Schooling for Refugee Children Eleanore Hargreaves, Brian Lally, Bassel Akar, Jumana Al-Waeli, Jasmine Costello, 2024-05-07 Schooling for Refugee Children is a collaboration between five authors who explore their interactions with refugee children displaced from Syria to the Lebanese borders and London Through a programme of carefully tailored research activities they analyse the children s representations of their personal journeys and current circumstances especially with regard to ongoing schooling The children s experiences are expressed through their own words and drawings disrupting the stereotype of children as receivers rather than empowered actors and challenging traditional solutions for improving schooling Throughout the children are eloquent about their schooling in the context of displacement Their views and illustrations depict a keen awareness of social justice issues including on the distribution of wealth recognition of status and representation of voice These are framed by the authors within Nancy Fraser s concept of social justice as parity of participation In this way the book brings to light important representations of some empowering experiences lived through by refugee children from Syria as well as their thoughts on what has helped their learning and what can be done better The children s need for care and a sense of belonging in their schools and new communities is given particular emphasis
