Looking Askance:

Beware the Evil Eye Volume 3 John H. Elliott, 2016-07-26 The Evil Eye is mentioned repeatedly throughout the Old Testament Israel's parabiblical writings and New Testament with a variety of terms and expressions The Old Testament Greek Septuagint contains no less than fourteen text segments involving some twenty explicit references to the Evil Eye Deut 15 9 28 54 56 Prov 23 6 28 22 Tob 4 7 16 Sir 14 3 6 8 9 10 18 18 31 13 37 11 Wis 4 12 4 Macc 1 26 2 15 Ep Jer 69 70 At least three further texts are also likely implied references to an Evil Eye 1 Sam 2 29 32 18 9 with some other texts as more distant possibilities The Evil Eye is mentioned also in the Old Testament Pseudepigrapha the Dead Sea Scrolls and the writings of Philo and Josephus all of which are discussed in the following pages Evil Eye belief and practice continued in the early Jesus movement Jesus mentions the Evil Eye on more than one occasion Matt 6 22 23 Luke 11 33 36 Mark 7 22 Paul makes explicit and implicit mention of the Evil Eye in his letter to the Galatians 3 1 4 12 20 Possible implicit references to the Evil Eye are also examined Both the common and the distinctive features of biblical Evil Eye belief are identified along with its operation on multiple levels biological physiological psychological economic social and moral and its serving a variety of purposes The numerous references to the Evil Eye in Israel's rabbinic writings and those of postbiblical Christianity second sixth centuries CE together with the material evidence from this period are examined in volume 4

Beware the Evil Eye, 4-Volume Set John H. Elliott, 2017-09-20 In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus of Nazareth makes reference to one of the oldest beliefs in the ancient world the malignity of an Evil Eye The Holy Scriptures in their original languages contain no less than twenty four references to the Evil Eye although this is obscured by most modern Bible translations John H Elliott's Beware the Evil Eye describes this belief and associated practices its history its voluminous appearances in ancient cultures and the extensive research devoted to it over the centuries in order to unravel this enigma for readers who have never heard of the Evil Eye and its presence in the Bible The four volumes cover the ancient world from Sumer to the Middle Ages

Beware the Evil Eye Volume 2 John H. Elliott, 2016-01-22 In the present volume Elliott addresses the most extensive sources of Evil Eye belief in antiquity the cultures of Greece and Rome In this period features of the belief found in Mesopotamian and Egyptian sources are expanded to the point where an Evil Eye belief complex becomes apparent This complex of features associated with the Evil Eye human eye as key organ of information eye as active not passive eye as channel of emotion and dispositions especially envy arising in the heart possessors victims defensive strategies and amulets is essential to an understanding of the literary references to the Evil Eye This volume along with chapter 2 of volume 1 sets and illuminates the context for examining Evil Eye belief and practice in the Bible and the biblical communities the focus of volume 3

Translation, Pornography, Performativity Douglas Robinson, Xiaorui Sun, 2025-04-11 Robinson and Sun's book goes in search of the neglected metaphors of translation in pornography using poststructuralist rethinkings and reframings of porn and masturbation from Jacques Derrida to Judith Butler In his 1684 Essay on Translated Verse the Earl of Roscommon attacked want of decency in translation metaphorically by comparing it to picking up prostitutes in the park raking the park for stews instead of hanging out with troops of faultless nymphs Sex work and the graphic representation of sex work that Nathaniel Butler was the first to call pornography in print in 1638 is used as a metaphor for non normative translation which in Robinson and Sun s hands becomes experimental translation En route to that goal the authors take us through Butler on performativity and resistance Derrida on supplementarity and iterability and Haun Saussy s innovative application of Derridean citationality to the use of a target cultural sponsor or bondsman for translation They take detours through Charles Baudelaire s Une charogne and J G Ballard s The Drowned Giant They deal with the performativity of pornography and translato-graphy in Part I the unnatural iterability of masturbation and translation in Part II and experimental translation in Part III The theory littered path this book takes through the metaphors of translation will be of interest to scholars and students of translation studies especially experimental translation and translation theory but also media scholars interested in the philosophical complexities of performativity

Landscapes of the Secular Nicolas Howe,2016-09-05 What does it mean to see the American landscape in a secular way asks Nicolas Howe at the outset of this innovative ambitious and wide ranging book It s a surprising question because of what it implies we usually aren t seeing American landscapes through a non religious lens but rather as inflected by complicated little examined concepts of the sacred Fusing geography legal scholarship and religion in a potent analysis Howe shows how seemingly routine questions about how to look at a sunrise or a plateau or how to assess what a mountain is both physically and ideologically lead to complex arguments about the nature of religious experience and its implications for our lives as citizens In American society nominally secular but committed to permitting a diversity of religious beliefs and expressions such questions become all the more fraught and can lead to difficult often unsatisfying compromises regarding how to interpret and inhabit our public lands and spaces A serious commitment to secularism Howe shows forces us to confront the profound challenges of true religious diversity in ways that often will have their ultimate expression in our built environment This provocative exploration of some of the fundamental aspects of American life will help us see the land law and society anew

and stirred fear in me for many reasons First it was pictured to be a novel project which would surpass the yearnings of people in the field And also the structure which it was to take was another daunting issue However all these issues only spurred me into bringing out quality work one that would stand the test of time and cause a turning point in the life of every reader This book adopts a unique structure of research its perfect combination of raw knowledge and scholarly findings from across the world makes it stand out from other texts The book reels out how to relate with people and understand their behaviors through nonverbal acts It considers all the attributes of human body parts while communicating with others However before you can understand others there is a need to understand yourself first This is another aspect that this encyclopedia delves into it explains ways in which you can maintain a charming and result oriented posture in order to command respect from others during any given discourse This is a potential tool you need to apply in order to make others open to you This book explains ways in which you can fish out someone who is trying to play on your intelligence through their body language In conclusion this book gives a practical outline of how to activate the subconscious and conscious brains in working in tandem in order to understand the intents of co interlocutor

Gestures and Looks in Medieval Narrative
J. A. Burrow, 2002-08-08 In medieval society gestures and speaking looks played an even more important part in public and private exchanges than they do today Gestures meant more than words for example in ceremonies of homage and fealty In this the first study of its kind in English John Burrow examines the role of non verbal communication in a wide range of narrative texts including Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde the anonymous Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Malory's Morte D'Arthur the romances of Chr'tien de Troyes the Prose Lancelot Boccaccio's Il Filostrato and Dante's Commedia Burrow argues that since non verbal signs are in general less subject to change than words many of the behaviours recorded in these texts such as pointing and amorous gazing are familiar in themselves yet many prove easy to misread either because they are no longer common like bowing or because their use has changed like winking
