Seen And Heard:

Seen, Heard and Counted Shahra Razavi, 2012-03-06 Contributors analyze the care economy in the developing world at a moment when existing systems are under strain and new ideas are coming into focus Offers the first global regionally diverse study of the invisible economy of care including case studies from diverse regional contexts of Africa Asia and Latin America Frames the debate on care and highlights policy experimentation and ideas currently in flux Includes new research and data on developing countries showing how where care options for the socially disadvantaged are limited failing to socialize the costs of care exacerbates existing inequalities Comes at a moment when if not yet marked by a generalized care crisis the world's existing systems are under strain and in need of rethinking Features introductory chapters that set out the conceptual framework and findings on individual country studies and a concluding chapter that draws out the transnational dimensions of care

Seen, Heard, and Paid Alan Henry, 2025-05-27 The real tools for career success and work satisfaction for anyone feeling undermined or marginalized at their job from a productivity expert and editor at Wired Alan Henry doesn't just illuminate the invisible barriers that often stand in the way of success he shines a light on what you can do to break through them Adam Grant 1 New York Times bestselling author of Think Again and host of the TED podcast WorkLife For over twenty years Alan Henry has written about using technology and productivity techniques to work and live better for publications such as Lifehacker The New York Times and Wired But he found that as a Black man he didn't have access to some of the more powerful ways to hack your job like only checking email once a day or blocking out time on your calendar to do deep work In fact he found that even when he landed a prestigious title at the Times there were moments when he was still overlooked and excluded from the most interesting and career boosting work This led him to first explore these struggles in a Times piece titled Productivity Without Privilege Now he goes even deeper interviewing experts across multiple fields to come up with powerful tools to overcome the forces of marginalization In Seen Heard and Paid Henry shares the new work rules that may finally allow people of color women and LGBTQ folks to have the same access to career advancement and rewarding work as those with more privilege including How to Be Seen Only spend time on work that gets you attention How to Be Heard Figure out your unique contribution How to Get Paid Data is power and power is money Whether you're dealing with microaggressions trying to get the glamour work instead of the office housework weighing the pluses and minuses of working remotely or deciding it's time to look for a new opportunity Seen Heard and Paid will help you feel informed supported and empowered
