Seattle in the 20th Century: Seattle transformed, World War II to Cold War Richard C. Berner, 1991 Seattle in the 20th Century: Seattle transformed, World War II to Cold War Richard C. Berner, 1999 Historic Preservation & the Imagined West Judy Mattivi Morley, 2006 She draws on extensive interviews city council proceedings and historic plans and photographs to construct a detailed picture of how these districts originally looked and were used how they were renovated and to what ends they were marketed Seattle Transformed Richard C. Berner, 1999 The Resilient City in World War II Simo Laakkonen, J. R. McNeill, Richard P. Tucker, Timo Vuorisalo, 2019-05-27 The fate of towns and cities stands at the center of the environmental history of World War II Broad swaths of cityscapes were destroyed by the bombing of targets such as transport hubs electrical grids and industrial districts and across Europe Asia and the Americas urban environments were transformed by the massive mobilization of human and natural resources to support the conflict But at the same time the war saw remarkable resilience among the human and non human residents of cities Foregrounding the concept of urban resilience this collection uncovers the creative survival strategies that city dwellers of all kinds turned to in the midst of environmental devastation As the first major study at the intersection of environmental urban and military history The Resilient City in World War II lays the groundwork for an improved understanding of rapid change in urban environments and how societies may adapt Seattle's Women Teachers of the Interwar Years Doris Hinson Pieroth, 2012-01-01 In Seattle's Women Teachers of the Interwar Years Doris Pieroth describes the contributions of a remarkable group of women who dominated the Seattle public school system in the early years of the twentieth century and helped to produce well educated citizens who were responsible for the widespread philanthropic volunteer and municipal activities that came to characterize the city While most publications on the history of education have emphasized theory or administration Pieroth focuses on individual teachers Set against the backdrop of a developing city the book provides vivid portraits of educated strong ambitious women making successful careers at a time when job opportunities for women were very limited Pieroth interviewed as many of these women as she could find and quotes from the interviews enhance her lively well written narrative Using details drawn from local newspapers and school publications she demonstrates that the influence of this cohort of women made modern Seattle the livable place that it remains today Seattle's Women Teachers of the Interwar Years is a significant contribution to the history of Seattle and the region to women's history and to the history of education 1015 Second Avenue, 2010 Writing the Ghetto Yoonmee Chang, 2010 In the United States perhaps no minority group is considered as successful as the Asian American community which is often described as residing in positive sounding ethnic enclaves rather than in ghettos In this volume Yoonmee Chang exposes the unspoken class inequalities faced by Asian Americans while insightfully analyzing the effect such nations have had on their literary voices lively synthesis of global history since the end of World War II offers a gripping account of an interdependent world and the socialism and free market capitalism and the interaction between cultural fragmentation and the competing integrative force of globalization Considering the historical experience of Africa Asia and Latin America as well as the West it addresses the ever expanding gulf between the developed North and developing South and the environmental impact of development on the planet s delicate ecosystems Authoritative and well written this is an ideal introductory guide for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses on global history since 1945 It is also a fascinating primer for anyone with an interest

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-04 Diasporic Cold Warriors Chien-Wen Kung,2022-03-15 In Diasporic Cold Warriors Chien Wen Kung explains how the Chinese Nationalist Party Kuomintang sowed the seeds of anticommunism among the Philippine Chinese with the active participation of the Philippine state From the 1950s to the 1970s Philippine Chinese were Southeast Asia s most exemplary Cold Warriors among overseas Chinese During these decades no Chinese community in the region was more vigilant in identifying and rooting out suspected communists from within its midst none was as committed to mobilizing against the People s Republic of China as the one in the former US colony Ironically for all the fears of overseas Chinese communities ties to the PRC at the time the example of the Philippines shows that the China that intervened the most extensively in any Southeast Asian Chinese society during the Cold War was the Republic of China on

Taiwan For the first time Kung tells the story of the Philippine Chinese as pro Taiwan anticommunist partisans tracing their evolving relationship with the KMT and successive Philippine governments over the mid twentieth century Throughout he argues for a networked and transnational understanding of the ROC KMT party state and demonstrates that Taipei exercised a form of nonterritorial sovereignty over the Philippine Chinese with Manila s participation and consent Challenging depoliticized narratives of cultural integration he also contends that because of the KMT Chinese identity formation and practices of belonging in the Philippines were deeply infused with Cold War ideology Drawing on archival research and fieldwork in Taiwan the Philippines the United States and China Diasporic Cold Warriors reimagines the histories of the ROC the KMT and the Philippine Chinese connecting them to the broader canvas of the Cold War and postcolonial nation building in East and Southeast Asia
