Looking Critically 21 Years Of Artforum Magazine:

Looking Critically Amy Baker Sandback,1984 The Magic of Light Carter Ratcliff,Arthur Zajonc,Stephen Antonakos,2002 Looking Critically Amy Baker Sandback,1984 Art and Pluralism Nigel Whiteley,2012 Through studying Lawrence Alloway's writings we can trace some of the major shifts in art and cultural values in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s When Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green,Heather Barker,2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788 1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial Across nine chapters about art exhibitions curators and critics this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo colonial dependency It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists Surpassing Modernity Andrew McNamara,2018-11-29 For the past thirty to forty years cultural analysis has focused on developing terms to explain the surpassing of modernity Discussion is stranded in an impasse between those who view the term modernity with automatic disdain as deterministic Eurocentric or imperialistic and a booming interest that is renewing the study of modernism Another dilemma is that the urge to move away from or beyond modernity arises because it is viewed as difficult even unsavoury Yet there has always been a view of modernity as somehow difficult to live with and that has been said by figures we regard today as typical modernists McNamara argues in this book that it is time to forget the quest to surpass modernity Instead we should re examine a legacy that continues to inform our artistic conceptions our political debates our critical justifications even if that legacy is baffling and contradictory We may find it difficult to live with but without recourse to this legacy our critical cultural ambitions would remain seriously diminished How do we explain the culture we live in today And how do we as citizens make sense of it This book suggests these questions have become increasingly difficult to answer Susan Sontag Leland Poague,Kathy A. Parsons,2003-09-02 Susan Sontag An Annotated Bibliography catalogues the works of one of America's most prolific and important 20th century authors Known for her philosophical writings on American culture topics left untouched by Sontag's writings are few and far between This volume is an exhaustive collection that includes her novels essays reviews films and interviews Each entry is accompanied by an annotated bibliography The New Art Examiner ,1985 After Modern Sculpture Richard J. Williams,2000 Stars are central to the cinema experience and this collection offers a variety of fresh and informed perspectives on this important but sometimes neglected area of film studies This book takes as its focus film stars from the past and present from Hollywood its margins and beyond and analyses them through a close consideration of their films and the variety of contexts in which they worked The book spreads the net wide looking at past stars from Rosalind Russell and Charlton Heston to present day stars including Sandra Bullock Jackie Chan and Jim Carrey as well as those figures who have earned themselves a certain film star cachet such as Prince and the martial artist Cynthia Rothrock The collection will be essential reading for students and lecturers of film studies as well as to those with a general interest in the cinema The End of the American Avant Garde Stuart D. Hobbs,1997-02-01 By 1966 the composer Virgil Thomson would write Truth is there is no avant garde today How did the avant garde dissolve and why In this thought provoking work Stuart D Hobbs traces the avant garde from its origins to its eventual appropriation by a conservative political agenda consumer culture and the institutional world of art Informality and the City Gregory Marinic,Pablo Meninato,2022-10-03 This book advances the agenda of informality as a transnational phenomenon recognizing that contemporary urban and regional challenges need to be addressed at both local and global levels This project may be considered a call for action Its urgency derives from the impact of the pandemic combined with the effects of climate change in informal settlements around the world While the notion of the informal is usually associated with the analysis and interventions in informal settlements this book expands the concept of informality to acknowledge its interdisciplinary parameters The book is geographically organized into five sections The first part provides a conceptual overview of the notion of the informal serving as an introduction and reflection on the subject The following sections are dedicated to the principal regions of the Global South Latin America US Mexico Borderlands Asia and Africa while considering the interconnections and correspondences between urbanism in the Global South and the Global North This book offers a critical introduction to groundbreaking theories and design practices of informality in the built environment It provides essential reading for scholars professionals and students in urban studies architecture city planning urban geography sociology anthropology cultural studies economics and the arts As a critical survey of informality the book examines history theory and production across a range of informal practices and phenomena in urbanism architecture activism and participatory design Authored by a diverse and international cohort of leading educators theorists and practitioners 45 chapters refine and expand the discourse surrounding informal cities Ideas About Art Kathleen K. Desmond,2011-05-06 Ideas About Art is an intelligent accessible introductory text for students interested in learning how to think about aesthetics It uses stories drawn from the experiences of individuals involved in the arts as a means of exposing readers to the philosophies theories and arguments that shape and drive visual art An accessible story driven introduction to aesthetic theory and philosophy Prompts readers to develop independent ideas about aesthetics this is a guide on how to think not what to think Includes discussions of non western contemporary and discipline specific theories Examines a range of art based dilemmas across a wide variety of disciplines from art and design and law to visual and museum studies Barnett Newman and Heideggerian Philosophy Claude Cernuschi,2012-03-22 As a major member of the New York School Barnett Newman is celebrated for his radical explorations of color and scale and as a precursor to the Minimalist movement for his significant contribution to the development of twentieth century American art But if his reputation and place in history have grown progressively more secure the work he produced remains highly resistant to interpretation His paintings are rigorously abstract and his writings full of references to arcane metaphysical concepts Frustrated over their inability to reconcile the works with what the artist said about them some critics have dismissed the paintings as impenetrable The art historian Yve Alain Bois called Newman the most difficult artist he could name and the philosopher Jean Fran ois Lyotard declared that there is almost nothing to consume in his work or if there is I do not know what it is In order to advance interpretation this book investigates both Newman s writings and paintings in light of ideas articulated by one of Germany s most important and influential philosophers Martin Heidegger Many of the themes explored in Newman s statements and echoed in the titles of his paintings betray numerous points of intersection with Heidegger s philosophy the question of origins the distinctiveness of human presence a person s sense of place the sensation of terror the definition of freedom the importance of mood to existence the particularities of art and language the impact of technology on modern life the meaning of time and the human being s relationship to others and to the divine When examined in the context of Heideggerian thought these issues acquire greater concreteness and in turn their relation to the artist s paintings becomes clearer It is the contention of this book that at the intersection of art history and philosophy an interdisciplinary framework emerges wherein the artist s broader motivations and the specific meanings of his paintings prove more amenable to elucidation On a Scale that Competes with the World Robert L. Pincus,2023-12-22 A fully illustrated review of the contemporary artwork of Edward and Nancy Kienholz which clarifies its importance in American art history and illuminates its critique of American society and culture A fully illustrated review of the contemporary artwork of Edward and Nancy Kienholz which clarifies its importance in American art history and illuminates its critique of American society and culture

The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter,2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries The Big Fish Anna J. Bonshek,Corrina Bonshek, Lee C. Fergusson,2007 While debate continues in the fields of the sciences and humanities as to the nature of consciousness and the location of consciousness in the brain or as a field phenomenon in the Vedic tradition consciousness has been understood and continues to be articulated as an infinite field of intelligence at the basis of all forms of existence This infinite field of intelligence is accessible to human awareness being the very nature of the mind and the structuring dynamics of the physiology from the DNA to the cell tissues organs and to the whole body and its sophisticated functioning This two part volume The Big Fish Consciousness as Structure Body and Space considers in Part One the Vedic approach to consciousness specifically referencing Maharishi Vedic Science and discusses themes pertinent to the arts including perception and cognition memory as awareness history and culture artistic performance and social responsibility observatory instruments as spaces and structures to enhance consciousness and beyond metaphor architectural sites as multi layered enclosures of the brain detailed in the Shrimad Devi Bhagavatam and as cosmic habitat or Vastu aligned to the celestial bodies Presenting some more general consciousness based readings Part Two includes essays by various authors on Agnes Martin and her views on art perfection and the Classic unified field based education and freedom of expression versus censorship in art prints from the Renaissance to the contemporary era as allegories of consciousness the work of Australian artist Michael Kane Taylor as beyond a modern postmodern dichotomy the photographic series The Ocean of Beauty by Mark Paul Petrick referencing the Vedic text the Saundarya Lahari a Deleuzian analysis of the dual screen multi arts work Reverie I and an account of the making of Reverie II a single screen video projection inspired by the idea of dynamics of awareness This book therefore presents a broad range of interests and reading while offering a unique yet profoundly transformative perspective on consciousness Bruce Conner Rudolf Frieeling, Gary Garrels, 2016-07-04 This book is published by the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art on the occasion of the exhibition Bruce Conner It's All True co curated by Stuart Comer Rudolf Frieeling Gary Garrels and Laura Hoptman with Rachel Federman Colophon Jackson Pollack Claude Cernuschi, 2021-11-28 Designed to help students and interested general readers to interpret the abstract expressionist paintings of Jackson Pollock this survey of Pollock's life and art provides insight into the origins and meanings of individual works and analyzes the influences upon Pollock Also included are discussions of the many issues raised by Pollock's work above and beyond his intentions and how they intersected with the work of his contemporaries as well as other intellectual currents of the time The Third Hand Charles Green, 2001 Since the 1960s a number of artists have challenged the image of the lonely artist by embarking on long term collaborations that dramatically altered the terms of artistic identity In this book Green offers a sustained critical examination of collaboration in international contemporary art Minimal Politics Maurice Berger, 1997 This book traces the evolution of the style and thinking of Hans Haacke Mary Kelly Robert Morris Adrian Piper and Yvonne Rainer five artists who explore the complex relationship between form theatricality and ideology Minimal Politics demonstrates how their work evolved from a more minimal formal aesthetic in the 1960s to a more overtly ideological perspective
