Social and Legal Theory in the Age of Decoloniality Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, 2018-06-08 Right from the enslavement era through to the colonial and contemporary eras Africans have been denied their human essence portrayed as indistinct from animals or beasts for imperial burdens Africans have been historically dispossessed and exploited Postulating the theory of global jurisprudential apartheid the book accounts for biases in various legal systems norms values and conventions that bind Africans while affording impunity to Western states Drawing on contemporary notions of animism transhumanism posthumanism and science and technology studies the book critically interrogates the possibility of a jurisprudence of anticipation which is attentive to the emergent New World Order that engineers human beings to become nonhumans while nonhumans become humans Connecting discourses on decoloniality with jurisprudence in the areas of family law environment indigenisation property migration constitutionalism employment and labour law commercial law and Ubuntu the book also juggles with emergent issues around Earth Jurisprudence ecocentrism wild law rights of nature Earth Court and Earth Tribunal Arguing for decoloniality that attends to global jurisprudential apartheid this tome is handy for legal scholars and practitioners social scientists civil society organisations policy makers and researchers interested in transformation decoloniality and Pan Africanism

England's Other Countrymen Onyeka Nubia, 2019-06-15 The Tudor period remains a source of timeless fascination with endless novels TV programmes and films depicting the period in myriad ways And yet our image of the Tudor era remains overwhelmingly white This ground breaking and provocative new book seeks to redress the balance revealing not only how black presence in Tudor England was far greater than has previously been recognised but that Tudor conceptions of race were far more complex than we have been led to believe Onyeka Nubia's original research shows that Tudors from many walks of life regularly interacted with people of African descent both at home and abroad revealing a genuine pragmatism towards race and acceptance of difference Nubia also rejects the influence of the Curse of Ham myth on Tudor thinking persuasively arguing that many of the ideas associated with modern racism are in fact relatively recent developments England's Other Countrymen is a bravura and eloquent forgotten history of diversity and cultural exchange and casts a new light on our own attitudes towards race

Not Out Of Africa Mary Lefkowitz, 2008-08-04 Not Out of Africa has sparked widespread debate over the teaching of revisionist history in schools and colleges Was Socrates black Did Aristotle steal his ideas from the library in Alexandria Do we owe the underlying tenets of our democratic civilisation to the Africans Mary Lefkowitz explains why politically motivated histories of the ancient world are being written and shows how Afrocentrist claims blatantly contradict the historical evidence Not Out of Africa is an important book that protects and argues for the necessity of historical truths and standards in cultural education For this new paperback edition Mary Lefkowitz has written an epilogue in which she responds to her critics and offers topics for further discussion She has also added supplementary notes a bibliography with suggestions for further reading and a glossary of names

African Homecoming Katharina Schramm, 2016-06-16 African Americans and others in the African diaspora have increasingly come home to Africa to visit the sites at which their ancestors were enslaved and shipped In this nuanced analysis of homecoming Katharina Schramm analyzes how a shared rhetoric of the Pan African family is produced among African hosts and Diasporan returnees and at the same time contested in practice She examines the varying interpretations and appropriations of significant sites e.g the slave forts events e.g Emancipation Day and discourses e.g repatriation in Ghana to highlight these dynamics From this she develops her notions of diaspora home homecoming memory and identity that reflect the complexity and multiple reverberations of these cultural encounters beyond the sphere of roots tourism

Afrocentrism Stephen Howe, 1999-08-17 For centuries racist colonial and Eurocentric bias has blocked or distorted knowledge of Africans their histories and cultures resulting in a counter mythology claiming the innate superiority of African descended peoples In this provocative study historian Stephen Howe challenges this Afrocentric rewriting of African history 16 photos Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Black Routes to Islam M.
