Rethinking Restructuring:

The Elgar Companion to Feminist Economics Janice Peterson, Margaret Lewis, 2001-01-01 Comprehensive reference work introducing readers to the field of feminist economics It addresses key concepts as well as feminist economic critiques and reconstructions of major economic theories and policy debates      Syntactic architecture and its consequences II András Bárány, Theresa Biberauer, Jamie Douglas , Sten Vikner , 2020-12-30 This volume collects novel contributions to comparative generative linguistics that rethink existing approaches to an extensive range of phenomena domains and architectural questions in linguistic theory At the heart of the contributions is the tension between descriptive and explanatory adequacy which has long animated generative linguistics and which continues to grow thanks to the increasing amount and diversity of data available to us The chapters address research questions in comparative morphosyntax including the modelling of syntactic categories relative clauses and demonstrative systems Many of these contributions show the influence of research by Ian Roberts and collaborators and give the reader a sense of the lively nature of current discussion of topics in morphosyntax and morphosyntactic variation      Educational Outcomes for the Canadian Workplace Jane Stobo Gaskell, Kjell Rubenson, 2004-01-01 Educational Outcomes for the Canadian Workplace explores how educational programs are changing which skills matter in the economy and how policy has responded to the educational and economic pressures of the 1990s      Beyond Service Greg McElligott, 2001-01-01 Greg McElligott traces neoconservative labour market policy from its international origins to the local offices of the Canadian state      Student Services Susan R. Komives, Dudley B. Woodard, Jr., 2003-06-17 Since it was first published in 1980 Student Services A Handbook for the Profession has become a classic reference in the field In the fourth edition of this important resource the contributors a stellar panel of student affairs scholars examine the changing context of the student experience in higher education the evolution of the role of student affairs professionals and the philosophies ethics and theories that guide the practice of student affairs work Comprehensive in scope this book covers a broad range of relevant topics including the development of student affairs legal and ethical foundations of student affairs practice student development learning and retention theories organizational theory dynamics of campus environments strategic planning and finance information technology in student affairs managing human resources multiculturalism teaching counseling and helping skills assessment and evaluation and new lessons from research on student outcomes      Soviet Railways to Russian Railways J. Westwood, 2001-12-02 In the postsoviet decade Russian railways remained highly centralised evaded the upheavals of mass privatisation and remained the backbone of a demoralised economy Preserving much of Soviet practice the Railways Ministry mounted a skilled rearguard action that achieved a gradual and considered adaptation to the market economy rather than the pell mell western orientated liberalisation that afflicted other branches of the economy This book describes that rearguard action and goes on to show how railway managers are coping with the new conditions      Decolonial Options in Higher Education Sinfree Makoni, Chanel van der

Merwe,2025-06-03 In order for decolonization to avoid becoming yet another orthodoxy this book argues that it is necessary to recognize the neoliberal ideologies and imperatives that drive so much work in universities in both the Global Norths and Global Souths and to understand the enmeshment both historical and ongoing of universities in colonial practices The chapters interrogate both these issues and the terms in which they are usually critiqued in order to identify the cracks and fissures within institutions that may enable decolonization to be leveraged as a praxis and a means of radical change The chapters explore a range of issues across Higher Education including reparations allyship soft power academic publishing and the politics of race within the university together they represent an argument for the necessity of continually rethinking and re making the theories methods and assumptions of decolonization      Changing Canada Wallace Clement, Leah F. Vosko,2003-03-03 Changing Canada examines political transformations welfare state restructuring international boundaries and contexts the new urban experience and creative resistance      Complex Inequality Leslie McCall,2002-06 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Employment and Deskillling Karun Kishor Karki,2025-09-22 This book examines the socio economic integration of skilled racialized immigrants in Canada Although many arrive with advanced education and professional credentials they often face significant barriers to securing meaningful employment and career advancement Central to the book are three interrelated areas of inquiry a deskilling and downward mobility b structural inequality in the labor market and c the gendered dimensions of deskilling Drawing on primary data the book investigates how the Canadian labor market continues to reproduce systemic inequalities despite its rhetoric of diversity and inclusion It offers policy recommendations to advance employment equity gender justice and inclusion of immigrants in the workforce This book is a vital resource for students scholars and practitioners and is especially well suited for graduate courses in the humanities and social sciences including labor studies sociology social work migration studies and gender studies      The Elephant in the Living Room Dimitri A. Christakis, Frederick J. Zimmerman,2006-08-22 Arguing that television is not necessarily harmful to children a guide for parents reveals how to use television as an effective tool for entertainment education and socialization in a reference that identifies top recommended shows as well as programs to avoid      Precarious Employment Leah F. Vosko,2006 Precarious Employment explores the nature and dynamics of precarious employment in contemporary Canada      Global Trade and Global Social Issues Annie Taylor, Caroline Thomas,2005-10-24 In Global Trade and Social Issues leading academics and NGO workers offer a much needed counterweight to the liberal consensus A critical reflection on the whole project of restructuring world trade this is essential reading for those working in international political economy development studies international relations and environmental studies      Women, Work and Inequality J. Gregory, R. Sales, A. Hegewisch,1999-04-30 Brings together academics lawyers trade unionists and industrial relations experts to provide an incisive analysis of the impact of globalisation and deregulation on gender inequality in employment It reviews the evolution of pay equity policies and examines the impact of economic and social trends on divisions between women      Surviving Globalism Ted Schrecker, 2016-07-27 Management consultant Kenichi Ohmae describes the new reality of global economic competition as a borderless world What is the future of human values and of environmental quality in such a world The authors whose work is collected in Surviving Globalism try to answer these questions from the point of view of sociology social history philosophy geography and political theory Many argue that the gains made over the last few decades in terms of social justice and environmental protection are in grave peril Others take a somewhat more optimistic note but all emphasize the importance of dealing with environmental and social policy against the background of a transforming global economy      Reconceptualising Professional Learning Tara Fenwick, Monika Nerland, 2014-03-14 This book presents leading edge perspectives and methodologies to address emerging issues of concern for professional learning in contemporary society The conditions for professional practice and learning are changing dramatically in the wake of globalization new modes of knowledge production new regulatory regimes and increased economic political pressures In the wake of this a number of challenges for learning emerge more practitioners become involved in interprofessional collaboration developments in new technologies and virtual workworlds emergence of transnational knowledge cultures and interrelated circuits of knowledge The space and time relations in which professional practice and learning are embedded are becoming more complex as are the epistemic underpinnings of professional work Together these shifts bring about intersections of professional knowledge and responsibilities that call for new conceptions of professional knowing Exploring what the authors call sociomaterial perspectives on professional learning they argue that theories that trace not just the social but also the material aspects of practice such as tools technologies texts but also bodies and actions are useful for coming to terms with the challenges described above Reconceptualising Professional Learning develops these issues through specific contemporary cases focused on one of the book's three main themes 1 professionals knowing in practice 2 professionals work arrangements and technologies or 3 professional responsibility Each chapter draws upon innovative theory to highlight the sociomaterial webs through which professional learning may be reconceptualised Authors are based in Australia Canada Italy Norway Sweden and the USA as well as the UK and their cases are based in a range of professional settings including medicine teaching nursing engineering social services the creative industries and more By presenting detailed accounts of these themes from a sociomaterial perspective the book opens new questions and methodological approaches These can help make more visible what is often invisible in today's messy dynamics of professional learning and point to new ways of configuring educational support and policy for professionals      The Oxford Handbook of Work and Organization Stephen Ackroyd, 2006 Aims to bring together present and discuss what is known about work and organizations and their connection to broader economic change in Europe and America This volume contains a range of theoretically informed essays which give comprehensive coverage of changes in work occupations and organizations      Beyond the Contract State John Spoehr, 1999 Beyond the Contract State challenges the foundations and effectiveness of economic rationalism It argues that privatisation and contracting out are undermining the capacity of government to meet longer term social and economic objectives      Global Feminist Politics Suki Ali,Kelly Coate,Wangui wa Goro,2000-03-23

Featuring an international panel of cutting edge feminist thinkers Global Feminist Politics examines the changing context for feminist political action its meaning and forms      Ethical Foundations for Educational Administration Eugenie Samier,2003-12-16 Christopher Hodgkinson is one of the most important contributors to the field of educational administration This collection of essays open up the philosophical foundations of ethical educational administration by reviewing his writings and exploring the ethical theories of major philosophers as they apply to administration and leadership Ethical Foundations of Educational Administration is published in honour of the work of Christopher Hodgkinson It is divided into two sections The first comprises biographical essays and a critical evaluation of Professor Hodgkinson s work focusing on his personal and intellectual contributions to a moral theory of educational administration and leadership The second section looks at how his moral philosophy can inform administrative practice The work of a broad range of philosophers is discussed from the pre 20th century theories of Aquinas Adam Smith and Kant to the pragmatists Peirce James and Dewey Heidegger MacIntyre Bourdieu Churchland and Thagard Christopher Hodgkinson s definition of administration as philosophy in action is now famous within the field This collection illustrates the essential truth of that maxim showing that moral philosophy approached in the spirit promoted by Hodgkinson has both practical and critical purpose when brought to bear upon educational administration and leadership
