In God's Image Tomer Persico, 2025-07-22 The idea that all human beings were created in God's image was core to the creation of the modern West In God's Image examines the central role that the idea that all people were created in the image of God played in the development of Western civilization Focusing on five themes selfhood freedom conscience equality and meaning the book guides the reader through a cultural history of the West from ancient times through modernity It explains how each of these ideals was profoundly influenced by the central biblical conception of humanity's creation in God's image embracing an essential equality among all people while also emphasizing each human life's singularity and significance The book argues that the West and particularly Protestant Christianity grew out of ideas rooted deeply in this notion and that it played a core role in the development of individualism liberalism human rights discourse and indeed the secularization process Making the case for a cultural understanding of history the volume focuses on ideas as agents of change and challenges the common scholarly emphasis on material conditions Offering an innovative perspective on the shaping of global modernity In God's Image examines the relationship between faith and society and posits the fundamental role of the idea of the image of God in the making of the moral ideals and social institutions we hold dear today

Using Images in Late Antiquity Stine Birk, Troels Myrup Kristensen, Birte Poulsen, 2014-04-30 Fifteen papers focus on the active and dynamic uses of images during the first millennium AD They bring together an international group of scholars who situate the period's visual practices within their political religious and social contexts The contributors present a diverse range of evidence including mosaics sculpture and architecture from all parts of the Mediterranean from Spain in the west to Jordan in the east Contributions span from the depiction of individuals on funerary monuments through monumental epigraphy Constantine's expropriation and symbolic re use of earlier monuments late antique collections of Classical statuary and city personifications in mosaics to the topic of civic prosperity during the

Theodosian period and dynastic representation during the Umayyad dynasty Together they provide new insights into the central role of visual culture in the constitution of late antique societies The editors are all affiliated with the Department of Classical Studies at Aarhus University Denmark and were responsible for the collaborative research project Art and Social Identities in Late Antiquity 2007 2010
