Growing at the Speed of Life Graham Kerr,2011-03-01 With more than two dozen cookbooks and hundreds of television shows lectures and personal appearances devoted to promoting healthful cooking award winning chef and former Galloping

Gourmet Graham Kerr literally starts from the ground up in this engaging inspiring and highly informative introduction to the joys of the kitchen garden and the pleasures of the table that start with growing your own food While Kerr taps into the current trend of sustainability eating locally and organically and eschewing fast food he recognizes that today's home cooks are savvier and more discerning than their predecessors in the back to the land movement And in this day of rampant obesity and related diseases he understands how critical taking these vital steps toward wellness can be Growing at the Speed of Life takes you through the first year in his kitchen garden sharing the lessons learned and the wisdom received from his circle of local knowledge providers From digging up his south lawn and putting together a greenhouse to planting his first seeds and harvesting and sharing his first crop with others in need Kerr provides a whirlwind tour through his gardening adventures Along the way he profiles sixty common and not so common but readily available garden vegetables fruits and herbs with useful advice and recommendations for care and feeding Once the harvest is done Kerr takes you into the kitchen offering guidance on the best cooking methods to create appealing dishes in his inimitable and spirited style He includes more than one hundred recipes that are as simple and elegant as they are healthful and that will certainly entice you to increase the amount of plant foods in your diet

Graham Kerr's Best Graham Kerr, 1995 On average Americans now consume 34% of their daily calories from fat But for anyone with even modest health risk factors the 34% should be reduced to about 20% And for people at high risk or those who have already experienced health problems the ideal target is 10% of calories from fat However if you want to eat better you don't have to sacrifice good taste and variety in your cooking to achieve the level of fat that you want or need The 250 recipes in this unique collection have been carefully selected and organized to give you the widest and easiest choice of ingredients and cooking techniques to help meet your individual health requirements and satisfy your taste preferences Divided into three main sections representing 10% 20% or 30% of calories from fat respectively the recipes include hearty soups and sauces inventive main dishes and vegetables and inspired desserts Every recipe features the hallmarks we have come to expect from Graham Kerr innovative flavors imaginative cooking techniques intriguing ingredients helpful hints and tips friendly and encouraging advice geared to help you discover ways to prepare your favorite foods in a perfect balance of good taste and good health
