

An abstract painting featuring several figures in dynamic, expressive poses, rendered in a vibrant palette of reds, yellows, and blues. The figures are overlaid on a grid of thin, intersecting lines, creating a sense of movement and structure. The overall style is reminiscent of modernist or postmodernist art.

Accumulation in Post-Colonial Capitalism Iman Kumar Mitra, Ranabir Samaddar, Samita Sen, 2016-07-29 This volume looks at how accumulation in postcolonial capitalism blurs the boundaries of space institutions forms financial regimes labour processes and economic segments on one hand and creates zones and corridors on the other It draws our attention to the peculiar but structurally necessary coexistence of both primitive and virtual modes of accumulation in the postcolony From these two major inquiries it develops a new understanding of postcolonial capitalism The case studies in this volume discuss the production of urban spaces of capital extraction institutionalization of postcolonial finance capital gendering of work forms establishment of new forms of labour formation of and changes in caste and racial identities and networks and securitization and thereby confirm that no study of contemporary capitalism is complete without thoroughly addressing the postcolonial condition By challenging the established dualities between citizenship based civil society and welfare based political society exploring critically the question of colonial and postcolonial difference and foregrounding the material processes of accumulation against the culturalism of postcolonial studies this volume redefines postcolonial studies in South Asia and beyond It is invaluable reading for students and scholars of South Asian studies sociology cultural and critical
