Rethinking Society In The 21st Century Critical Readings In Sociology:

Rethinking Society in the 21st Century Michelle Webber, Kate Bezanson, 2012 Rethinking Society in the 21st Century is a unique collection of readings that fills a critical void in introductory sociology in Canada. The third edition has been thoroughly updated with 24 new chapters that complement the chapters retained from previous editions. Rethinking Society introduces students to the foundational elements of sociology with a balance of classical theory (Marx, Weber, Durkheim, Mills) and more contemporary approaches found in the work of Michel Foucault, Dorothy Smith, and George Sefa Dei. Building on this theoretical grounding, the text outlines core concepts in sociology: socialization, social interaction, and culture, as well as major social institutions such as families, the economy, and labour, education, and health care. Later sections address crime, moral regulation, race, class, age, gender, sexuality, and issues of population and globalization, with relevant and engaging chapters chosen to provoke thought and discussion. With a diverse selection of authors and a pronounced emphasis on Canadian content, Rethinking Society in the 21st Century is the ideal reader for Canadian students.

Rethinking Society in the 21st Century Michelle Webber, Kate Bezanson, 2016 This is a collection of readings designed for introductory sociology courses in Canada. The book includes sections on classical sociology with readings by seminal sociologists like Durkheim, Weber, and Mills, along with more contemporary readings on a diverse set of topics and issues.

Rethinking Society in the 21st Century, Fourth Edition Kate Bezanson, Michelle Webber, 2016-09-01 Rethinking Society in the 21st Century is a critical collection of readings that provides students with a foundational knowledge base in sociology. The fourth edition has been thoroughly updated to include significant Canadian content with a greater focus on indigeneity, gender, and sexuality, and a new section dedicated to social movements, social change, and emerging fields. This anthology introduces students to the fundamental elements of sociology with a balance of classical theory (Marx, Weber, Durkheim, Mills) and more contemporary approaches found in the works of Michel Foucault and Dorothy Smith. Building on this theoretical grounding, the text outlines core concepts in sociology as well as major social institutions such as families, the economy, and labour, education, health care, and media. Covering a wide breadth of topics, including chapters on animals, the environment, crime, trans issues, class, ethnicity, and race, this new edition explores critical debates in Canadian society with an emphasis on intersectional approaches to social inequalities. This volume is rich with pedagogical features that promote critical understanding, including detailed introductions that speak to the contextual history of the source material and discussion questions for each section. Uniquely designed for introductory courses, Rethinking Society in the 21st Century is the ideal reader for Canadian students of sociology.

Rethinking Social Epidemiology Patricia O'Campo, James R. Dunn, 2011-10-05 To date, much of the empirical work in social epidemiology has demonstrated the existence of health inequalities along a number of axes of social differentiation. However, this research in isolation will not inform effective solutions to health inequalities. Rethinking Social Epidemiology provides an expanded vision of social epidemiology as a science of change one that seeks to better address key questions related to both the causes of social inequalities in health problem focused research as well as the implementation of interventions to alleviate conditions of marginalization and poverty solution focused research This book is ideally suited for emerging and practicing social epidemiologists as well as graduate students and health professionals in related disciplines Canadian Society in the Twenty-First Century, Fourth Edition Trevor W. Harrison, John W. Friesen, 2021-03-03 Confederation may have established Canada's nationhood in 1867 but the relationships framing Canada's modern existence go back much further Employing a unique socio historical perspective Canadian Society in the Twenty First Century examines three formative relationships that have shaped the country Canada and Quebec Canada and the United States and Canada and Indigenous nations Now in its fourth edition this engaging text offers students an overview of Canadian society through a series of connections rather than a collection of statistics Trevor W Harrison and John W Friesen weave together complex aspects of the nation's economic political and socio cultural development They guide readers to use this interdisciplinary framework to consider some of the tough questions that Canada is likely to face in adjusting to demands and challenges in the next few decades Reflecting the most current scholarship in the field this revised edition features new discussions on issues such as the current crisis of neo liberal globalization Canada's petroleum industry global warming the Wet suwet en dispute in 2020 and the COVID 19 pandemic Exploring the unique character of Canada today this text is a vibrant resource for sociology courses on Canadian society as well as courses in Canadian studies and Canadian history Global Child Myriam Denov, Claudia Mitchell, Marjorie Rabiau, 2023-01-13 Armed conflicts continue to wreak havoc on children and families around the world with profound effects In 2017 420 million children nearly one in five were living in conflict affected areas an increase in 30 million from the previous year The recent surge in war induced migration referred to as a global refugee crisis has made migration a highly politicized issue with refugee populations and host countries facing unique challenges We know from research related to asylum seeking families that it is vital to think about children and families in relation to what it means to stay together what it means for parents to be separated from their children and the kinds of everyday tensions that emerge in living in dangerous insecure and precarious circumstances In Global Child the authors draw on what they have learned through their collaborative undertakings and highlight the unique features of participatory arts based and socio ecological approaches to studying war affected children and families demonstrating the collective strength as well as the limitations and ethical implications of such research Building on work across the Global South and the Global North this book aims to deepen an understanding of their tri pillared approach and the potential of this methodology for contributing to improved practices in working with war affected children and their families Gender, Sex, and Sexuality among Contemporary Youth Patricia Neff Claster, Sampson Lee Blair, 2017-11-27 This volume examines the evolving norms concerning sex gender and sexuality in the lives of children and adolescents addressing topics such as the development of gender identity sexual behavior among youth LGBT youth transgender youth parental and peer influences upon the development of gender and gender identity and dating violence

Case Critical Ben Carniol, 2005 A classic text in social work education Case Critical opens the door on Canada's social services from the perspective of social workers themselves and service users or cases people whose voices we rarely hear This completely revised and updated fifth edition includes new interviews and topics of discussion to reinforce Carniol's passionate case for social work as liberation practice

Baltimore Revisited P. Nicole King, Kate Drabinski, Joshua Clark Davis, 2019-08-09 Nicknamed both Mobtown and Charm City and located on the border of the North and South Baltimore is a city of contradictions From media depictions in The Wire to the real life trial of police officers for the murder of Freddie Gray Baltimore has become a quintessential example of a struggling American city Yet the truth about Baltimore is far more complicated and more fascinating To help untangle these apparent paradoxes the editors of Baltimore Revisited have assembled a collection of over thirty experts from inside and outside academia Together they reveal that Baltimore has been ground zero for a slew of neoliberal policies a place where inequality has increased as corporate interests have eagerly privatized public goods and services to maximize profits But they also uncover how community members resist and reveal a long tradition of Baltimoreans who have fought for social justice The essays in this collection take readers on a tour through the city's diverse neighborhoods from the Lumbee Indian community in East Baltimore to the crusade for environmental justice in South Baltimore Baltimore Revisited examines the city's past reflects upon the city's present and envisions the city's future

Play Nicholas Taylor,Gerald Voorhees,2018-10-06 This volume addresses the persistent and frequently toxic associations between masculinity and games It explores many of the critical issues in contemporary studies of masculinity including issues of fatherhood homoeroticism eSports fan cultures and militarism and their intersections with digital games the contexts of their play and the social futures associated with sustained involvement in gaming cultures Unlike much of the research and public discourse that put the onus of fixing games and gaming cultures on those at its margins women LGBTQ and people of color this volume turns attention to men and masculinities offering vital and productive avenues for both practical and theoretical intervention Identity Work in the Contemporary University Jan Smith,Julie Rattray,Tai Peseta,Daphne

Loads,2015-12-24 Academic identities research is a growing area of scholarly enquiry especially as academics themselves question the evolving nature of their roles in rapidly changing university environments Performative frameworks in many countries around the world reflect these changes and this volume brings a number of disciplinary perspectives to bear on how we understand the lived experiences of academic life in a global context Contributors explore the power of conceptual tools drawn from Philosophy Psychology Sociology and Politics to challenge increasingly instrumental neoliberal political approaches to higher education supported by empirical evidence Worthwhile teaching learning and research require significant personal investment and the book pays particular attention to the deeply affective dimensions of current academic practices In Part One tools to conceptualise academic identity work drawn from foundational academic disciplines are applied to contemporary higher education practices Part Two foregrounds how working in universities today proceeds with a particular focus on how academics respond to the multiplicity of institutional demands The most pressing perceived demand supported by contributions in Part Three is publication the need to be visible to count is now a global imperative with the affective dimensions not yet well understood at policy level In Part Four those who support colleagues negotiating a reconfigured academic terrain explore productive approaches towards this task to ensure that academic practice remains rooted in the values previously outlined This book will be of interest to those working in universities globally who seek a deeper appreciation of the contextual drivers that shape academic work

Voices of Resilience Pam O'Connor, Jaya Earnest, 2011-10-29 This book presents the results of a study that examined the multiple layers of stigma and discrimination experienced by women infected and affected by HIV AIDS in a low socio economic area of Mumbai India Using exploratory qualitative methods and underpinned by the psychosocial framework and gendered perspectives the study attempts to represent the voices of affected and infected women The book first focuses on a global overview of HIV presents data on the Indian context and provides a synthesis of HIV in relation to stigma discrimination and gender The second part of the book probes the depth of impact on women's lives using the lenses of gender economic status the environment and physical health The framework was further modified and extended to include threats revealed by and strengths identified in infected and affected women The analysis revealed that strategies to address stigma and discrimination need to address the social cultural religious and systemic barriers to changing attitudes The book portrays the resilience of each woman's spirit and the unique capacity of the women to cope to find strength to pursue life and to maintain hope when their dreams and the dreams of their children have been shattered through HIV AIDS

Spirituality, Education & Society Njoki N. Wane, Energy L. Manyimo, Eric J. Ritskes, 2011-10-29 Spirituality education and society An integrated approach argues the value of spirituality in education as a way to address the lived experiences and personal knowledge of students with the goal of creating a more holistic transformative educational process This edited volume has a wide array of viewpoints which all point to the importance of spirituality in the authors' personal lives their communities and society at large Spirituality is conceptualised as a base from which to challenge dominant forms of knowing while in the process being able to center and engage with an important aspect of the student that has been missing from current evaluations their spiritual selves Within the diversity of this volume it becomes evident that spirituality cannot be confined to a singular definition and that educators must be willing to create spaces to foster spiritual growth and exploration if we are to break away from the commoditized disempowering system that is so dominant today This edited collection is a valuable resource for students practitioners educators and administrators who wish to engage in transformational schooling Its multidisciplinary approach engages ideas around critical pedagogy sociology of education and inclusive schooling There is an increasing need for exploring novel paradigms of studying education in the context of the dynamics that straddle social economic and technological processes that have come to characterize the world in recent years This book is a timely contribution in this respect as its focus transcends hitherto applied approaches that depend largely on western orientation The book breaks new grounds in studying education and society that find significant relevance in societies that are marginalized by the dominant western understanding The authors draw from the rich heritage of spirituality that is akin to the non western social paradigms to develop a rigorous but creative concept of schooling I am sure practitioners researchers and students of education will find it a valuable source of practical and theoretical information that would widen their horizon of understanding of sociology of education Tom Mongare Ndege PhD Moi University Kenya The editors have compiled a brilliant collection of essays Each piece of scholarly work shows how spirituality is a paramount part of our everyday lives and is connected to teaching learning living and healing This is a timely and most relevant work that is sure to spur critical dialogue and discussion This collection shows that while the spirit may be wounded it can never be broken Erica Neeganagwedgin PhD University of Toronto
