Rethinking Technologies:

Rethinking Technologies Verena Andermatt Conley, Ecopolitics Verena Andermatt Conley, 2006-07-13 Ecopolitics is a study of environmental awareness or non awareness in contemporary French theory Arguing that it is now impossible not to think in an ecological way Verena Andermatt Conley traces the roots of today s concern for the environment back to the intellectual climate of the late 50s and 60s The author considers key texts by influential figures such as Michael Serres Paul Virilio Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari Michel de Certeau H l ne Cixous and Luce Irigaray Ecopolitics rehabilitates some ecological components of French intellectual thought of the past thirty years and reassesses French poststructural thinkers who explicitly deal with ecology in their work Virtual Geographies Mike Crang, Phil Crang, Jon May, 2013-04-15 This book examines the interrelationship between telecommunications and tourism in shaping the nature of space place and the urban at the end of the twentieth century They discuss how these agents are instrumental in the production of homogenous world spaces and how htese in turn presuppose new kinds of political and cultural identity Virtual Geographies explores how new communication technologies are being used to produce new geographies and new types of space Leading contributors from a wide range of disciplines including geography sociology philosophy and literature investigate how visions of cyberspace have been constructed offer a critical assessment of the status of virtual environments and geographies explore how virtual environments reshape the way we think and write about the world This book sets recent technological developments in a historical and geographical perspective to offer a clearer view of the new vistas ahead The End of Reading David Trend, 2010 Big changes have been taking place in reading in recent years While American society has become more visual and digital the general state of literacy in America is in crisis with educators and public officials worried about falling educational standards the rising influence of popular culture and growing numbers of non English speaking immigrants But how justified are these worries By focusing on reading this book takes a serious look at public literacy but chooses not to blame the familiar scapegoats Instead The End of Reading proposes that in a diverse and rapidly changing society we need to embrace multiple definitions of what it means to be a literate person The Oxford Handbook of Improvisation in Dance Vida L. Midgelow, 2019-02-21 From the dance floor of a tango club to group therapy classes from ballet to community theatre improvised dance is everywhere For some dance artists improvisation is one of many approaches within the choreographic process For others it is a performance form in its own right And while it has long been practiced it is only within the last twenty years that dance improvisation has become a topic of critical inquiry With The Oxford Handbook of Improvisation in Dance dancer teacher and editor Vida L Midgelow provides a cutting edge volume on dance improvisation in all its facets Expanding beyond conventional dance frameworks this handbook looks at the ways that dance improvisation practices reflect our ability to adapt communicate and respond to our environment Throughout the handbook case studies from a variety of disciplines showcase the role of individual agency and collective relationships in improvisation not just to dancers but to people of all backgrounds and abilities In doing so chapters celebrate all forms of improvisation and unravel the ways that this kind of movement informs understandings of history socio cultural conditions lived experience cognition and technologies

Education in Cyberspace Ray Land,2004-11-02 The use of online learning environments is now widespread and there is a wealth of literature providing practical advice on how to teach online develop courses and ensure effective pedagogical practice What has been frequently overlooked is the insight offered by cyberspace theory which considers broader social cultural and theoretical contexts within which new technologies and learning models are situated This book provides a fresh perspective on current thinking in e learning It challenges orthodox assumptions about the role of technology in the teaching and learning of the future and explores more varied and wider reaching conceptual frameworks for learning in cyberspace Featuring the contributions of respected and experienced experts with a wide range of perspectives Education in Cyberspace will be valued by anyone closely involved in the theory of e learning and education

Bridging People and Sound Mitsuko Aramaki,Richard Kronland-Martinet,Sølvi Ystad,2017-09-15 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post conference of the 12th International Symposium on Computer Music Modeling and Retrieval CMMR 2016 held in S o Paulo Brazil in July 2016 The 22 full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 40 submissions This year s conference theme Bridging People and Sound aimed at encouraging contributions from artists and listeners on the one side and audio and music technology researchers on the other

Artistic Research Paulo de Assis,Lucia D'Errico,2019-11-13 Artistic Research Charting a Field in Expansion provides a multidisciplinary overview of different discourses and practices exploring cutting edge questions from the burgeoning field of artistic research Intended as a primer on artistic research it presents diverse perspectives strategies methodologies and concrete examples of research projects situated at the crossroads of art and academia exposing international work of significant projects from Europe Asia Australia South and North America The book includes chapters on diverse fields of thought and practice addressing a common thread of questions and problematics The comprehensive editors introduction offers a much needed extensive overview of practice based artistic research in general This book is ideal for graduate students across philosophy cultural studies art music performance studies and more

Deconstructing International Politics Michael Dillon,2013 Michael Dillon is internationally regarded for his contributions by political philosophers international relations scholars and security studies experts as well as by philosophers more broadly It is difficult to overrate his importance to the development of critical deconstructive approaches not only in challenging traditional scholarship and addressing contemporary politics but in articulating new approaches and new thinking This book draws together some of his key works and is framed by an introduction written specially for the volume It is the first full length work to draw on the insights and techniques of deconstruction to analyse international relations Influenced primarily by Derrida it critiques the cornerstones of international relations such as modernity the state the subject security and ethics and justice This volume will provide an invaluable resource for teaching at undergraduate and postgraduate levels on traditional international relations courses and on the increasing number of specialised courses in critical approaches Well designed and structured it is accessible to the novice as well as challenging for the specialist Business & Sustainability Gabriel Eweje, Martin Perry, 2011-12-06 This volume aims to assist readers to navigate the conceptual maze surrounding discussions of business and sustainability by offering critical reflection on the state of business action for environmental sustainability and providing evidence about what is actually taking place in real localities and businesses Information Please Mark Poster, 2006-08-30 Mark Poster considers how new media from TiVO to digital file sharing affects society and he traces its implications for cultural theory and progressive political change Controversies in Local Economic Development Martin Perry, 2010-07-02 Efforts to promote the economic development of individual localities engage the attention of academics students and professionals Many such analysts argue that competitive advantage can be fostered within local economies complimenting the advent of a more globalised economy Intensified efforts to build new economic foundations show no sign of abating despite the apparent increase in the international mobility of businesses and employment Unpicking the arguments supporting different strategies for promoting local economic development Controversies in Local Economic Development is an introductory guide to some of the major ideas and policy tools that have influenced academic debate and development practice Taking the view that economic processes are mechanisms that promote desired outcomes only in particular contexts the book asks questions of both academic debates and the prescriptions of policy experts Felix Guattari Gary Genosko, 2002-08-01 This is the first detailed assessment of the life and work of Felix Guattari Mr Anti as the French press labelled him the friend of and collaborator with Gilles Deleuze Jacques Lacan and Antonio Negri and one of the 20th Century s last great activist intellectuals Guattari is widely known for his celebrated writings with Deleuze but these writings do not represent the true breadth and impact of his thinking writing and activism Guattari s major work as a clinical and theoretical innovator in psychoanalysis was closely linked to his participation in struggles against European right wing politics Felix Guattari introduces the reader to the diversity and sheer range of Guattari s interests from anti psychiatry to Japanese culture political activism and his theorizing of subjectification Highlighting why Guattari s work is of increasing relevance to contemporary political psychoanalytical and philosophical thought Felix Guattari An Aberrant Introduction presents the reader with an adventurous and provocative introduction to this radical thinker Internet Culture David Porter, 2013-09-13 The internet has recently grown from a fringe cultural phenomenon to a significant site of cultural production and transformation Internet Culture maps this new domain of language politics and identity locating it within the histories of communication and the public sphere Internet Culture offers a critical interrogation of the sustaining myths of the virtual world and of the implications of the current mass migration onto the electronic frontier Among the topics discussed in Internet Culture are the virtual spaces and places created by the citizens of the Net and their claims to the hotly contested notion of virtual community the virtual bodies that occupy such spaces and the desires that animate these bodies The contributors also examine the communication medium behind the worlds of the Net analyzing the rhetorical conventions governing online discussion literary antecedents and potential pedagogical applications Theatre, Performance and Analogue Technology Kara Reilly, 2013-10-22 This trans historical collection explores analogue performance technologies from Ancient Greece to pre Second World War From ancient mechanical elephants to early modern automata Enlightenment electrical experiments to Victorian spectral illusions this volume offers an original examination of the precursors of contemporary digital performance Stan Brakhage David James, 2011-01-19 The art and legacy of a towering figure in the independent film movement Travels in Time Astrid Erll, Professor of Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Astrid Erll, 2025-02-28 In Travels in Time Astrid Erll addresses the question of how collective memory emerges through motion the movements of people media forms and practices Grounded in literary cultural and media memory studies the essays discuss the ways in which families and generations are shaped by the past how media such as literature film and photography make and remake collective memory or the cultural dimensions of trauma flashbulb memories or implicit memory They also consider traveling memory through the repercussions of recent historical events and long term mnemonic processes ranging from Greek antiquity to British colonialism in India and from the First and Second World Wars to 9 11 and Covid 19

Digital Sensations Ken Hillis, 1999 New Environmentalism Chris R. de Freitas, Martin Perry, 2012-05-15 This book explains the role of New Zealand's environmental agencies and regulatory legislation taking in the impact of international agreements and treaties It traces the fortunes of sustainable policy approaches and analyzes the activities of the public agencies charged with managing the environment Moving on to a detailed thematic status report on New Zealand's environment it examines rural freshwater coastal oceanic atmospheric and urban zones Finally chapters detail public perceptions and normative environmental values as well as the depth of business commitment to environmental responsibility An ideal introduction to the topic for a diverse range of scholars the book eschews any specific theoretical framework in charting the recent evolution current operation and future trajectory of environmentalism in New Zealand It backs strategic advice with both social and ecological data and raises questions over the country's reputation for greenness at the same time as recognizing its numerous achievements With neat summaries of key issues at the end of each chapter expansive guidance on further reading and a multitude of examples ideal for classroom debate this volume gives us an informed objective and wide ranging appraisal on a topic of increasing centrality in the policy debate Spatial Ecologies Verena Andermatt Conley, 2012-01-01 Spatial Ecologies asks why French cultural and critical theory since 1968 has turned from investigating questions of time to examining space Verena Conley ranges over the work of Henri Lefebvre Michel de Certeau Jean Baudrillard Marc Auge Paul Virilio Bruno Latour and Etienne Balibar to analyze how they reconsidered the experience of space in the midst of political and economic turmoil and to find out what writing about space can tell us about life in late capitalism Conley links this question to Heidegger's concept of habitability and shows how this concept of space informs much of French theory
