Ghost Stories of Newfoundland and Labrador Edward Butts,2010-09-27 Newfoundland and Labrador have tales of the supernatural that date back centuries and Edward Butts has collected some of their spookiest tales Here the ghosts lurk in old houses and forlorn cemeteries but they also come out of the sea and walk the decks of ships The Complete Idiot's Guide to Ghosts and Hauntings Tom Ogden,1999 You're no idiot of course You know Casper was a friendly ghost and that the Phantom Hitchhiker is someone you'd rather not meet on a deserted highway late at night But when it comes to knowing the authentic roots of ghost stories and which ones remain unexplained to this day you don't stand a ghost of a chance Don't get spirited away yet The Complete Idiot's Guide to Ghosts and Hauntings is an eerie investigation into the firsthand accounts legends literature and dramatic works surrounding the world of ghosts In this Complete Idiot's Guide you get Legend Tripping Lynne S. McNeill,Elizabeth Tucker,2018-11-30 Legend Tripping A Contemporary Legend Casebook explores the practice of legend tripping wherein individuals or groups travel to a site where a legend is thought to have taken place. Legend tripping is a common informal practice depicted in epics, stories, novels, and film throughout both contemporary and historical vernacular culture. In this collection, contributors show how legend trips can express humanity's interest in the frontier between life and death and the fascination with the possibility of personal contact with the supernatural or spiritual. The volume presents both insightful research and useful pedagogy, making this an invaluable resource in the classroom. Selected major articles on legend tripping with introductory sections written by the editors are followed by discussion questions and projects designed to inspire readers to engage critically with legend traditions and customs of legend tripping and to explore possible meanings and symbolics at work. Suggested projects incorporate digital technology as it appears both in legends and in modes of legend tripping. Legend Tripping is appropriate for students, general readers, and folklorists alike. It is the first volume in the International Society for Contemporary Legend Research series, a set of casebooks providing thorough and up-to-date studies that showcase a variety of scholarly approaches to contemporary legends along with variants of legend texts, discussion questions, and projects for students. Contributors: S. Elizabeth Bird, Bill Ellis, Carl Lindahl, Patricia M. Meley, Tim Prizer.

Around the campfire or tucked away on a dark and stormy night, this big book of ghost stories is a hauntingly good read. Archaeology, Narrative, and the Politics of the Past Julia A. King, 2012-07-15. In this innovative work, Julia King moves nimbly among a variety of sources and disciplinary approaches: archaeological, historical, architectural, literary, and art historical, to show how places take on, convey, and maintain meanings. Focusing on the beautiful Chesapeake Bay region of Maryland, King looks at the ways in which various groups, from patriots and politicians of the antebellum era to present-day archaeologists and preservationists, have transformed key landscapes into historical, indeed, sacred spaces. The sites King examines include the region's vanishing tobacco farms, St. Mary's City, established as Maryland's first capital by English settlers in the seventeenth century, and Point Lookout, the location of a prison for captured Confederate soldiers during the Civil War. As the author explores the historical narratives associated with such places, she uncovers some surprisingly durable myths as well as competing ones. St. Mary's City, for example, early on became the center of Maryland's founding narrative of religious tolerance, a view commemorated in nineteenth-century celebrations and reflected even today in local museum exhibits and preserved buildings. And at Point Lookout, one private group has established a Confederate Memorial Park dedicated to those who died at the prison, thus nurturing the Lost Cause ideology that arose in the South in the late 1800s while nearby the custodians of a 1 000 acre state park avoid controversy by largely ignoring the area s Civil War history preferring instead to concentrate on recreation and tourism an unusually popular element of which has become the recounting of ghost stories As King shows the narratives that now constitute the public memory in southern Maryland tend to overlook the region s more vexing legacies particularly those involving slavery and race Noting how even her own discipline of historical archaeology has been complicit in perpetuating old narratives King calls for research particularly archaeological research that produces new stories and counter narratives that challenge old perceptions and interpretations and thus convey a more nuanced grasp of a complicated past
