Barksdale,Jac L. Goldstucker,1995 The Buyer's Manual - National Retail Merchants Association National Retail Merchants Association. Merchandising Division,1937 Retail Business Market Research Handbook 2010 Richard Kendall Miller,Kelli D. Washington,2010 Merchants Manual of Advertising M. O. Blackmore,1921 Creditworthy Josh Lauer,2017-07-25 The first consumer credit bureaus appeared in the 1870s and quickly amassed huge archives of deeply personal information Today the three leading credit bureaus are among the most powerful institutions in modern life yet we know almost nothing about them Experian Equifax and TransUnion are multi billion dollar corporations that track our movements spending behavior and financial status This data is used to predict our riskiness as borrowers and to judge our trustworthiness and value in a broad array of contexts from insurance and marketing to employment and housing In Creditworthy the first comprehensive history of this crucial American institution Josh Lauer

explores the evolution of credit reporting from its nineteenth century origins to the rise of the modern consumer data industry By revealing the sophistication of early credit reporting networks Creditworthy highlights the leading role that commercial surveillance has played ahead of state surveillance systems in monitoring the economic lives of Americans Lauer charts how credit reporting grew from an industry that relied on personal knowledge of consumers to one that employs sophisticated algorithms to determine a person s trustworthiness Ultimately Lauer argues that by converting individual reputations into brief written reports and later credit ratings and credit scores credit bureaus did something more profound they invented the modern concept of financial identity Creditworthy reminds us that creditworthiness is never just about economic facts It is fundamentally concerned with and determines our social standing as an honest reliable profit generating person Once a Retailer, Always a Retailer: Excuse Me, Not For Me!!! DR.
