Segmented Worlds and Self Yi-fu Tuan,1982 Segmented Worlds and Self Yi-fu Tuan, Segmented World and the Self Yi-Fu Tuan,1984 The European Dream Jeremy Rifkin,2013-04-19 The American Dream is in decline Americans are increasingly overworked underpaid and squeezed for time But there is an alternative the European Dream a more leisurely healthy prosperous and sustainable way of life Europe s lifestyle is not only desirable argues Jeremy Rifkin but may be crucial to sustaining prosperity in the new era With the dawn of the European Union Europe has become an economic superpower in its own right its GDP now surpasses that of the United States Europe has achieved newfound dominance not by single mindedly driving up stock prices expanding working hours and pressing every household into a double wage earner conundrum Instead the New Europe relies on market networks that place cooperation above competition promotes a new sense of citizenship that extols the well being of the whole person and the community rather than the dominant individual and recognizes the necessity of deep play and leisure to create a better more productive and healthier workforce From the medieval era to modernity Rifkin delves deeply into the history of Europe and eventually America to show how the continent has succeeded in slowly and steadily developing a more adaptive sensible way of working and living In The European Dream Rifkin posits a dawning truth that only the most jingoistic can ignore Europe s flexible communitarian model of society business and citizenship is better suited to the challenges of the twenty first century Indeed the European Dream may come to define the new century as the American Dream defined the century now past http://www.loc.gov/catdir/enhancements/fy0720/2004047935_d.html Evolutionary Competence M. Montuori,2023-07-31 Escapism Yi-Fu Tuan,2000-10-31 Acclaimed cultural geographer Yi Fu Tuan considers humanity s enduring desire to escape reality and embrace alternatives such as love culture and Disneyworld In prehistoric times our ancestors began building shelters and planting crops in order to escape from nature s harsh realities Today we flee urban dangers for the safer reconfigured world of suburban lawns and parks According to geographer Yi Fu Tuan people have always sought to escape in one way or another sometimes foolishly often creatively and ingeniously Glass tower cities suburbs shopping malls Disneyland all are among the most recent monuments in our efforts to escape the constraints and uncertainties of life ultimately those imposed by nature What cultural product Tuan asks is not escape In his new book the capstone of a celebrated career Tuan shows that escapism is an inescapable component of human thought and culture Discourses of Disease Howard Y. F. Choy,2016-05-18 The meanings of disease have undergone such drastic changes with the introduction of modern Western medicine into China during the last two hundred years that new discourses have been invented to theorize illness redefine health and reconstruct classes and genders As a consequence medical literature is rewritten with histories of hygiene studies of psychopathology and stories of cancer disabilities and pandemics This edited volume includes studies of discourses about both bodily and psychiatric illness in modern China bringing together ground breaking scholarships that reconfigure the fields of history

literature film psychology anthropology and gender studies by tracing the pathological path of the Sick Man of East Asia through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries into the new millennium Communication in Eastern Europe Fred L. Casmir, 2012-12-06 This volume represents a clear attempt to learn something from the events in Eastern European countries It does not start with simplistic or old assumptions based on convenient Western communication models but instead takes a new approach If chaos theory could fundamentally change how physicists looked at order in the universe then it may be of value for communication scholars to attempt to understand the diversity of chaos or order in the human universe rather than attempt to force existing models on it for their own explanatory purposes This book is not merely based on the study of select groups of university students or on laboratory settings created in the minds of social scientists It seeks to understand some of the real world including the historical backgrounds and the theoretical assumptions brought to studies of intercultural conflicts Using personal and professional insights developed during firsthand contacts with existing situations chapter authors illustrate some of the realities by using the complexity of changes in Eastern European states during the final decade of the 20th century From education to business from the role of women to the role of mass media from the impact of political systems to the impact of history communication between those who are culturally diverse though they may have been arbitrarily forced to live under the same political roof is the theme of these scholarly studies The editor's reason for developing this volume of original essays is his belief that diversity rather than assumed similarity or even sameness based on the use of inadequate terminology is necessary for learning from contemporary human experiences He further believes that diversity and the significant roles of cultural values as well as of history need to become key concepts in the model with which to begin when it comes to the study of various aspects of intercultural communication It is therefore vital that scholars who represent various points of view and backgrounds contribute to that process After all understanding what is happening in the world is centrally anchored in or related to effective and successful intercultural communication between scholars who have different academic and personal backgrounds Handbook of Environmental Psychology Robert B. Bechtel, Arza Churchman, 2003-01-17 An international team of leading scholars explores the latest theories research and applications critical to environmental psychology Featuring the latest research and concepts in the field straight from the world's leading scholars and practitioners Handbook of Environmental Psychology provides a balanced and comprehensive overview of this rapidly growing field Bringing together contributions from an international team of top researchers representing a myriad of disciplines this groundbreaking resource provides you with a pluralistic approach to the field as an interdisciplinary effort with links to other disciplines Addressing a variety of issues and practice settings Handbook of Environmental Psychology is divided into five organized and accessible parts to provide a thorough overview of the theories research and applications at the forefront of environmental psychology today Part I deals with sharpening theories Part II links the subject to other disciplines Part III focuses on methods Part IV highlights applications and Part V examines the future of the field Defining the ongoing revolution in thinking about how the environment and psychology interact Handbook of Environmental Psychology is must reading for anyone coping directly with the attitudes beliefs and behaviors that are destroying our environment and putting our lives in jeopardy Topics include Healthy design Restorative environments Links to urban planning Contaminated environments Women s issues Environments for aging Climate weather and crime The history and future of disaster research Children s environments Personal space in a digital age Community planning

Geographies of Media and Communication Paul C. Adams, 2009-03-09 Geographies of Media and Communication From the invention of the telegraph to the emergence of the Internet communications technologies have transformed the ways that people and places relate to each other Geographies of Media and Communication is the first textbook to treat all aspects of geography s variegated encounter with communication Connecting geographical ideas with communication theories such as intertextuality audience centered theory and semiotics Paul C Adams explores media representations of places the spatial diffusion of communication technologies and the power of communication technologies to transform places and to dictate who does and does not belong in them

Shrines and Miraculous Images William B. Taylor, 2019-02-15 The vast literature on Our Lady of Guadalupe dominates the study of shrines and religious practices in Mexico But there is much more to the story of shrines and images in Mexico s religious history than Guadalupe and Marian devotion In this book a distinguished historian brings together his new and recent essays on previously unstudied or reconsidered places themes patterns and episodes in Mexican religious history during the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries William Taylor explores the use of local and regional shrines as well as devotion to images of Christ and Mary including Our Lady of Guadalupe to get to the heart of the politics and practices of faith in Mexico before the Reforma Each of these essays touches on methodological and conceptual matters that open out to processes and paradoxes of change and continuity exposing the symbolic complexity behind the material representations

New Perspectives on China and Aging Jason L. Powell, Ian G. Cook, 2007 The first part of the book is entitled Family Transition and Ageing and addresses rapid social and economic changes in China through a kaleidoscope of differential perspectives that focus on how family continues to be an important reference point for the past present and future institution in the care of older people The second part of the book focuses on the tangible social forces associated with managing old age Welfare Consumption and Ageing This section is important in locating the structures and agents of power that are relevant to maintaining trust and social relations between older people the Chinese State and its dualism of state welfare and consumption of welfare Scale Andrew Herod, 2010-09-13 An incisive guide this book is as a valuable reference for students and researchers wishing to become familiar with the theoretical issues of geographical scale and pushes such theories in new and original directions The Challenges of Cultural Psychology Gordana Jovanović, Lars Allolio-Näcke, Carl Ratner, 2018-09-28 This book considers cultural psychology from historical theoretical and epistemological perspectives building an understanding of cultural psychology as a human science and moving beyond the nature culture dichotomy The unique collection of chapters seeks to advance the field of cultural psychology by reviving its historical legacies and arguing for its social responsibility in future historical developments It considers European legacies for cultural psychology as developed by leading figures such as Giambattista Vico Wilhelm Wundt Wilhelm Dilthey and Ernst Cassirer in order to provide insights into a long tradition of thinking from a cultural psychology perspective The book discusses historical pathways in the rise and repression of cultural psychology and its different historical forms arguing for the necessity of decolonizing psychology securing a place for culture in it and developing an epistemology suited to humankind s meaning making processes in mutual shaping of psyche and culture It provides an integrative and historical understanding of the subject and uses the diversity and heterogeneity within the field to offer critical reflections on its achievements The thoroughly international group of contributors brings diverse analyses of self body emotions culture and society and considers the future of cultural psychology The volume is a stimulating read for scholars and students of cultural and theoretical psychology and related areas including philosophy anthropology and history Neurosociology: Fundamentals and Current Findings David D. Franks, 2019-02-06 This book offers an introduction to the fundamentals of neurosociology and presents the newest issues and findings in the field It describes the evolution of the brain and its social nature It examines the concept of knowing and what can be known as well as the subjective sensations we experience Next it explores the ubiquitousness of New Unconsciousness and the latest conclusions about mirror neurons Additional themes and concepts described are sex differences in the brain imitation determinism and agency The book brings together neuroscience and sociology two fields that are very different in terms of method theory tradition and practice It does so building on the following premise If our brains have been forged evolutionarily over the many centuries for social life sociologists should have the opportunity if not the duty to know about it whatever the reservations of some who think that any approach that includes biology must be reductionistic Jean Toomer and the Terrors of American History Charles Scruggs, Lee VanDemarr, 2016-11-11 Jean Toomer s Cane was the first major text of the Harlem Renaissance and the first important modernist text by an African American writer It powerfully depicts the terror in the history of American race relations a public world of lynchings race riots and Jim Crow and a private world of internalized conflict over identity and race which mirrored struggles in the culture at large Toomer's own life reflected that internal conflict and he has been an ambiguous figure in literary history an author who wrote a text that had a tremendous impact on African American authors but who eventually tried to distance himself from Cane and from his identification as a black writer In Jean Toomer and the Terrors of American History Charles Scruggs and Lee VanDemarr examine original sources Toomer's rediscovered early writings on politics and race his extensive correspondence with Waldo Frank and unpublished portions of his autobiographies to show how the cultural wars of the 1920s influenced the shaping of Toomer's book and his subsequent efforts to escape the racial definitions of American society That those definitions remain crucial for American society even today is one reason Toomer's work continues to fascinate and to influence contemporary writers and readers

Routledge Handbook of Sustainable Product Design Jonathan Chapman, 2017-05-08 As a cultivated form of invention product design is a deeply human phenomenon that enables us to shape modify and alter the world around us for better or worse The recent emergence of the sustainability imperative in product design compels us to recalibrate the parameters of good design in an unsustainable age Written by designers for designers the Routledge Handbook of Sustainable Product Design presents the first systematic overview of the burgeoning field of sustainable product design Brimming with intelligent viewpoints critical propositions practical examples and rich theoretical analyses this book provides an essential point of reference for scholars and practitioners at the intersection of product design and sustainability The book takes readers to the depth of our engagements with the designed world to advance the social and ecological purpose of product design as a critical twenty first century practice Comprising 35 chapters across 6 thematic parts the book's contributors include the most significant international thinkers in this dynamic and evolving field

The Routledge Research Companion to Media Geography Paul C. Adams, Jim Craine, 2016-03-23 This Companion provides an authoritative source for scholars and students of the nascent field of media geography While it has deep roots in the wider discipline the consolidation of media geography has started only in the past decade with the creation of media geography's first dedicated journal Aether as well as the publication of the sub discipline's first textbook However at present there is no other work which provides a comprehensive overview and grounding By indicating the sub discipline's evolution and hinting at its future this volume not only serves to encapsulate what geographers have learned about media but also will help to set the agenda for expanding this type of interdisciplinary exploration The contributors leading scholars in this field including Stuart Aitken Deborah Dixon Derek McCormack Barney Warf and Matthew Zook not only review the existing literature within the remit of their chapters but also articulate arguments about where the future might take media geography scholarship The volume is not simply a collection of individual offerings but has afforded an opportunity to exchange ideas about media geography with contributors making connections between chapters and developing common themes

Water, Knowledge and the Environment in Asia Ravi Baghel, Lea Stepan, Joseph

K.W. Hill, 2017-03-31 The dramatic transformation of our planet by human actions has been heralded as the coming of the new epoch of the Anthropocene. Human relations with water raise some of the most urgent questions in this regard. The starting point of this book is that these changes should not be seen as the result of monolithic actions of an undifferentiated humanity but as emerging from diverse ways of relating to water in a variety of settings and knowledge systems. With its large population and rapid demographic and socioeconomic change, Asia provides an ideal context for examining how varied forms of knowledge pertaining to water encounter and intermingle with one another. While it is difficult to carry out comprehensive research on water knowledge in Asia due to its linguistic, political, and cultural fragmentation, the topic nevertheless has relevance across boundaries. By using a carefully chosen selection of case studies in a variety of locations and across diverse disciplines, the book demonstrates commonalities and differences in everyday water practices around Asia while challenging both romantic presumptions and Eurocentrism. Examples presented include class differences in water use in the megacity of Delhi, India; the impact of radiation on water practices in Fukushima, Japan; the role of the King in hydraulic practices in Thailand; and ritual irrigation in Bali, Indonesia.
