lord by God's faithful people the New Adam never chooses to be without the New Eve in God's new covenant family The Christology offered in this book is therefore both attuned to historical studies of Jesus and Second Temple Judaism and at the same time deeply traditional in a contemporary Catholic and ecumenical way
