Rethinking Education in the Age of Technology Allan Collins, Richard Halverson, 2018-04-13 How can schools make the most of both the technology and the learning potential of today's born digital students Allan Collins and Richard Halverson argue that new technologies have transformed our workplaces our lives and our culture and it is time that we take the next step to transform learning in and out of schools This book explains why and how today's educators policymakers and communities must adapt to provide all learners with access to the new learning tools of the 21st century From publisher's description

Rethinking Education and Poverty William G. Tierney, 2015-11 How can new ways of thinking about education improve the lives of poor students In Rethinking Education and Poverty William G Tierney brings together scholars from around the world to examine the complex relationship between poverty and education in the twenty first century International in scope this book assembles the best contemporary thinking about how education can mediate class and improve the lives of marginalized individuals In remarkably nuanced ways this volume examines education's role as both a possible factor in perpetuating and a tool for alleviating entrenched poverty Education has long been seen as a way out of poverty Some critics however argue that educational systems mask inequality and perpetuate cycles of poverty and wealth others believe that the innate resilience or intellectual ability of impoverished students is what allows those individuals to succeed Rethinking Education and Poverty grapples in turn with the ramifications of each possibility Throughout these compelling far reaching and provocative essays the contributors seek to better understand how local efforts to reduce poverty through education interact or fail to interact with international assessment efforts They take a broad historical view examining social economic and educational policies from the postWorld War II period to the end of the Cold War and beyond Although there is no simple solution to inequality this book makes clear that education offers numerous exciting possibilities for progress

Rethinking Education UNESCO, 2015-05-26 Economic growth and the creation of wealth have cut global poverty rates yet vulnerability inequality exclusion and violence have escalated within and across societies throughout the world Unsustainable patterns of economic production and consumption promote global warming environmental degradation and an upsurge in natural disasters Moreover while we have strengthened international human rights frameworks over the past several decades implementing and protecting these norms remains a challenge These changes signal the emergence of a new global context for learning that has vital implications for education Rethinking the purpose of education and the organization of learning has never been more urgent This book is inspired by a humanistic vision of education and development based on respect for life and human dignity equal rights social justice cultural diversity international solidarity and shared responsibility for a sustainable future It proposes that we consider education and knowledge as global common goods in order to reconcile the purpose and organization of education as a collective societal endeavour in a complex world

Rethinking Education Stephen Murgatroyd, 2011-10 This publication represents the first of a series of books that will

profile some of the forward thinking work being undertaken by leading education researchers and policy experts focused on transforming the face of public education and the future of Alberta The Co creating a Learning Alberta book series is a partnership with leading public policy thinkers and the Alberta Teachers Association that flows from the public lecture series called Learning our Way to the Next Alberta Since its inception in 2004 this lecture series has drawn over 5 000 participants and continues to push our thinking about the hopes and possibilities for the future of this province and is profiled at www.learningourway.ca In these public lectures three questions have come to dominate the conversations about the future of the Alberta What is the Alberta that the world needs to see What kind of Albertans do we need to become to get us there and How will leadership in learning help us become our best selves Rethinking Education Across Borders Uttam Gaulee,Shyam Sharma,Krishna Bista,2020-02-14 This book focuses on critical issues and perspectives concerning globally mobile students aspects that have grown in importance thanks to major geopolitical economic and technological changes around the globe i e in and across major origins and destinations of international students Over the past few decades the field of international higher education and scholarship has developed robust areas of research that guide current policy programs and pedagogy However many of the established narratives and wisdoms that dominate research agendas scope and foci have become somewhat ossified and are unable to reflect recent political upheavals and other changes e g the Brexit Trump era and Belt and Road Initiative that have disrupted a number of areas including mobility patterns and recruitment practices understanding and supporting students engagement of global mobile students with their local counterparts and the political economy of international education at large By re assessing established issues and perspectives in light of the emerging global local situations the contributing authors all experts on international education share insights on policies and practices that can help adapt to emerging challenges and opportunities for institutions scholars and other stakeholders in international higher education Including theoretical empirical and practitioner based methods and perspectives provided by scholars from around the world the book offers a unique and intriguing resource Rethinking Education in the Context of Post-Pandemic South Asia Uma Pradhan,Karen Valentin,Mohini Gupta,2023-06-20 This edited volume offers new analytical and methodological approaches to the study of education in the post pandemic educational context through case studies from countries in South Asia such as Bhutan India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka Crossing disciplinary and national boundaries to advance collaborative knowledge production in South Asian education the book explores how different colonial legacies religious orientations and positions in the global economy are played out in regional education systems In doing so this volume focuses on the educational challenges faced by the region to better understand South Asian society and the existing societal inequalities in the wake of COVID 19 The book highlights how the pandemic invites a re thinking of current ways of approaching educational research in hybrid forms and also opens up new areas of research ranging from pedagogical innovations to the well being of teachers and students Offering interdisciplinary perspectives on education in this unique context this timely book will be highly relevant to students researchers and academics in the fields of international and comparative education South Asian studies teacher education and education policy and politics Rethinking Education in Light of Global Challenges Karen Bjerg Petersen, Kerstin von Brömssen, Gro Helledatter Jacobsen, Jesper Garsdal, Michael Paulsen, Oleg Koefoed, 2021-11-24 Rethinking Education in Light of Global Challenges discusses challenges to education in Scandinavian welfare states due to global trends like migration neoliberal strategies and the exploitation of nature This anthology comprises case studies theoretical articles and reflective studies grouped under the headings of Culture Society and the Anthropocene This book directly addresses three interrelated global events and their implications for education as seen from Scandinavian perspectives migration flows increased cultural diversity and post nationalism the erosion of the welfare state and the global rise of neoliberalism and the Anthropocene and environmental challenges arising in the wake of the global exploitation of natural ecosystems In case studies theoretical articles and reflective studies researchers from Nordic countries explore how education education policy and educational thinking in these countries are affected by these global trends bringing to the fore the different roles education can play in addressing the various issues and different ways of reimagining education This authoritative volume will be of great interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of sociology of education migration and education environmental education and educational politics Rethinking Education in the Age of Technology Allan Collins, Richard Halverson, 2018 The digital revolution in education is well under way with more and more learners plugged into the online world How can schools make the most of both the technology and the learning potential of today's born digital students In this new edition of their groundbreaking book Collins and Halverson argue that new technologies have transformed our workplaces our lives and our culture and it is time we take the next step to transform learning in and out of schools The authors show how over time public schooling was so successful that it became synonymous with education But new technologies risk making schools obsolete and this book explains why and how today's educators policymakers and communities must adapt to provide all learners with access to the new learning tools of the 21st century Allan Collins and Richard Halverson are not by any means arguing that teachers or schools should go away Rather they are saying that they should open their doors and windows connect to other real and virtual places be crucial tour guides and send their children on flights of fancy through our modern memory palaces From the Foreword by James Paul Gee Arizona State University The most convincing account I've read about how education will change in the decades ahead the authors analyses are impressive fair minded and useful Howard Gardner Harvard Graduate School of Education from first edition Rethinking Education for Sustainable Development Radhika Iyengar, Ozge Karadag Caman, 2022-10-20 This book explores how education can be used as a tool to promote sustainability practices as the world faces huge challenges related to climate change and public health The chapters consider all types of literacy approaches that fall under the umbrella of Education for Sustainable Development ESD These approaches include scientific literacy ecological literacy health literacy education on climate change and climate resilience environmental education and others linking education global health and the environment more broadly Education is used in the widest sense to incorporate non formal informal and formal school settings This volume will help to bring these interconnected areas together and interrogate their research methods assumptions field based application and their policy potential Taking a critical approach to ESD the book suggests new pedagogies tools and technologies to strengthen the way we educate about sustainability issues and go beyond the current thinking about ESD The book includes a foreword by Jeffrey Sachs Director of the Center for Sustainable Development at Columbia University USA
