Reading Catechisms, Teaching Religion Lee Palmer Wandel, 2015-10-14 Reading Catechisms Teaching Religion makes two broad arguments First the sixteenth century witnessed a fundamental transformation in Christians Catholic and Evangelical conceptualization of the nature of knowledge of Christianity and the media through which that knowledge was articulated and communicated Christians had shared a sense that knowledge might come through visions images liturgy catechisms taught that knowledge of Christianity began with texts printed on a page Second codicil catechisms sought not simply to dissolve the material distinction between codex and person but to teach catechumens to see specific words together as texts The pages of catechisms were visual they confound precisely that constructed modern bipolarity word image or conversely that modern bipolarity obscures what sixteenth century catechisms sought to do Teach Us to Pray Katharine Mahon, 2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord's Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century The Limits of Forgiveness Maria Mayo, 2021-05-06 Demystifying an unrealistic ideal Maria Mayo questions the contemporary idealization of unconditional forgiveness in three areas of contemporary life so called Victim Offender Mediation involving cases of criminal injury the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in post apartheid South Africa and the pastoral care of victims of domestic violence She shows that an emphasis on unilateral and unconditional forgiveness puts disproportionate pressure on the victims of injustice or violence and misconstrues the very biblical passages especially in Jesus teaching and actions on which advocates of unconditional forgiveness rely They Cried to the Lord Patrick D. Miller, 1994 Both compellingly and clearly Patrick D Miller introduces biblical prayer in all its varied forms and from different angles the prayers of Israel's neighbors the names of God in prayer prayers for help the response of God praise the prayers of women confession and penitence prayers for others blessing and curse and Jesus and Paul at prayer The perspective throughout is that of faith and its relation to prayer and theology The result is a book of importance for church members students scholars and others

Heaven Robert S. Turner, 2015-03-02 The Lord's Prayer holds an honored place in the worship and devotional practices of countless Christians around the world People of every ethnic background denominational affiliation and theological leaning pray to Our Father who art in heaven But what if there's more to it than we think Our Father Who Aren't in Heaven takes a decidedly this worldly approach to the prayer and seeks to understand what Jesus meant to teach his original disciples and us through this radical manifesto of the kingdom of God In these pages Robert S Turner presents a political reading of the prayer and explores how we can encounter through it a God who has left the divine hammock empty and cast God's lot with humanity and the rest of creation A renewed understanding of the prayer may have the capacity to transform the world These subversive reflections on the Lord's Prayer may have the capacity to transform the reader as well Public Library Catalog, 1994 The Lord's Prayer and the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel Charles Nathan

Ridlehoover, 2019-12-26 Charles Nathan Ridlehoover examines the Lord's Prayer in Matthew's Gospel focusing on the prayer's centrality and showing how this centrality affects our reading of the Sermon on the Mount and subsequently the prayer itself Ridlehoover argues that the Lord's Prayer is structurally lexically and thematically central to the Sermon on the Mount and the means through which disciples of Jesus are empowered to live out the kingdom righteousness it defines In turn the Sermon on the Mount clarifies what the answer to the petitions of the Lord's Prayer might look like in the life of the disciple of Jesus Whilst the centrality of the Lord's Prayer has been noted by previous commentators this centrality and its intended purpose has not hitherto been defined or examined in great depth Ridlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the Father will forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers Ridlehoover's examination of the relationship between the Sermon and Prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality
