Literature and Culture T. Davis, K. Womack, 2016-01-23 Davis and Womack investigate the emerging gaps between literary scholarship and the reading experience The idea of reconciling the void the locus of our sociocultural disillusionment and despair in an uncertain world concerns explicit artistic attempts to represent the ways in which human beings seek out meaning hope and community Devotions: A Read with Jenna Pick Mary Oliver, 2020-11-10 Tell me what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life Mary Oliver from The Summer Day Pulitzer Prize winning poet Mary Oliver presents a personal selection of her best work in this definitive collection spanning more than five decades of her esteemed literary career No matter where one starts reading Devotions offers much to love The Washington Post Throughout her celebrated career Mary Oliver has touched countless readers with her brilliantly crafted verse expounding on her love for the physical world and the powerful bonds between all living things Identified as far and away this country's best selling poet by Dwight Garner she now returns with a stunning and definitive collection of her writing from the last fifty years Carefully curated these 200 plus poems feature Oliver's work from her very first book of poetry No Voyage and Other Poems published in 1963 at the age of 28 through her most recent collection Felicity published in 2015 This timeless volume arranged by Oliver herself showcases the beloved poet at her edifying best Within these pages she provides us with an extraordinary and invaluable collection of her passionate perceptive and much treasured observations of the natural world Open the Door Joyce Rupp, 2008-09-01 The long awaited book from best selling spiritual guide Joyce Rupp creatively leads readers to explore how the image of the door can guide them in a process of discovering their true self Joyce Rupp brings new life to the ageless spiritual image of the door weaving insights from East and West with the wisdom of contemporary spiritual writers poets and novelists in a practical format that is just right for contemporary readers Structured as a daily prayer guide for everyday use over six weeks each day offers a thematic reflection a guided meditation an original prayer a thoughtful question and a related scripture quote A built in guide for small groups makes this the perfect resource for groups of all kinds as well as individuals A Study Guide for Mary Oliver's "The Eskimos Have No Word for War" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016

The Book of Nature Barbara Mahany, 2023-03-21 We live inside a nautilus of prayer if only we open our senses and perceive what is infused all around Throughout millennia and across the monotheistic religions the natural was often revered as a sacred text By the Middle Ages this text was given a name The Book of Nature the first best entry point for encounter with the divine The very act of reading the world of focusing our attention on each twinkling star and unfurling blossom humbles us and draws us into sacred encounter As we grapple to make sense of today's tumultuous world one where nature is at once a damaged and damaging source of disaster as well as a place of refuge and retreat we are called again to examine how generously it awaits our attention and devotion standing ready to be read by all Weaving together the astonishments of science the profound wisdom and literary gems of thinkers poets and observers who have come before us and her own spiritual practice and gentle observation Barbara Mahany reintroduces us to The Book of Nature an experiential framework of the divine God's first revelation came to us through an ongoing creation one that through stillness and attentiveness to the rumblings of the heavens the seasonal eruptions of earth the invisible pull of migration of tide and of celestial shiftings draws us into sacred encounter We needn't look farther for the divine

Little Alleluias Mary Oliver, 2025-09-09 An archival compendium of three complete works by Mary Oliver the book length poem The Leaf and the Cloud the collection What Do We Know and essays from Long Life with a foreword by fellow Pulitzer Prize winning author of Postcolonial Love Poem Natalie Diaz For the many admirers of Mary Oliver's breathtaking poetry of touch and transcendence as well as for those coming to her words for the first time Little Alleluias is a revelation These works observe search pause astonish and give thanks to both love and the natural world In constant conversation with the sublime i.e. Are you afraid Somewhere a thousand swans are flying through winter's worst storm Oliver has the rare skill of rendering life her poems and essays bring movement to stillness and people to the Earth themselves and each other Page by page she invites us to walk through her minutes her moments and revere the light and dark and rainbowed clothes of world alongside her With three distinct books collected in one volume for the first time Little Alleluias asks what passes and what persists and offers readers the peace that every mind deserves Hers is a purposeful language one that looks not just with attention but with sensual intention and though awestruck seeks to hold even briefly the unknowns of the energies that make any life Little alleluias she called her writings Not meant to define but to praise to rejoice in the maker and what has been made to dare be heard as a whisper or a shout in this immense world Natalie Diaz in her Foreword

The Divine Heart Colette Lafia, 2021-05-02 Nautilus Book Awards 2022 Silver Award Winner in Religion Spirituality of Western Thought In The Divine Heart Colette Lafia invites us to enter the vastness and intimacy of God's love offering seven simple yet powerful ways to deepen our awareness and open our hearts This small book with a big heart shows us how to live in the flow of Divine love Richard Rohr author of The Universal Christ founder of the Center for Action and Contemplation During these turbulent times we need the steadying voice of feminine wisdom more urgently than ever In this luminous book spiritual guide Colette Lafia offers the fruits of her tenderly cultivated inner life to feed people of all genders who thirst for a direct encounter with the embodiment of love which she recognizes as our own true nature Mirabai Starr translator of John of the Cross and Teresa of Avila author of Wild Mercy In The Divine Heart spiritual director Colette Lafia shows how we can live in an ever flowing love relationship with God realizing that God is in us and we are in God Beautifully expressed sharing examples of her own journey The Divine Heart offers seven invitations that can awaken us to this abundant flow of love at the core of our being Weaving prayers and practices along with relevant contemporary and mystical teachings Colette Lafia invites us to explore how connecting to Divine love helps us trust our own spiritual experiences and inspires us toward hope healing and wholeness The Divine Heart is a timely offering outlining ways we can integrate loss and pain and renew ourselves in the power and presence of love

Narrating Transformative Learning in Education M. Gardner, U. Kelly, 2008-02-04 This collection highlights the experiences of an international group of educators as they explore the art of teaching the philosophy of learning and the tensions of working across socially constructed borders The Great Conversation Belden C. Lane, 2019-05-01 We are surrounded by a world that talks but we don't listen We are part of a community engaged in a vast conversation but we deny our role in it In the face of climate change species loss and vast environmental destruction the ability to stand in the flow of the great conversation of all creatures and the earth can feel utterly lost to the human race But Belden C Lane suggests that it can and must be recovered not only for the sake of endangered species and the well being of at risk communities but for the survival of the world itself The Great Conversation is Lane's multi-faceted treatise on a spiritually centered environmentalism At the core is a belief in the power of the natural world to act as teacher In a series of personal anecdotes Lane pairs his own experiences in the wild with the writings of saints and sages from a wide range of religious traditions A night in a Missourian cave brings to mind the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola the canyons of southern Utah elicit a response from the Chinese philosopher Laozi 500 000 migrating sandhill cranes rest in Nebraska and evoke the Sufi poet Farid ud Din Attar With each chapter the humility of spiritual masters through the ages melds with the author's encounters with natural teachers to offer guidance for entering once more into a conversation with the world Migration and Education in a Multicultural World U. Kelly, 2009-02-16 Arising from the legacies of the twentieth century unprecedented worldwide migration unrelenting global conflict and warring unchecked materialist consumption and unconscionable environmental degradation are important questions about the toll of loss such changes exact individually and collectively As large scale and ubiquitous as these changes are their deep specificity re-inscribes the importance of place as a critical construct Attending to such specificity emphasizes the interconnections between contexts and broader movements and remains a prudent route to articulating critical interconnections among places and peoples in complex times This book of essays turns to such specificity as a means to examine the inflections of migration on identity displacement disorientation loss and difference as sites of both regression and possibility Fusing autobiography and cultural analysis it provides a framework for a critical education attuned to such concerns Ralph Waldo Emerson Prentiss Clark, 2023-01-05 In his 1837 speech The American Scholar Ralph Waldo Emerson noted life is our dictionary encapsulating a body of work that reached well beyond the American 19th century This comprehensive study explores Emerson as a preacher poet philosopher lecturer essayist and editor There are nearly 100 entries on individual texts and their personal historical and literary contexts Emerson's work is placed within his relationships with family members fellow Transcendentalists and transatlantic friends and his commitment to ethics self culture and social change This book provides the fullest possible exploration of Emerson's writing and philosophy Far ahead of his own time the man enthusiastically questioned institutions communities friendships history individuality and contemporaneous approaches to environmental stewardship Hints Toward Reforms, in Lectures, Addresses, and Other Writings Horace Greeley, 1850 Hints towards reforms in lectures, addresses and other writings Horace Greeley, 1850 Prose Poetry in Theory and Practice Anne Caldwell, Oz Hardwick, 2022-06-01 Prose Poetry in Theory and Practice vigorously engages with the Why and the How of prose poetry a form that is currently enjoying a surge in popularity With contributions by both practitioners and academics this volume seeks to explore how its distinctive properties guide both writer and reader and to address why this form is so well suited to the early twenty first century With discussion of both classic and less well known writers the essays both illuminate prose poetry's distinctive features and explore how this outsider form can offer a unique way of viewing and describing the uncertainties and instabilities which shape our identities and our relationships with our surroundings in the early twenty first century Combining insights on the theory and practice of prose poetry Prose Poetry in Theory and Practice offers a timely and valuable contribution to the development of the form and its appreciation amongst practitioners and scholars alike Largely approached from a practitioner perspective this collection provides vivid snapshots of contemporary debates within the prose poetry field while actively contributing to the poetics and craft of the form Replenish Sandra Postel, 2017-10-10 Nothing is more important to life than water and no one knows water better than Sandra Postel Replenish is a wise sobering but ultimately hopeful book Elizabeth Kolbert Remarkable New York Times Book Review Clear eyed treatise Postel makes her case eloquently Booklist starred review An informative purposeful argument Kirkus We spend billions of dollars on irrigation dams sanitation plants and other feats of engineering to control water for our own prosperity What if the answer was not control but replenishment Sandra Postel takes readers around the world to explore water projects that work with rather than against nature's rhythms Forest rehabilitation is safeguarding drinking water farmers are planting cover crops to reduce polluted runoff and sponge cities are capturing rainwater to curb urban flooding Postel argues that efforts like these will be essential as we adjust to a hotter wilder climate Will we continue to fight the water cycle endangering ourselves and the planet or recognize our place in it and take advantage of the inherent services nature offers
