Los Rios Profundos:

Deep Rivers José María Arguedas, 2002-03-28 Fiction In English translation Jos Mara Arguedas is one of the few Latin American authors who loved and described his natural surroundings and he ranks among the greatest writers of any time and place He saw the beauty of the Peruvian landscape as well as the grimness of social conditions in the Andes through the eyes of the Indians who are a part of it Ernesto the narrator of Deep Rivers is a child with origins in two worlds The son of a wandering country lawyer he is brought up by Indian servants until he enters a Catholic boarding school at age 14 In this urban Spanish environment he is a misfit and a loner The conflict of the Indian and the Spanish cultures is acted out within him as it was in the life of Arguedas For the boy Ernesto salvation is his world of dreams and memories While Arguedas poetry was published in Quechua he invented a language for his novels in which he used native syntax with Spanish vocabulary This makes translation into other languages extremely difficult and Frances Horning Barraclough has done a masterful job winning the 1978 Translation Center Award from Columbia University

The Inner Life of Mestizo Nationalism Estelle Tarica, 2008 The only recent English language work on Spanish American indigenismo from a literary perspective Estelle Tarica's work shows how modern Mexican and Andean discourses about the relationship between Indians and non Indians create a unique literary aesthetic that is instrumental in defining the experience of mestizo nationalism Engaging with narratives by Jess Lara Jos Mara Arguedas and Rosario Castellanos among other thinkers Tarica explores the rhetorical and ideological aspects of interethnic affinity and connection In her examination she demonstrates that these connections posed a challenge to existing racial hierarchies in Spanish America by celebrating a new kind of national self at the same time that they contributed to new forms of subjection and discrimination Going beyond debates about the relative merits of indigenismo and mestizaje Tarica puts forward a new perspective on indigenista literature and modern mestizo identities by revealing how these ideologies are symptomatic of the dilemmas of national subject formation The Inner Life of Mestizo Nationalism offers insight into the contemporary resurgence and importance of indigenista discourses in Latin America Estelle Tarica is associate professor of Latin American literature and culture at the University of California Berkeley

Creating the Hybrid Intellectual Anne Lambright, 2007 A contribution to the study of Peruvian anthropologist and creative writer Jose Maria Arguedas It asserts that it is through reading the role and trajectory of the feminine in Arguedian narrative that we can best understand the author's national vision

Voices from the Fuente Viva Amy Nauss Millay, 2005 Many twentieth century Spanish American writers sought to give voice to their countries native inhabitants Drawing upon anthropology and literary theory this book explores the representation of orality by major Spanish American anthropologist writers Lydia Cabrera Jose Maria Arguedas and Miguel Barnet These writers played a quintessential role of the Spanish American writer from colonial times to the present they inscribed the mythical world of a vanishing Other by creating a poetic effect of orality in their ethnographies and narratives This book argues that supposed differences between oral and written culture are rhetorical devices in the elaboration of literature specifically modern fiction in Spanish America Fictionalization of the oral requires adherence to the theory of a great divide between orality and literacy Because the texts considered here are predicated on the ideality of speech a contradiction underlies their shared desire to salvage oral tradition This book explores how anthropologist writers have addressed this compelling dilemma in their anthropological and narrative writings at Tufts University Mixing Race, Mixing Culture Monika Kaup, Debra Rosenthal, 2002-08-15 Over the last five centuries the story of the Americas has been a story of the mixing of races and cultures Not surprisingly the issue of miscegenation with its attendant fears and hopes has been a pervasive theme in New World literature as writers from Canada to Argentina confront the legacy of cultural hybridization and fusion This book takes up the challenge of transforming American literary and cultural studies into a comparative discipline by examining the dynamics of racial and cultural mixture and its opposite tendency racial and cultural disjunction in the literatures of the Americas Editors Kaup and Rosenthal have brought together a distinguished set of scholars who compare the treatment of racial and cultural mixtures in literature from North America the Caribbean and Latin America From various angles they remap the Americas as a multicultural and multiracial hemisphere with a common history of colonialism slavery racism and racial and cultural hybridity Gender, Desire, and Whiteness in Los Rios Profundos, by J.M. Journeys of Formation Yolanda A. Doub, 2010 Ideal for students of modern Latin American literature Journeys of Formation The Spanish American Bildungsroman offers a lucid introduction to the Bildungsroman as a genre before revealing how the journey motif works as both a plot forming device and as a means of characterization in several of the most canonical Spanish American Bildungsromane In the process the author demonstrates the overlooked importance of the travel motif in this genre Although present in the vast majority of Bildungsromane if the journey is discussed at all by critics it tends to be in superficial terms The author contends that no discussion of the Spanish American novel of formation would be complete without an exploration of travel Yolanda A Doub articulates the role of travel as a catalyst in the formation process of young male and female protagonists by examining in detail six representative novels from three different countries and time periods from Argentina Ricardo Güiraldes's Don Segundo Sombra 1926 and Roberto Arlt's El juguete rabioso 1926 from Peru José María Arguedas's Los ríos profundos 1958 and Julio Ramón Ribeyro's Crónica de San Gabriel 1960 and from Mexico Rosario Castellanos's Balance 1957 and Elena Poniatowska's La flor de lis 1988 Los ríos profundos (edición conmemorativa de RAE y ASALE) José María Arguedas, 2023-03-23 Una novela fundamental de la literatura en castellano del siglo XX Un autor a la altura de Rulfo y alabado por autores como Gabriel García Márquez Nueva edición conmemorativa de la Real Academia Española y la Asociación de Academias de la Lengua Española Publicada en 1958 y considerada la novela más importante de Arguedas en Los ríos profundos se trata por primera vez en la literatura latinoamericana la figura del indio y sus problemas desde una perspectiva cercana y realista Narra el paso a la edad adulta de un chico de catorce años que

Priscilla Archibald, 2011-01-06 Imagining Modernity in the Andes deals with the intersection of projects of modernity and cultural representation in the Andes. The Peruvian novelist and anthropologist Jos Mar a Arguedas occupies a privileged place in a study that charts the social cultural and intellectual transformations that took place in the Andes throughout the twentieth and early twenty first centuries. In its examination of political and literary indigenistas of the 1920s applied anthropology in the 1950s the novelistic response to emigration and urbanization the theory of transculturation in the era of transnationalism and the appearance of new visual technologies in a cultural context long defined by the oral textual divide Imagining Modernity in the Andes conducts the type of interdisciplinary approach which a full appreciation for the heterodoxies of Andean cultural production makes indispensable. Mining Memory Mary Beth Tierney-Tello, 2017-01-23 Every major Peruvian author of the twentieth century has written a narrative focused on childhood or coming of age. Mining Memory argues that Peruvian narratives of the twentieth century re-imagine childhood not only to document personal pasts but also to focus on national identity as a dynamic and incomplete process. Mining Memory shows how 20th century narratives and films re-imagine the self and the nation by representing child and adolescent protagonists and their evolution using the remembrance of childhood as part of a nation making project. The book demonstrates how in the context of Peruvian fictions focusing on childhood become vehicles for the national reimagining and collective remembering central to much of Latin American literature. The figure of the child as emblem of both a collective memory and an always deferred utopian project holds special promise for twentieth century Peruvian writers as they write from a national context rife with cultural racial and political conflict. The book intervenes in debates internal to Peruvian cultural studies as well as wider conversations in Latin American Studies and post colonial studies. Mining Memory provides a new understanding to both the Latin American and Anglo American traditions regarding the representations of national subjectivities through the voices of the child and adolescent. Such a representational strategy performs a very particular kind of hybridity and temporal balancing act capable of addressing the very issues of cultural memory and fractured identities so relevant to multi cultural post colonial cultural contexts. Food, Power, and Resistance in the Andes Alison Krögel, 2010-12-16 Food Power and Resistance in the Andes is a dynamic interdisciplinary study of how food's symbolic and pragmatic meanings influence access to power and the possibility of resistance in the Andes. In the Andes cooking often provides Quechua women with a discursive space for achieving economic self reliance creative expression and for maintaining socio cultural identities and practices. This book explores the ways in which artistic representations of food and cooks often convey subversive meanings that resist attempts to locate indigenous Andeans and Quechua women in particular at the margins of power. In addition to providing an introduction to the meanings and symbolisms associated with various Andean foods this book also includes the literary analysis of Andean poetry and prose as well as several Quechua oral narratives collected and translated by the author during fieldwork carried out over a period of several years in the southern Peruvian Andes. By following the thematic thread of artistic representations of food this book allows readers to explore a variety of Andean art forms created in both colonial and contemporary contexts In genres such as the novel Quechua oral narrative historical chronicle testimonies photography painting and film artists represent Quechua cooks who utilize their access to food preparation and distribution as a tactic for evading the attempts of a patriarchal hegemony to silence their voices desires values and cultural expressions Whether presented orally visually or in a print medium each of these narratives represents food and cooking as a site where conflict ensues symbolic meanings are negotiated and identities are re constructed Food Power and Resistance will be of interest to Andean Studies and Food Studies scholars and to students of Anthropology and Latin American Studies Spell of the Nation and Region in Modern American and European Fiction Thomas O. Beebee, 2008 In his book Nation and Region in Modern American and European Fiction Thomas O Beebee analyzes fictional texts as a discursive territoriality that shape readers notions of and ambivalence about national and regional belonging Several canonical works of literary fiction have provided their readers with verbal maps that in their depictions of boundary spaces construct indirect images of national territory and geography Beebee analyzes the historical and cultural diversity in Johann Wolfgang von Goethe's Nikolai Gogol's and Ivan Turgenev's competing geographies of Russia and its empire Euclides da Cunha's ambivalent nomination of the sertanejo backlander as the bedrock of the Brazilian race William Faulkner's and Jose Lins do Rego's cultural memories of the plantation Jose Maria Arguedas's novelistic ethnogeographies of Andean culture Juan Benet's construction of region as both metaphor and
