just as bad as his domestic policy Cultivating an image as a former anti Vietnam War activist to win over the aging hippie set in his early years as president Clinton bombed six countries and by the end of his first term had committed U S troops to 25 separate military operations compared to 17 in Ronald Reagan s two terms Clinton further expanded America s covert empire of overseas surveillance outposts and spying and increased the budget for intelligence spending and the National Endowment for Democracy NED a CIA offshoot which promoted regime change in foreign nations The latter was not surprising because according to CIA operative Cord Meyer Jr Clinton had been recruited into the CIA while a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford and as Governor of Arkansas in the 1980s he had allowed clandestine arms and drug flights to Nicaraguan counter revolutionaries Contras backed by the CIA to be taken from Mena Airport in the western part of the state Rather than being a time of tranquility when the U S failed to pay attention to the gathering storm of terrorism as New York Times columnist David Brooks frames it the Clinton presidency saw rising tensions among the U S China and Russia because of Clinton s malign foreign policies and U S complicity in terrorist acts In so many ways Clinton s presidency set the groundwork for the disasters that were to follow under Bush II Obama Trump and Biden It was Clinton building off of Reagan who first waged a War on Terror ridden with double standards one that adopted terror tactics including extraordinary rendition bombing and the use of drones It was Clinton who cried wolf about human rights abuses and the need to protect beleaguered peoples from genocide to justify military intervention in a post Cold War age And it was Clinton s administration that pressed for regime change in Iraq and raised public alarm about the mythic WMDs all while relying on fancy new military technologies and private military contractors to distance US shady military interventions from the public to limit dissent

A History of Russian Literature Andrew Kahn, Mark Lipovetsky, Irina Reyfman, Stephanie Sandler, 2018-04-13 Russia possesses one of the richest and most admired literatures of Europe reaching back to the eleventh century A History of Russian Literature provides a comprehensive account of Russian writing from its earliest origins in the monastic works of Kiev up to the present day still rife with the creative experiments of post Soviet literary life The volume proceeds chronologically in five parts extending from Kievan Rus in the 11th century to the present day The coverage strikes a balance between extensive overview and in depth thematic focus Parts are organized thematically in chapters which a number of keywords that are important literary concepts that can serve as connecting motifs and case studies in depth discussions of writers institutions and texts that take the reader up close and personal Visual material also underscores the interrelation of the word and image at a number of points particularly significant in the medieval period and twentieth century The History addresses major continuities and discontinuities in the history of Russian literature across all periods and in particular brings out trans historical features that contribute to the notion of a national literature The volume s time range has the merit of identifying from the early modern period a vital set of national stereotypes and popular folklore about boundaries space Holy Russia and the charismatic king that offers culturally relevant material to later writers This volume delivers a fresh view on a series of key questions about Russia's literary history by providing new mappings of literary history and a narrative that pursues key concepts rather more than individual authorial careers This holistic narrative underscores the ways in which context and text are densely woven in Russian literature and demonstrates that the most exciting way to understand the canon and the development of tradition is through a discussion of the interrelation of major and minor figures historical events and literary politics literary theory and literary innovation School Library Journal ,2002 The Monthly Review, Or, Literary Journal Ralph Griffiths, G. E. Griffiths, 1789 A monthly book announcement and review journal Considered to be the first periodical in England to offer reviews In each issue the longer reviews are in the front section followed by short reviews of lesser works It featured the novelist and poet Oliver Goldsmith as an early contributor Griffiths himself and likely his wife Isabella Griffiths contributed review articles to the periodical Later contributors included Dr Charles Burney John Cleland Theophilus Cibber James Grainger Anna Letitia Barbauld Elizabeth Moody and Tobias Smollet
